Negro In Pullman Mobbed.
New Orleans, May 28.—After being taken off a train by a mob of white men, Supreme Chancellor W. Green, of the Negro League of Phythias, who was returning home from a session of the Grand Lodge at Ocala, Fla., was put under bond today for his journey to this city. Only the sheriff's intervention saved him from lynching. He was riding in the Pullman of a Pullman. Green locked himself in the Pullman yesterday morning. It was not discovered that a negro was in the car until five hours after the train reached Junction. Green was put under bond and went to the city coach ahead. A crowd of white men boarded the train and searched for Green, who was not found, as every negro in the Pullman was denied being the man wanted. When the train reached Ocala, Fla. at 8 o'clock last night another mob entered and searched for Green. The sheriff at Ocala finally got the negro out of the mob.

Hammer Safes Open.
Statesville, May 27.—News of the robbery of three stores in Madison County has come to Statesville. At one or more of the stores the safe was broken open in the same manner as the safe of Stinson & Steel was opened at Turnersburg, and it leads to the conclusion that the robberies were by the same gang. At Mr. G. T. White's store at Buck Shoals the safe was broken open and the postoffice funds and papers were taken with a hammer and about $50 in cash was taken along with other valuables. The other stores robbed were those of Mr. Edgar Robertson on Hunting creek and Mr. Milhard Cool at Cross Roads. No particulars of the robberies could be learned and the amount of booty secured is not known. The series of robberies has naturally caused quite a little alarm in Yadkin. It is probable that the Postoffice Department will furnish a detective to aid local officers in their investigations with a hope of determining the identity of the robbers.

Charred Bodies Found in Ruins.
Atlanta, Ga., May 28.—Mystery surrounds the finding by neighbors early today of two charred skeletons in the smouldering ashes of a house which stood on the McDonough road two miles from the Federal road, and which had been destroyed by Mrs. Sarah C. Stevens' 17-year old son and his adopted daughter 15. The three were seen at the house about dusk Tuesday. It is reported, but no one has been heard who saw the house during the night. Mr. Stevens left Atlanta Tuesday for Chattanooga to attend to the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans.

A Metallic Marriage.
A world groundhog that of your holes only at one, and think your wives made to scour and scrub, and grub, wash and tub, and hang around the counters and squirt home-twist and cuss and discuss the argument, you are not the people on the beach in the metallic marriages. Not a trace of simile. In the sixteenth century was a marriage of two and blast our seats if the did not prove to be a happy for the couple has dwelt "happily ever after" and then some. Coble took their fiancées Misses Jewel Clark and Nellie Cole out Sunday to spend the day enjoying the beautiful robe of nature. Back to your boys you deserve the best through life's journey. Several of our people attended the funeral and burial of Miss Cornelia Roney last Saturday at Hawfields. She was laid away tenderly by loyng hands to await the resurrection morn. A good woman has gone to her reward on high. How lonely the home now, how vacant the chair sweet thoughts we shall meet again when the life of day is over. Rev. J. W. Goodman conducted the funeral at the church.

Mrs. Conklin, Shot by Husband, Will Recover.
Durham, May 29.—The city of Durham today mourns the death of second Sergeant Gill P. Cates who was killed last night by Felix Conklin whom the officers went to arrest on a charge of shooting his wife. The police station is draped in mourning and the body of the dead officer carried to his home on Roxboro street and the interment will be made at Maplewood cemetery tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. One of the most pathetic features of the unfortunate affair is that the second sergeant was doing volunteer work in that he went out of the city limits to look after a disturbance. Mrs. Conklin's injuries are of a very serious nature though the monster gun with which her husband killed the officer was used on her and a 44 caliber bullet ploughed its way through the lower part of her leg the bullet just missing the bones. She was carried to the Watts hospital and today is resting well. She did not know that either the officer or her husband was dead till this morning the nurse thinking it best not to tell her of the tragedy.

HANGED HERSELF FROM STAIRWAY
Lexington, N. C. May 29.—Mrs. Laura Hinkle, wife of D. H. Hinkle, committed suicide this afternoon by hanging herself from the banisters on the stairway of her home on Salisbury street. Mrs. Hinkle had been in very poor health for four or five months and it is believed that despondency over her condition led to the suicide. This morning she visited a neighbor and told her she did not believe she would "ever be any better and refused to be convinced when her neighbor tried to cheer her up. Later in the day she paid this neighbor a second visit and told that she thought she would feel better if she could "get everybody out of the house for the evening and just rest." Later she did arrange to have the entire home to herself. Her husband went down town and her sister, Mrs. Mattie Penny, who lived with her also went away and the suicide must have followed soon after their leaving. She tied a rope around a banister rail at the head of the stairs and with an end looped around her neck dropped to her death. Her husband found her. She had dropped down behind the hall curtain and was not visible when he first entered the hall, and he went out to inquire of the neighbors as to her whereabouts. A few minutes later he found the body in the hall and gave the alarm. Two physicians were summoned but was dead when found.

Whitsett Man Missing.
Richmond, Va., May 28.—A. L. Foust 25 years old, of Whitsett, N. C., a student in a local business college, is being sought by the police on request of friends who fear that the young man may have done himself bodily harm while temporarily unbalanced mentally. Foust left his rooming house Sunday dressed in his best cloths and has not been seen since. A sister in South Richmond does not know his whereabouts and advice from Whitsett says that he has not returned to the home of his brother there. It is understood that Foust has been studying hard, and recently has shown signs of nervousness and slight mental deficiency. The police was unable today to get a line as to the young man's whereabouts.

Woe For Lazy Husbands.
It is expected that many a fishing trip will be broken up and the interests of certain men in out door sport broken up throughout the state of Washington when the new law against lazy husbands goes into effect June 14.

The husband who won't work and can work and has work offered him may be hailed to court by his injured spouse and there sentenced to hard labor. Under the former law the wife's only recourse was to have her husband sent to prison and while he was there perhaps she had to go hungry or earn a living. Many women according to court officials, show an inclination to begin proceedings at the earliest possible date.
