

Not 'Bald' Jack Rose Now: He Acquires Hair.

New York. — "Bald Jack" Rose, author of "My Life in the Underworld" and chief witness against Lieutenant Becker is no longer "Bald Jack".

No, sir, Jack must hereafter be addressed as just plain "Jack" without any frills or attachments relative to his shortcomings in the line of hisute adornments. He has purchased a coal-black, glossy wig, and is wearing it around with care-free abandon.

It's a dream, too, according to the stories of Jack's fellow residents at Arverne, Rockaway Beach, who have had the pleasure of seeing the budding author practicing with his new acquisition along the avenues and boulevards near his home and "literary headquarters".

How Greensboro Does' It.

(From the Daily Record.)

Greensboro's commissioners played in good luck with the street paving. It was all finished up the day before Christmas and the only kick one hears now is that every street in town—and outside—is not likewise paved.

Under what is known as the Hunter ordinance, it is up to property owners when it comes to paving. When 60 per cent of these petitions the city to pave a street, the city goes at it. These property owners paying a goodly share of the expense.

Governor Kitchin's Pardons

Raleigh Times

Governor Kitchin during his term granted 1,200 pardons, a slight increase over his predecessors, but the percentage is practically the same. There have been more prisoners and consequently more petitions. Governor Kitchin has never given out the names of the convicts refused clemency, but there have been thousands of them.

Babies By Parcel Post Latest Problem Yet.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The mailing of babies by parcel post is a real infant industry, which Postmaster General Hitchcock is asked to foster. In the circumstances of his bachelorhood, Mr. Hitchcock has considered seriously the calling into consultation of experts in the transportation of babies, as a letter, which he received today, presents to him a problem with which he is quite unfamiliar. To add to his embarrassment, the letter contains a note of genuine pathos—Postmaster General. This is the letter, identically as it was phrased and punctuated.

F. T. McPherson, Ga. Postmaster General, Washington, D. C.

"Sir, I have been corresponding with a party in Pennsylvania about getting a baby to raise (our home being without one). May I ask you what specifications to use in wrapping so it (baby) would comply with regulations and be allowed shipment by parcel post as the express company is too rough in handling Yours

The name signed to the letter is withheld at the request of Mr. Hitchcock.

As babies in the opinion of Postmaster General do not fall within the category of bees and bugs, the only live things that may be transported by mail the Postmaster General is apprehensive that he may not be of assistance to his correspondent.

Keen for the Parcel Post

From the Lexington Dispatch

One carrier on a rural route leading out of Lexington took 70 pounds of merchandise bearing parcel post stamps with him one day last week. The people are seizing on the innovation with an avidity nothing short of marvelous and the merchant who disregards their enthusiasm is not wise; the local merchants have a great field opened up before them by the new arrangement but if they refuse to reap its harvest they may rest assured that the mail order houses will. The man who advertises is the man who will get the parcel post trade.

Knew There Was Snake In The Room

An Englishman in traveling through Ceylon was the guest of a dockyard official at Trincomalee.

"The dinner was excellent," he says, "but when about half over I was startled to hear the wife of my host tell the native servant to place a bowl of milk on the deerskin near her chair.

"Although she spoke as calmly as giving an ordinary order, I knew that there was a snake somewhere in the room, for they prefer milk to anything else. As a hasty movement might have meant certain death, we all sat like statues; but for all that, my eyes were inspecting every nook and corner, with a peep under the table. However, it was not until the milk was placed on the deerskin that the snake appeared. Then to our amazement, a large cobra uncoiled itself from my hostess' ankle and glided toward the bowl, when of course it was killed.

Nickel Brought Girl $3,500.
New York, Jan. 18.—Miss

Mira Dobbs dropped a nickel by mistake into a ticket chopper's box of the Interborough Rapid Transit company a year ago and is $3,500 richer as a result. Today she was awarded that sum as damages for false arrest which occurred when, upon refusal of the ticket agent to return her coin, she took another nickel from his window. Haled to court, the young woman was honorably discharged. Then she sued the company.

Is Peruna a Laxative?

I am in receipt of a letter from a mechanic who is at the head of a prosperous household. Peruna has been used in his family for a good many years. He writes as follows:

"As you know, we have used Peruna in our home for a number of years. We find it a reliable household medicine in catarrhal conditions, coughs, colds and grip, and many other ailments to which the family is subject. But since the change in the formula of Peruna I do not find it quite as useful to myself. My bowels are naturally very active. I cannot take a cathartic of any sort. It does me injury to do so. The old Peruna contained no cathartic ingredient and was therefore a very useful medicine to me. But I notice that the new Peruna has a slight laxative action, which almost makes it prohibitory for me to use. I was wondering if there was not some way in which I could obtain the old Peruna as you used to make it."

To this letter I made the following reply: "Yes, the new Peruna does contain a laxative element. You should therefore take the old Peruna (Ka-tar-no) which has no laxative quality. While prescribing the old Peruna I found it quite necessary frequently to prescribe the laxative Manalin in connection with it. Therefore Manalin was combined with Peruna in order to meet those cases that require a laxative. But in case no laxative is required the objection to the new Peruna you speak of arises. Many of the people who used to take the old Peruna found difficulty in taking the new Peruna. To meet those cases I am having manufactured the old Peruna under the name of Katarno, and if you are anxious to get the old Peruna exactly as it used to be made you can do so."

PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

In his message to the Legislature Governor Kitchin recommends the creation of a Board of Pardons. Wonder if that was out of kindness to Mr. Craig or to take away some of his power as Governor?

By the way does any body know whether Tom Marshall of Indiana is still living?
