My Doctor Said

"Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to be up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is successful, because it is made especially for women, and acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That explains the great success which it has had, during the past 50 years, in helping thousands of weak and ailing women back to health and happiness.

If you are a woman, feel tired, dull, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's because you need a tonic. Why not try Cardui? Cardui builds, strengthens, restores, and acts in every way as a special, tonic remedy for women. Test it for yourself. Your druggist sells Cardui. Ask him.

15,000 Killed in Philippine Typhoon.

Washington, Nov. 29.—That fifteen thousand people were probably killed in a typhoon that swept the Philippine islands last Tuesday was reported in cable dispatches to the bureau of insular affairs today.

Many Americans, it is feared, have lost their lives in the storm.

The typhoon swept the Visayas islands and is said to have practically destroyed Tacloban, the capital of Leyte, on the northeast coast of the island and to have wrought enormous damage and loss of life at Capiz, the capital of the province Capiz.

Several hundred foreigners are employed in the hemp factories of Tacloban, which is the outlet for a considerable hemp district, and has a population of 14,000.

Leyte has a population of 14,000; Capiz has a population of over 20,000. Capiz is the terminal of the railroad from Iloilo. It is a most important sugar point.

Governor Forbes' cable to the war department reads:

"That Man Roosevelt"

Arnold Bennett's latest book is about America. He calls it "You United States," but the reading of its pleasantly fluent pages has served on this occasion chiefly to recall another volume on this country by H. G. Wells that contains a graphic picture of Mr. Roosevelt during his second presidential term. Wells went to see Roosevelt in the White House.

They walked in the garden and talked of human destiny. They talked of another book by Wells, in which he had made a picture of the world when the sun had almost burned out, and only blind algal creatures moved on the sands near the dead waters of the sea. Wells asked the president of what use was all the fuss we made of living when that was to be the end of it, and the president kneeling on a garden seat, thumped the back of it with an emphatic fist, and peering at him through his glasses, said at him more than to him: "Well, what of that? What if that be the ultimate end of our labors? The effort's worth it! The effort's worth it!"

What picture stands to our thinking as being still a faithful likeness.—Phila Evening Times.

MIKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Buklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles, 25 cts at Freeman Drug Store.

Mark Graves of Confederate.

General Berry's report will be transmitted to Congress. It shows that the General found and marked by headstones and tablets the bodies of 22,401 Confederate dead including all positively known to fall within the terms of the act. In every case where it was possible each of these graves was marked with a white marble headstone similar to those placed over the graves in the Confederate section of Arlington National Cemetery.

In cases where the identification of individual graves was impossible monuments were erected with bronze tablets attached giving the names and commands of those so honored.

A monument of character was erected at Point Lookout, Maryland, to mark the burial place of about 3,384 Confederates. Similar monuments have been erected by the Government at Chicago, North Alton Ills. Indianapolis, Ind; Finns Point, N. J; Philadelphia, Pa; Harrodsburg, Ky; Evansville, Terre Haute and Lafayette, Ind. and other places.

There are about 4,400 Confederates buried in Oakwood Cemetery at Chicago, about 2,400 at Finns Point and a smaller number at each of the other places named.

The graves marked with individual headstones number nearly 10,000, a large majority of them being in cemeteries in Elmira N. Y. Columbus O; Rock Island, Ills; Jefferson Barracks Mo; Springfield, Ills, and Madison Wis.

MOVE ON NOW!

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't "Move on now," says the big harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action and health follows. 25 cents at Freeman Drug Store.

Our strictly non-partisan hope is that the president-elect will make such a conspicuous success of it that in 1816 Col. Roosevelt will be fitting about the country pretending to be a second Woodrow Wilson.

WE WILL SHOW YOU HOW!

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photo plays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photo-plays, are located in or near New York City. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our Sales Department has a tremendous advantage over agencies located in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as Vitagraph, Edison, Essanay, Lubin Solax, Imp, Rex, Reliance, Champion, Comet, Melies, etc., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we will gladly teach you the secrets of success.
