Democrats Launch The 1914

Washington, May 16.—The campaign for the Democratic supremacy at the polls in 1914 and 1916 was opened here today when the executive campaign committee of the Democratic national committee organized and discussed preliminary plans. The committee agreed upon permanent headquarters in Washington, the organization of an educational campaign and harmonious cooperation with the Democratic Congressional committee, with a continuous militant party organization from now until after the next presidential election at least. Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, caucus chairman of the House and organized as the President's spokesman in that body, was made chairman and Rolla Wells, of St. Louis, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, treasurer. At permanent headquarters Thomas J. Pence, of North Carolina, the former correspondent who conducted the Wilson Press campaign, will be in charge as manager of Publicity. With him already is Colonel John I. Martin, of Missouri, sergeant-at-arms of the last, and other national conventions of the Democracy. Plans agreed upon today contemplate the sending of Democratic Washington letters to approximately 10,000 weekly newspapers and 2,000 daily papers that have no special correspondents at the national capital. All this will require a large fund, and the committee decided to appeal to the states for contribution.

The situation generally and the need for immediate, organized campaign work were discussed at the two sessions of the White House tomorrow. The committee, accompanied by Mr. Pence, called at the White House and explained the plans to President Wilson, who voiced his hearty approval.

At the outset of tomorrow's meeting the committee will confer with Representative Loyd of Missouri, chairman, and Representative Page, of North Carolina, secretary, the retiring officers of the Democratic congressional committee, who were directed at a recent meeting to consult with the nation committee the President and Democratic senators regard the President's proposal that the numerical strength of senators on the congressional committee be increased.

It is probable that the congressional committee will be asked to name three representatives and two senators to serve on a joint executive campaign committee for conducting the political battles during the next four years. The party leaders contemplate sending out speakers unattached to the joint committee

Origin of the First Curved Ball in 1874.

New York, May 23.—Statisticians of athletics at Princeton University have entered a claim for J. M. Mann, '76, as the discoverer of the art of curve pitching. According to baseball lore available at Princeton, Mann was the star pitcher of the college team known as the Nassau nine at that time.

During the fall of 1874 Mann pitched several games in one week and his peculiar delivery wore the skin from the tips of the fingers. In the final contest of the week he was obliged to play third base. Late in the game he was forced to relieve the pitcher in order to save the game. Owing to the tender condition of his fingers, Mann was obliged to throw the ball with little or no grip.

He immediately noticed that his delivery was breaking in an odd manner which caused opposing batters to strike out. During the winter months he continued to experiment and in the spring blossomed out as a pitcher with a real outcurve at his command.

Governor Craig Returns to His Office For Work.

Raleigh, N. C., May 23.—Governor Locke Craig has returned to his office and was at work yesterday as though he had not been ill.

Governor Craig's illness was not in the least serious. He had suffered some rheumatic tendencies and had been called upon for so many extra duties over the State that he was not in the best of shape but his illness was in the nature of a protest against overwork. He has had not only a hard official life but he has been doing many things outside the office.

Governor Craig's coming to Raleigh from Asheville made necessary a period of acclimatization and during that time he has not been at his best. He was decidedly improved yesterday and will be in his office again today.

A Good Resolution.

Colonel Osborne says the people of North Carolina have spoken in favor of prohibition and that he intends to drive all the moonshiners in the state out of business. Should he succeed in destroying the liquor business in North Carolina, he might ruin the business of his Keely Institute at Greensboro. We hope he will succeed thereby making his Greensboro institution an unnecessary one for North Carolina.—The Times Leader.

No Wedding Fee?

An Illinois pastor has announced that he will not accept fees for marriages in the future, as he regards these fees as a sort of graft which he believes should be abolished. "The minister who does not need a fee should be ashamed to take it, and a Church whose minister needs a fee should be ashamed and immediately raise his salary. No minister should be forced to stand at a wedding with his open hand behind him." This declaration might be regarded as more perfectly altruistic if no mention has been made therein of the advisability of raising the minister's salary, but it nevertheless has the ring of self-renunciation about it. It means not a little to the parson whose salary rarely reaches into the large figures, and whose wife is generally supposed to look upon these fees as a heaven-sent re-
