Treasurer W. J. Nicks
Corones Dr. Isley
Surveyor J. A. Hornaday
Jas. Newlin,
L. A. Crawford
M. F. Culler,
J. C. McAdams,
R. C. Dickey,

The Bull Moose is mightier than the bullet.

Collier's Weekly declares for Col. Roosevelt, after a thorough investigation of the facts.

The Denver Post, of Denver, Col., a strong Taft organ in the home town of Guggenheim, declares for Roosevelt and Johnson.

We urge all Progressive to get the facts of the campaign as they are. The Southern Press has no Daily paper that is a real organ. Hence it is necessary to go North in order to get the facts through real progressive dailies. This condition is a reflection on the Southern Daily Press, nevertheless it's true.

The County campaign is now on and we understand the discussion by the various candidates is very fine and is worth while for you to hear these gentlemen.

Mr. Williams of Minnesota, Champ Clark Campaign manager and convention leader at Baltimore Convention avices his connector with the Progressive movement and will loyally support Roosevelt and Johnson.

Last week we gave our views on Socialism, and said that the would be assassin of Col. Roosevelt was a Socialist, since then the villian denies the Socialist party as his leader, but it is true that the doctrine of the extremist of the Tory Press like the New York World and the New York Herald are the organs that fired the mind of this villian.

The Democrats have always said they had no money for campaign funds. The truth has been told by one Thos. Fortune Ryan before the Senate Committee. $450,000.00 to Judge Parker in 1904. $30,000. 00 to the Harmon fund this year, and $32,000. 00 to Underwood a total gift of $562,000.00. Not much. No never wrong when its a Democrat act.

This same Parker is the man that eight years ago accused Col. Roosevelt of being elected by Trustfunds. He has more in his jeans than Teddy had in all. Democracy you had better close the Senatorial investigation now or your benefactor will tell more.

That Wonderful Forecast

The Burlington News tried last week to make a real smart comment on the editorial interview that we published in our issue the 6th of October.

It does not question the truthfulness of the interview, but at the close of the first paragraph, he says, "If all he declares is true." Now it's immaterial to us as to its opinion to any question, but the interview was given by a man who contributed one dollar to the Wilson Campaign Fund, and we believe the gentleman told what he believed. If your words are the expressions of your feelings towards manufacturers, we are sure capital appreciates your loyal support. Lots of Tariff dope sounds very much like a memorized speech of the Democratic orator of twenty years ago. Of course the News learned from a younger authority.

Brother if you will explain to the thinking man how American labor can compete with Italian, Japanese, Chinese and all other foreign laborers without a protective tariff, you will be a wise Guy indeed and a benefactor to all your friends by doing it.

Gettysburg—1913.

The Dispatch takes pleasure in announcing that a Reunion Club of Confederate Veterans will be organized in Alamance by Col. Frank C. Mosier of Pennsylvania and that he will personally conduct the Alamance members to Gettysburg next July to attend the Reunion, where everything possible will be at the disposal of the Old Soldiers without price or money.

Col. Roosevelt will be Master of Ceremonies and lead the maneuvers of the Reunion.

Alamance will consider going should notify the Editor of the Dispatch, so that arrangements can be made for your accommodation as the plans are to go in automobile from Burlington.

Tommy, You Are A Dandy

We love your views and explanation of the tariff. Your speech was the best made in Burlington in a long time, although, we differ from him on some questions. But, oh how we longed that the Burlington News might have ears that are capable of hearing both sides of the Tariff question, and especially the appeal that one W. A. Erwin and others made to the Senate Committee to not recommend a reduction of the duty on cotton fabrics until he and others including a cotton manufacturer of our town, could be heard.

The Tariff issue is nothing new. Its a principle of good government. Its an established fact that when you violate the protective tariff principle, with free trade policy (or a tariff for revenue only, which has no meaning to any one) not only does the employee suffer for want of employment, but it also injures the employer. The protective tariff people have pulled the country out of the hole every time the Democrats have pushed it in with a free trade mark plank.

If you want to go in the hole following the Democratic party, go, we may pull you out after four years, and we may not. The cry of the distressed and suffering have been heard in America and we may to our sorrow hear it again.

When Wilson Took Money.

It turns out that Cyrus H. McCormack, the president of the harvester trust, was one of the "Princeton friends," that he gave $12,500 of the $85,000 they raised to get the nomination for Mr. Wilson. This no more proves that the harvester trust is behind Wilson than the support of Roosevelt by George W. Perkins put the harvester trust behind the Progressive nominee.

It does prove that Wilson himself was perfectly able to indorse this idea when the harvester man's money was contributed to promote his personal interest.

Cleveland H. Dodge told the story of the contribution on the stand in the senate committee. Dodge said he feared the government suits to dissolve the harvester company might arouse adverse criticism, and he asked McCormack to take the money back. The question finally was left to Governor Wilson. "The governor said he was perfectly willing to receive the money and was not afraid to take it," said Dodge. "Mr. McCormack gave the money just as he would to Princeton University."

That is a fair and reasonable view. The singular thing is that Wilson now seeks to deny this same standard to an opponent and to endeavor to campaign on that bases. It is wretched dodging and does not deceive the people. It does show the former head of Princeton resorting to unworthy tactics.

Cleveland H. Dodge, who testified to Wilson's theory of gifts to his campaign, is listed as a director of the Luckawanna Iron and Coal Company. But this is no proof that the coal trust is backing Wilson for the presidency in the understanding that he would show the coal trust more consideration than the coal trust did get from Roosevelt. It would be as unfair to charge that the coal trust is behind Wilson as it was for Wilson to charge that the steel corporation is behind Roosevelt.

The case of Jacob H. Schiff, another heavy Wilson contributor another man powerful in great corporation, is a similar instance.

Wilson's cause is injured rather than helped by his resorts to attacks on his presidential rival such as the charge that there is a "hallelujah chorus of big monopolies" behind Roosevelt. It has fallen to me to bare part of the burden and to continue the struggle as we had planned for him to do.

"Reluctantly, therefore, there are many reasons for my return that may be readily understood, I have yealded to the request of the Progressives of the nation, and shall in so far as I am able, continue this battle that means so much for our humanity."

Farm Journal Editor Predicts T. R.'s Election

The prediction that Colonel Roosevelt will sweep the country next month by a large majority is made by Wilmer Atkinson, editor of the Farm Journal. Straw votes taken by Mr. Atkinson show that the colonel leads Taft and Wilson three to one in New England, four to one in the middle west and as high as seven to one west of the Mississippi.

Mr. Atkinson was one of the speakers at a rally of Washington party supporters held at the home of Mrs. Gertrude W. Pennington, 4209 Chester avenue, at which Major Cassius E. Gillette, former chief of the water bureau, also spoke.

Major Gillette said that Colonel Roosevelt offers the only opportunity the people will have to regain the reins of government. He declared that Roosevelt with the courage to fight special privilege.
