LARGEST CROWD EVER GATHERED AT AN INAUGURATION WELCOMED STATE'S NEW GOVERNOR WEDNESDAY

Raleigh, N. C. Jan. 15.—Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville was inducted into the office of governor of North Carolina in a manner that eclipsed all former inaugurations in point of interest attendance and display. No less than 12 companies of militia, three bands, 75 carriages and automobiles and 1,500 persons took part in the great parade that preceded the imposing ceremonies of the inauguration. What added spice to the spectacle was the presence of a motion picture photographer whose camera snapped at the pageant as it passed certain vantage points. In the parade were the governor, the governor-elect, house and senate and Raleigh inaugural committee, the state officers and scores of visitors.

The parade's march [was from Nash square to the Parborough and from there to the mason and return. In the auditorium was the most magnificent spectacle. The great building, gaily decorated, was packed from front to rear and from side to side, reservations having been made for the members of the general assembly and their friend. On the great platform the inaugural party sat: back of them the Raleigh Choral society, the women being dressed in white. On the right hand side of the stage the Third regiment band dispensed music at intervals, Patriotic airs were sung and played.

When the gubernatorial party entered the building the audience rose en masse and cheered, and there was frequent applause from then on. The next genuine outburst came when Governor Kitchin rose to introduce his successor, a wave of applause rolling throughout the large auditorium. Then when Mr. Craig rose the audience jumped to its feet and cheered. The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice Walter Clark. The oaths were administered to the other state officers, the only new one being Judge George P. Pell, on the corporation commission, by Associate Justices Hoke and Allen.

Governor Kitchin smilingly presented Mr. Craig to the general assembly and the audience and the oath of office was then given. The crowd here today for the inauguration exceeded that of any similar occasion in the history of the state. Not even when the great Vance, who likewise hailed from Asheville, was inducted into office was there such a crowd here. It is estimated that there were at least 20,000 visitors in town, only a fourth of whom were able to witness the ceremonies.

Governor Craig, Private Secretary Kerr and Executive Clerk Thomason found everything in readiness for them at the executive office. Governor Kitchin, Private Secretary Field and Executive Clerk Warlick had prepared all matters ready to be turned over to the successors. This afternoon a luncheon was given at the mansion. Tonight a public reception was held, hundreds of persons calling on Governor and Mrs. Craig. Tomorrow Governor Craig will make three welcome addresses to his constituents, and day after tomorrow he will begin to feel at home in the swinging chair that so many executives have occupied with credit to themselves and their state.

The military feature of the parade today was the most notable part of the procession, the civil section coming second to it in importance, though there was a notable number of dignitaries in carriage and automobiles. Maj. J. J. Bernard, of Raleigh, was in charge of militia and Col. Thos. L. Craig was in command of the regiment.

The infantry of the national guard was formed into a provisional regiment of 12 companies composed of three battalions as follows:

First battalion, Maj. Lawrence Young, of Asheville commanding; Co. B. Raleigh captain W. F. Moody; Co. D. Lenoir, Capt. Turner; Co. C. F. Anderson, Captain Jones; Co. E. Asheville, Captain Farris.
Second battalion, R. M. Kearney, Co. H. Warren; Co. I. Burlington; Captain Freeman, Co.

M. Durham, Captain Chambers. Third battalion, Maj. C. M. Faircloth, of Clinton, commanding—Co. F. Fayetteville, Captain Watson; Co. D. Goldsboro, Simpkins; Co. E. Goldsboro, Captain Clements; Co. H. Clinton, Captain Hobbs; Hospital corps, Lieut. W. C. Horton.

Another division of the military parade was composed of the Third company, coast artillery, of Greensboro, Capt. F. L. Page commanding, and the fourth division of naval militia of Plymouth, Lieut. W. B. Clifton commanding, this division being headed by the band of the corps of coast artillery of Salisbury.

The third division was composed of the staff, band and six companies of the cadet battalion of the A. and M. college, commanded by Maj. T. J. Huiett, of New Bern.

The fifth division was composed of the Raleigh boy scouts, commanded by Ernest R. Carroll.

There were nearly 1,200 guardsmen, cadets and boy scouts in the line. The officers were mounted.

The line of carriages and automobiles were occupied in the following order:

First, Governor-elect Craig, Senator Zebulon Weaver, Representative J. W. Bunn. At the governor's mansion Governor Kitchin entered this carriage.

Second, Lieutenant-Governor W. C. Newland, Lieutenant-Governor-elect E. L. Daughtridge, Senator Geo. B. McLeod, General Chairman Alexander Webb.

Third, Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes, Speaker of the House Geo. W. Connor, Senator J. P. Cook, Chairman Reception Committee J. F. Sprague.

Fourth, State Auditor W. P. Wood, State Treasurer B. R. Lacy, Representative R. R. Williams, Chairman Finance Committee J. G. Ball.

Fifth, Superintendent Public Instruction, J. Y. Joyner, Attorney General T. W. Bickett, Representative Z. J. Young, E. C. Duncan.

Sixth, Insurance Commissioner J. R. Young, Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham, Senator T. T. Thorne, Chairman Decorative Committee J. W. Bailey.

Seventh, Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman, Corporation Commissioner Geo. P. Pell, Senator W. T. Woody, Chairman Press Committee John A. Park.

Eighth, Corporation Commissioner W. T. Lee, Corporation Commissioner E. L. Travis, Representative Rufus E. Austin, Representative J. K. Dixon.

Ninth, Chief Justice Walter Clark, Associate Justice W. A. Hoke, Representative H. P. Grier, Representative Henry A. Page.

Tenth, Associate Justice George H. Brown, Associate Justice Platt D. Walker, Clerk Supreme Court J. L. Seawell.

Eleventh, Democratic National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, Democratic State Chairman Charles A. Webb, Secretary Democratic Committee Walter E. Brock, J. P. Kerr.

Twelfth, B. S. Jermon, John W. Hinsdale, Jr., J. O. Ellington, Albert L. Cox.

Thirteenth, B. F. Ellis, J. S. Upchurch, D. K. Wright, E. R. Pace.

Fourteenth, Henry E. Litchford, R. H. Merritt, Virgil J. Lee, W. S. Wilson.

Following these were automobiles for the escort committee, Edwards E. Britton, chairman; Percy J. Olive and mayor's committee, James I. Johnson, chairman; the press committee, John A. Park, chairman.

Governor W. W. Kitchin, who joins the company of ex-governors today, was the recipient yesterday of a beautiful silver salad set, the gift of the council of state. It was a small token of the love of the members of the council for the retiring governor, and as such will be treasured by Governor and Mrs. Kitchin. The presentation was made by Attorney General T. W. Bickett in his best style, and was accepted simply and feelingly by the governor. One term of four years is long enough, Governor Kitchin said, in response to questions as to his opinion in the matter of lengthening the term of chief executive to six years.

The retirement of Hon. Franklin McNeil, as member and chairman of the North Carolina corporation commission, after 14 years of distinguished service, was signaled at 10 o'clock today by the presentation of a handsome silver watch. Quite a number of former members and employes of the commission, including Hon. S. L. Rogers, a Young is Adjutant.

Raleigh, Jan. 16.—Governor Craig today commissioned Maj. L. W. Young of Asheville as Adj. Gen. Gordon Smith, who was recently appointed by Governor Kitchin to succeed the late Gen. R. L. Lanster. General Young entered the military service in 1898 and has won steady promotion.

Unscrambling An Egg.

"You cannot unscramble egg" is a famous dictum of the Supreme court of high finance. But that you can and must unscramble is a decision of the supreme law court of the United States. The eggs which Mr. Harriman

Classy List of Pies

(From The Popular Magazine.)
The gentleman with a concave front and a large watch chain alighted from the train at a junction in a Western State and rapidly made his way to the dinner room of the only hotel in the place. "What kinds of pies have you here?" he asked eagerly of the kitchin old lady who stood at his elbow. "All four kinds she replied with an air of disdain. "What are they?" "Open faced cross-bar, kivered up and the kind mother used to make," was the catalog she gave. Give The State Dispatch Job Department a trial.
