Hen Lays Eggs In Cold Storage.

Tarrytown, N. Y. Dec. 15.—Gilbert Brown of Eastview, owns a fine hen that has been operating a cold storage plant of her own. This morning Brown heard her cackling and found her hidden under the floor of the ice house with seventy-two eggs. Brown believes the hen wandered into the ice house last summer, and finding it a cool spot started the nest and went there every day. As eggs are much higher now, Brown says his hen is a financier. —Special to North American Aviators Kill in Fall.

London, Dec. 15.—The fall of an aeroplane today added two to the list of fatalities of aviation. Lieu. W. Negro Woman Ran Down Man Who Grabbed Purse.

Greensboro, N. C. Dec. 17.—A good sized negro woman yesterday afternoon proved amply able to care for herself in the case of an emergency, the result being that she recovered the pocketbook that had been snatched from her and administered a good thrashing to the negro man who was so bold as to do the snatching. The alleged theft occurred on South Elm street at the Kress store at which time it is said the negro man, thinking he had an easy mark, grabbed the pocketbook from the woman's hand and started down the street.

She took out after him, showing a burst of speed that was surprising and that overcame the efforts of the man who became frightened and ran to get away. Near the passenger station she caught him, and without the assistance of anyone gave him several severe swipes with her hand. She refused to give her name, but secured the pocketbook and went away, while the negro was allowed to proceed after she was through with him.

Miss Hazel Greeson Entertained.

Miss Hazel Greeson delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Lively last Thursday night. About fifteen of her friends were present to enjoy the evening. Games were played and a very choice fruit course served. Miss Greeson proved a charming hostess and the crowd dispersed hoping to be treated in the same good way again.

Thanks From Mr. Holt.

Many thanks to my friends at Union Ridge, N. C. for their thoughtfulness and great kindness to their pastor, expressed in a $22.50 set of buggy harness and a purse of over five dollars as a Christmas present. This gift is very highly appreciated.

Jeremiah W. Holt.

DON'T CARRY YOUR MONEY PUT IT IN OUR BANK

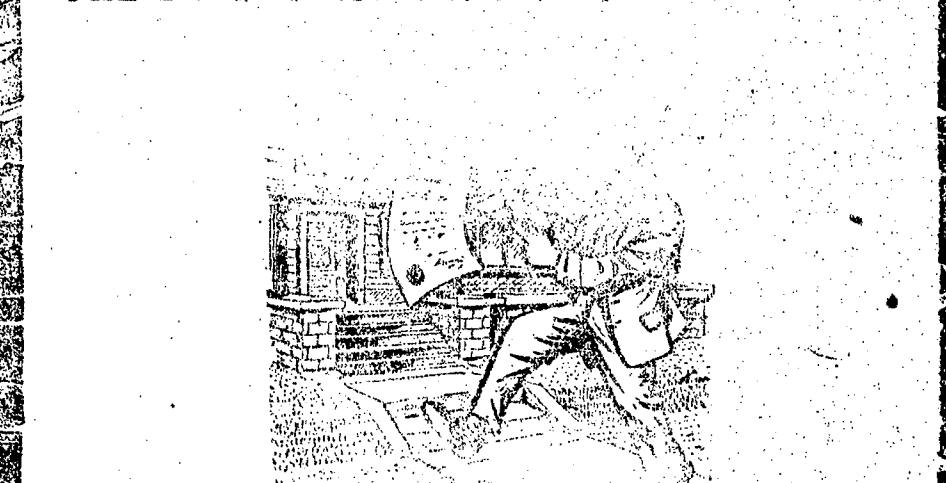

Why Allow Your Money to Lie Dormant in your pocket book or hid away at home, when it can be drawing interest and working for you in this bank?

It's neither safe nor, diplomatic, and there's no laudable reason for it.

Deposit your money here as soon as you get it. Carry a check book instead. Should you lose it there is no serious loss to you—the check book can be replaced—the money, never.
