Two Suicide Attempts In Fifteen Hours.

Durham, March 7.—Two atsiety meets on Monday after the tempts at suicide within fifteen Second Sunday in each month, hours is the unusual record of A cordial invitation extended Durham, a young girl Nellie Ross of Edgement, trying to take her life Wednesday night and Baxter | Canada in the last ten years. | State | That fact does not do us credit | morning, Both will recover. Miss Ross drank about a half ounce of carbolic acid and for many hours following was in an unconiscous condition. The physicans summoned gave her stimulants and this probably saved her life until she was able to wear off the effects of the posion. No cause could be found for her act.

The Standfield boy drank laudanum getting it from the drug store and telling the druggist that he wanted it for his mother. He left a note telling his people he was tired of living. The quick work of the physicans revived the body by noon Thursday and he was apparently in good spirit the men who have financed the over missing his trip into the campaign in their interest.
