

MRS. H. P. BOWMAN SEEKS A DIVORCE

Greensboro, Nov. 22.—Summons were issued yesterday and filed in the office of the clerk of the Superior court preliminary to an action by Mrs. Araminta Bowman to obtain a divorce from Dr. H. P. Bowman. The summons is returnable at the December term of Guilford Superior court. In the same action Mrs. Bowman will ask to have restored to her and three children by her first marriage certain property belonging to her and the children at the time of her marriage to Dr. Bowman, the property in question being acquired from the first husband of Mrs. Bowman and father of the three children. The divorce will be asked upon statutory grounds, there being an intimation of possible sensational developments by the unveiling of evidence in support of Mrs. Bowman's appeal for separation. G. S. Bradshaw has been retained as counsel of Mrs. Bowman.

Dr. and Mrs. Bowman before coming to Greensboro resided at Gibsonville, where they made many friends, Dr. Bowman being well known throughout that section of the country. They resided in this city for several years.

TURKS BETTER MARCHED TO OPPOSE BULGARS.

London, Nov. 21.—Reliable eyewitness of the fighting on the Turkish left wing at Tchatalja report that it appears to have resulted in the Bulgarians retiring along the road from Papaz Burgas toward the village of Tchatalja, according to the correspondent of the Daily News. One report says they fell back ten miles.

It appears, according to this correspondent doubtful whether the enthusiastic descriptions by the Turkish press of victories on the right wing are reliable. The Turkish losses here have been admitted heavy but the arrival of troops from Syria has further strengthened the Turkish defense. It is also evident that the supply and commissariat difficulties of the Ottoman army have been somewhat relieved.

The conclusion is drawn in Constantinople that it should now be easier to arrange terms, unless the Turkish military authorities make the mistake of supposing that a successful defense justifies defiance. Wounded Turkish officers highly compliment the energy shown by General von Hochwaschter to whom some of them attribute a great part of the credit for the defense on the Turkish right wing.

It is clear that the Bulgarians have evacuated the positions facing the Hamidieh forts, according to the Times correspondent. The Turks followed the retreating Bulgarians with artillery, which has a longer range. The correspondent adds:

"I cannot understand the Bulgarian operations. Their withdrawal possibly is a feint; but if so why did they make such strenuous efforts to intrench themselves?"

The correspondent suggests that the Bulgarians may have imagined they would have an easy path to Constantinople, or perhaps the Bulgarian generals were ordered to make a demonstration without seriously committing their troops. He adds:

"The Turks are massed in such strength on the Mahmoud Pasha lines that they look as though they would be able to resist indefinitely any attempt of the Bulgarians to approach them, if the enemy's forward movement should continue as extended as it has been during the last few days. The Bulgarians have retired to the hills in the immediate vicinity of Tchatalja village, and the Turkish troops have reoccupied some villages on the plain facing the Hamidieh forts. Whatever may be the importance of this movement, it has acted as a strong tonic to the spirit of the Turkish troops."

M. P. CONFERENCE AT BURLINGTON

The movement launched by the literary societies of the University of North Carolina a few weeks ago to form a State-wide debating union of the high schools of North Carolina has thus far met with admirable success. The plan which provides for the formation of a network of schools for a stimulating debating in the secondary schools has already been responded to by 43 representative schools of the State. The list includes the high schools of Raleigh, Charlotte, Salisbury, Statesville, Oxford, Winston-Salem, Greensboro, Washington, Hendersonville, Lenoir and other foremost schools in the State. The committee promoting this debating union have been active in arranging the query to be debated, the prize that is to be awarded, and other technicalities toward making the union a thoroughgoing one. The prize nominally the "Aycock memorial Cup" will be a contribution of the local chapter of the Tau Kappa Alpha debating fraternity, which chapter is composed of intelligent Carolina debaters.

The North Carolina Drainage Association will be in session at Raleigh on the dates of November 26-27. The University will be represented by Prof. William Cain, professor of mathematics. He is interested in the fatherhood of work of this nature, and his advice on the subject will be altogether worthy of consideration at the meeting of the Drainage association. He will address the Association on the subject "The Relation of the University to the Public Works of the State."

The debating union of the University has recently consummated plans for a triangular debate during the month of April, between the Universities of North Carolina, Virginia, and John Hopkins. Any new schedule of debating by the University of North Carolina recounts its notable achievements in the field of debate. In the sum total of thirty debates with noted universities from Pennsylvania to Louisiana, Carolina has lost only nine. This is a record unsurpassed in Southern Universities.

In a race contest held by the track department of the University last Wednesday, a member of the freshman class won the medal as the swiftest mile-clipper against seven competitors. The winner made the mile run within 4.58 3-3 of time. Mr. Hazel Patterson of Alamance County was winner of the race.

The advanced classes of the pharmacy department have organized a society for the purpose of furthering pharmacy in North Carolina, and for the purpose of discussing subjects of interest to druggists. The society has been fittingly named in honor of one of North Carolina's pioneer pharmacists, of several years ago, the late Mr. William Simpson of Raleigh.

Rev. Lewis S. Chaffer, of the Scofield Bible School, of New York City has during the past week conducted a Bible Institute in the Presbyterian church of Chapel Hill.

President F. P. Venable was honored with the office of a member of the executive committee of National Association of State Universities at its annual sessions in Washington, D. C. this week.

Many of the Burlington boys who are in school the University will return home today to spend Thanksgiving.

Pipe Organ Recital.

Mr. L. Seten Blyth, L. Mus. L. C. organist and chorister of the Church of the Holy Comforter, will give a recital in the Church, Tuesday, Dec. 3rd, at 8 o'clock, a very fine program has been arranged and a splendid musical treat is in store for the musically inclined in our city. There will be three anthems by the large vested choir in addition to eleven organ numbers.

Burlington Nov. 20.—The various trains of the day have been bringing in ministers and laymen of all districts to attend the Methodist Protestant Church, which is to convene in this city tomorrow. The people are extending a most cordial welcome. Trains were met by reception committees and escorted to their respective homes where they were met with warm hospitality. Perhaps not more than one-half of the expected visitors have yet arrived. Numbers are expected on each of the trains tomorrow.

It is customary for the conference faculty to meet on the day before conference convenes, proper. This body met today and examined the ministerial candidates in the various classes.

The night session was only a preliminary service of welcome addressed by E. S. W. Dameron, and Rev. Donald Melver pastor of Burlington Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Dameron delivered the first address, which was in behalf of the city. He spoke earnestly and forcibly of the various enterprises of Burlington and said a department of city extended welcome to the conference. Mr. Melver extended welcome in behalf of the ministers of the city. He paid a most beautiful respect, to the ministry, and said those of that profession who lived in the city of Burlington were glad the conference and come. He too, said in a most forcible manner "Welcome."

Rev. W. E. Swain D. D., Ashboro, president of the conference responded to the addresses. Mr. Swain referred to the rich history of old Alamance, that county in which the early patriot's fought for liberty. He said a city such as Burlington, with its splendid thrift and schools could be expected from such a people as lived in Alamance.

After the addresses were delivered announcements were made for tomorrow's session. Conference proper will convene in at 10 o'clock. Immediately after the convening of conference, the president will read his report. At 10:30, Rev. D. A. Highfill will preach the conference sermon. Following the sermon.

In the afternoon session the conference officers will be elected. This will doubtless prove to be interesting, as both a new president and a new secretary are to be elected. Doctor Swain, having served the two year limit in the presidency, will be succeeded by a new man. Rev. S. W. Taylor, who has served as secretary for a number of years, not being able to attend conference, will necessarily cause the election of a new secretary.

At night, the meeting will be presided over by Mr. T. A. Hunter of Greensboro. This meeting will be devoted to the new orphanage enterprise, an institution which is now being built near High Point.
