

Push the Contest

ONLY 48 more days and The Great Voting Contest will close. Quite a number of people have renewed since our last issue and have given the votes to some of the contestants. Others have given the contestants renewals.

It Matters Not

It matters not if you give us or the contestants the renewal. Either is perfectly safe if you get a receipt. If you have renewed and given the renewal to one of our contestants DO NOT become frightened if you received a statement of your account. It may not have been turned in by the contestant.

Democrat Leaders Seem Certain About Cabinet Portfolios

Washington, Feb. 25.—It was stated positively tonight in high congressional quarters closely identified with the incoming administration of President Wilson that the following cabinet appointments had been determined definitely:

Secretary of state, William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska. Secretary of the treasury, William C. McAdoo, of New York. Postmaster general, Albert S. Burleson, of Texas. Secretary of the navy, Joseph Daniels, of North Carolina.

The foregoing names and positions are said to have advanced entirely beyond the state of conjecture or gossip and become finalities in the forthcoming cabinet list. Other places in the cabinet are said to be reasonably settled with the exception of the portfolios of war and agriculture.

Mississippi Bankers Indicted.

Meridian, Miss., Feb. 22.—W. H. Barnes, president; W. L. Cole, cash and H. L. J. Barnes, assistant cashier, of the Union Bank and Trust company, of Meridiana, which closed its doors last November, were indicted by the Lauderdale county grand jury here today on the charge of receiving deposits knowing the bank was insolvent. H. J. L. Barnes surrendered to the authorities and was released on $5,000 bond.

At the time of the failure the apparent liabilities of the bank amounted to more than $1,000,000. The receivers say the total has since been reduced to $385,000 that the remaining assets, not readily convertible into cash, represent $600,000.

Hardly Be Tar Heel.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The election of Judge Nathan Goff to the senate from West Virginia leaves a vacancy on the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals from the Fourth Judicial District.

This will give President-elect Wilson his first opportunity to name a Federal judge for the South. Judge Goff, and Judge Jeter C. Pritchard of North Carolina are the judges of that circuit now.

The circuit comprises the States of Maryland, northern West Virginia, southern West Virginia, eastern Virginia, western Virginia, eastern North Carolina, western North Carolina, and South Carolina.

North Carolina does not stand much show of getting this appointment, as Judge Pritchard lives in that State.

Judge Goff is well known and liked in North Carolina. He tried the Blackburn case at Greensboro several years ago. He is 70 years old, and was in the Forty-eighth, Forty-nine and Fiftieth Congresses.

Elon College Notes

Elon College, Feb. 22.—Each year it is the custom of the Juniors to entertain the seniors on the evening before George Washington's birthday, and yet each year the reception seems to be entirely new, because of the individuality of each class injected into the occasion. The Junior class, assisted by the lady members of the faculty, received its guest in line, the president of the class, G. G. Holland, being at the head of the line.

Following the formal presentation of the guests a game of progressions was enjoyed, in which W. S. Wicker was the successful one. During the evening a game involving the abbreviation of the states was played, in which Pres. Harper, of the school won.

A five course banquet was served at which Dr. W. C. Wicker, of the faculty, advisor of the class of 1914, presided as toastmaster. The corridors and reception halls of the west dormitory were appropriately decorated in gold and black, the colors of the Junior class, while the class, while the dining hall was resplendent in old gold and purple, the colors of the class of 1913.

To Slay Sulzer.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Gov. Sulzer has been informed of an alleged plot to assassinate him. The Governor tonight related that on Friday a man with head swathed in bandages called at the executive chamber and was referred to Owne L. Potter, his legal assist. To Mr. Potter the man whose name the Governor would not divulge, said that Thursday night while in an abandoned cider mill he had overheard two men discussing a plot to kill the Governor. When the conspirators learned of the presence of the Governor's informant they assaulted and robbed him.

Mr. Potter told the man to report the matter to the Albany police, but he came back later saying he had been unable to find police headquarters. Gov. Sulzer said he was at all alarmed by the story. Both he and Mrs. Sulzer, the Governor said, have been receiving threatening letters but have paid little attention to them.

Paulist Becomes Episcopal Preacher

New York, Feb. 17.—A Roman Catholic priest for years and for the last five years of great prominence, has entered upon the rectorship of a Protestant Episcopal church. Never before in the history of New York churches has a similar incident been recorded.

Rev. William Thomas Walsh, a leading member of the society of St. Paul, or Paulist Father, became rector of St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church in the Bronx.

Born in the Roman Catholic Church and educated in its seminaries for its priesthood, Father Walsh as a Paulist father was one of the special preachers to non Catholic. He was selected for this work because of his eloquence and because of his ability to argue in favor of Catholicism and against the Protestants.

The Paulist order was founded by a convert from a Protestantism, and nearly always has had for its head a convert. One superior, Father Deshon, was the son of a Congregational minister.

Father Walsh went to many cities, especially in the South, making many converts from Protestants to the Church of Rome. Last Nov. Bishop Geer received him into the Episcopal Church without additional ordination.

Mebane Happenings.

Mebane, Feb. 24.—One of the saddest deaths recorded here in some time was that Saturday of Mrs. Lemuel Rice, of the Cross Roads section near Mebane. Just one week ago she was at the burial of her sister, and there caught cold, which rapidly developed into pneumonia. The husband, who has been an invalid for 14 years insisted on witnessing the interment of his wife's body so he had to be carried to the cemetery on stretchers.

In the triangular debate Mebane won here against Haw River but lost to Hawfields, as also Haw River did. The Hawfield team represents a country high school and will go to Chapel Hill for the cup contest, and judging by the results in the triangular contest, the rural lads will be equally able to defend or oppose woman suffrage. Mention is due Edgar McCauley of Mebane for the judges considered his debate by far the best delivered in his contest, though his team lost the decision.

W. H. Bason, of Thomasville spent yesterday here with his people.

Miss Leonorah Harris has returned from visits to Concord, Charlotte and Rock Hill.

Mebanites are rejoicing in the probability of having lights soon. Mr. Harden representing the Piedmont Electric company, of Burlington, has been here again perfecting arrangement for supplying current from their central plant. Rumor has it that there is likelihood of this company's extending the car line from Haw River here in the not very distant future.

Haney, a Turkish merchant of Bristol, by Harry Thompson, 21 years of age and a traveling salesman of this city.

This is my final notice. All taxes that are now unpaid are long past due and should be paid at once. Besides a number of special appointments, I have made one more regular round than the law requires. The Law provides April the first as the time for advertising all unpaid taxes. Do not think because I may have indulged you in the past that I can always continue to do so.

This is not idle talk, the taxes, must be collected and if you have not gotten your receipt by April the first you will have only yourself to blame for being advertised and the costs to pay.

If you will not do your duty, then I must do mine.

Respectfully,
R. N. Cook.
