Somebody—My Dog.

Written for the Observer. Yes, he's only a dog, but he's my dog you see. And so he is wonderfully dear to me. If I were to go to the very world's end, He surely would follow as faithful friend.

When I'm full of gladness my dog is glad too. He shares like a comrade in all that I do. He understands sorrow, and he feels my pain. His sympathy's real though he cannot explain.

His service is constant by day and by night. He asks no reward but to be in my sight. I know that he loves me for often he tries To tell me just that with his speaking brown eyes.

Dear faithful companion stay close by my side, Your friendship I value as both true and tried, And somewhere beyond the bright sky above me I hope there will be my own dog to love me.

He speaks his dumb language which I understand, And answer by giving a touch of my hand. His life he would give if my own it would save, He's only a dog, but so loyal and brave.

—LILA RIPLEY BARNWELL, Hendersonville, N. C.

BURLINGTON'S CHORAL UNION CONCERT.

The fourth Annual Concert of the Burlington Choral Union will be given Friday evening, May 9th, 8:30, in the Graded School auditorium. Much interest is manifested and a good deal of preparation made as evidenced by the splendidly arranged programme which is as follows:

- Song of the Vikings, The Choral Union. Fanning.
- Come into the Garden Maud, Mr. Dring. Balfe.
- Pilgrims Chorus from Tannhauser, The Choral Union. Wagner.
- The Erlking, Mrs. Brown. Schubert.
- Quartet— They say the lion and the lizard keep, from "In a Persian Garden." Schumann.
- 137 Psalm, The Choral Union. Gounod.
- La Villanelle, Miss Severson. Del'Acqua.
- The Parting Kiss, The Choral Union. Pinsuti.
- The Bandoiero, Mr. Clapp. Stuart.
- O' Hail us, ye free, from Ernani, The Choral Union. Verdi.
- Quartet— Good Night beloved, Pinsuti.
- March of the Treadors, from Carmen, The Choral Union. Bizet.

Beside the sixty voices constituting the Burlington Choral Union, the quartet is composed of Messrs Dring and Clapp and Mrs. Wade Brown and Miss Severson, all of Greensboro. These are trained singers and have the reputation of being among the best in the state. Many will be interested to know of Mrs. Brown's appearance here again, she being known to our people.

The Choral Union was organized five years ago under the leadership of Mr. Brown for the first two years. The third year during Mr. Brown's absence in the old country the services of Mr. Hill were secured. The following year, the union took a vacation but began work again last fall with renewed interest.

The society means much to our town and county and especially are our church choirs helped greatly, which in itself should recommend it highly to our people.

The society has the moral and enthusiastic support of the majority of our people and has enjoyed a reasonable financial support. It is therefore on a good basis but could be placed on a stronger basis by a more united effort to get all those interests, and all are to attend this annual concert. Let us fill our Graded School auditorium on the evening of the concert and enjoy an evening of music.

The price will be small and especially so when the six months of hard work for this concert is considered.

This space reserved for Green and McClure
Who are too busy to write an ad. this week on account of such a rush of business.

Pay Cash and Be Happy . . .

Every man can pay cash as he goes, if he uses the check system—and save money in the bargain.

Also he has a most reliable receipt in the cancelled check, thus avoiding altogether any possibility of paying an account twice.

Furthermore, since he pays as he goes having nothing charged, there is no danger of paying for what some other fellow gets whose name and initials are very similar.

Just A Little Well Directed Effort Is All That's Necessary For Anyone To Get On A Cash Basis.
