 We suppose the reason women wear the hats that come down about their ears is so that they can't hear the mean things men say about them.
 There will be no silent vote among the women electors.
 A person who can't get along with his neighbors will usually find that the fault is not with the neighbors.
 It is the "drys," not the "wets," that open the floodgates of oratory.
 More trees are cut down at Christmas time than are planted

 There is such a thing as becoming so wise to all con games that you will pass up a real gold brick.
 It is no longer a question of what to do with our ex-presidents. To the Republicans and Democrats it a question of what to do to our ex-president.
 With woman suffrage becoming general, candidates will need to devise a new line of campaign "bunk."
 God probably never intended man to be satisfied—because if he was he would have nothing

TO HELL WITH THE CONSTITUTION CRIES
 GOV. COLE L. BLEASE.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 5.—Half of the 50 women in attendance on the governors conference this afternoon hurriedly left the hall when Gov. Cole L. Blease, of South Carolina, for the second time defending his doctrine of lynching negroes guilty of criminal assault, without a trial, shouted his platform "to hell with the constitution."
 This sentiment was in response to a question hurled at him by Gov. Joseph N. Carey, of Wyoming, who desired to know if Gov.
 Blease had not taken an oath to uphold the constitution and laws of his state, and if these laws did not protect colored men as well as white men.
 "I will answer that question," replied the South Carolina executive. "And I hope the newspaper men will get it right, for in my campaign in South Carolina they found that I am a fighter—and a cold blooded fighter," he added, grinding the words between his teeth. "When the constitution steps between me and the defense of the virtue of the white women of my state, I will resign my commission and tear it upon and throw it to the breezes.
 I have heretofore said: 'To hell with the constitution.'" At this point fully 25 women, some of them wives and daughters of governors, left the hall.
 Seeing this, Governor Blease subsided.
 Gov. Albert W. Gilchrist, of Florida instantly uttered a stinging rebuke. "The first thing," he said "that indicates a manly man or a womanly woman is thoughtful consideration for other people."
 He was cheered. The greatest applause of the session had previously greeted Governor Carey's question. Later, Gov. John F.
 Shafroth, of Colorado referred to lynch law doctrine. "One mob can do more injury to society," he said, "than 20 murders, because a lynching permeates the entire community and produces anarchy. The influence of mob rule is more reprehensible.
 When laws are made it should be the duty of a governor to enforce them, whether he approves them or not. When the law prescribes hanging for an offense, and a man is found guilty, he should be hung, whether white or black, and there is no excuse for mob law. I conceive it to be our duty as governors to declare for law and order."
 Papers read by Gov. Tasker L.
 Oddie, of Nevada and James H.
 Hawley, of Idaho, on uniformity in laws governing divorce were under consideration when Gov.
 Blease spoke. He defended the position of South Carolina where no divorce is permitted in any cause. He proceeded to discuss the race problem, and said that when an inferior race gets in the way of a superior race, the former is swept from the face of the earth. He reverted again to his pardon record, boasting that he had pardoned and paroled more negroes than all other governors of his state combined since 1876.
 Announcing that there has not been a lynching in North Carolina in six years, Gov. W. W. Kithin said the sentiment for standing by the laws daily gains strength.
 He believed there should be convictions in nearly every case when there is a lynching.
 Gov. Mann of Virginia, added that he would call out every soldier in this state if necessary to protect a man under arrest and give him a fair trial.
 Movements for the improvement of rural life and the upbuilding of agriculture were discussed this afternoon by Govs.
 Adolph O. Eberhart, of Minnesota; Terbert S. Hadley, of Missouri; W. H. Mann of Virginia George W. Donaghey, of Arkansas; and Joseph M. Brown, of Georgia. Divorce law problems were also spoken to Govs. Joseph M. Carey, of Wyoming and S.
 E. Baldwin, of Connecticut.
 Miss Mary Johnston, the novellist, addressed the conference on equal suffrage.
 It was announced that Ambasador Myron T. Herrick will be one of the speakers tomorrow morning on the subject of rural credits. He will personally represent President Taft.
