Floyd Allen And His Son, Claud Must Die in the Chair Friday.

Richmond, Va., Nov.—A new trial today was refused for Floyd Allen and his son Claud Swanson Allen by the Supreme court of Virginia.
Floyd Allen was convicted May 17, specifically for the killing of Commonwealth Attorney William M. Foster. Allen's son, tried on the charge of killing Judge Thornton L. Massie, was convicted and sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary. A second trial on an indictment for the killing of Attorney Foster resulted in a conviction of murder in the first degree July 27.

It is believed that Governor Man will not interfere with the execution of sentence imposed by the courts. The appeal to the Supreme court, decided adversely today, had been pending for some time, but Virginia officials have proceeded with arrangements for the execution of the men, believing that no clemency would be shown.
The execution of Floyd Allen and his son, Claud Swanson Allen sentenced to die in the electric chair between sunrise and sunset Friday, will mark the first blow of justice upon the notorious Allen clansman, whose lawlessness for years held the natives of the Virginia mountains in terror and culminated early this year in the shooting up of the Carroll county court when five persons lost their lives. The news of the crime sent a thrill of horror throughout the nation, and shocked the Virginia Authorities moved expeditiously to bring the criminals to justice.

On the morning of March 14, Floyd Allen stood before the bar of the Carroll county courthouse at Hillsville to receive sentence for his part in aiding the escape of another mountaineer from the custody of the sheriff. A crowd packed the little courtroom for the character of the prisoners was well known. Members of the Allen family were known to be in court and trouble was thought imminent.
The jury having announced a verdict of guilty, Judge Thornton L. Massie sentenced the prisoners to one year at hard labor. With the last word of the sentence, a crash of firearms broke from the spectators benches. Floyd Allen, the prisoner, with a smoking revolver in his hand, leaped from the prisoner's dock and joined the rush of the gang toward the door.

When the courtroom was cleared the body of Judge Massie, riddled with bullets, was found lying over his desk; Commonwealth Attorney William M. Foster and sheriff L. F. Webb lay dead on the floor; Augustus Flower, and Elizabeth Ayres were bleeding from wounds which proved fatal the next day, and Dexter Goad clerk of the court shot through the neck. Good was one of the principal witnesses for the state at the conviction of the prisoners.

Sold Hogs by Telephone

A South Carolina farmer had a large number of hogs which were ready to kill. The weather was so warm that killing was out of the question. He went to his telephone, called a dealer in Columbia over Long Distance and sold his hogs at a good price. He then called the local freight office and arranged for shipment.
The telephone is now a necessity on the farm. You can have one on your farm at small cost. See the nearest Bell Telephone Manager or send a postal for our free booklet.

Take notice. This is my second and last round for the year 1912. These taxes are due and must be paid, and NOW is the best time to pay. Under the new law I will not be able to show the indulgence that I have heretofore and I hope everybody will give this important matter their immediate attention and save me the necessary of applying the law as it will be my duty to do. Any who in arrears with any part of their taxes will take WARNING. THIS IS MY FINAL NOTICE. I shall proceed at once to collect as the law provides. SETTLE NOW AND SAVE THE COSTS.
Respectfully,
B. N. Cook, Sheriff.
