CAN YOU DOUBT IT?

When The Proof Can Be So Easily Investigated.

When so many grateful citizens of this locality testify to benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, can you doubt the evidence? The proof is not far away—it is almost at your door. Read what a resident of Durham says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Can you demand more convincing testimony?

J. J. Whitley, 318 South St., Durham, N. C., says: "For some time my kidneys gave me a great deal of trouble and the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. I suffered from dull pains in my back and though I used several kinds of medicine, I did not improve. A friend finally told me about Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a supply. Two boxes were all that was needed to drive away the trouble. It gives me pleasure to confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they brought me has been lasting."

Tears For The Gray; Cheers For The Blue

Fare you well, captain, and comrades, too, Farewell messmates in gray and blue. Honor the soldier, the blue and gray, With mother but yesterday, with God today. Prayers for the weak, love for the strong, Glory for the right cause, tears for the wrong. Enemies you fought, now as comrades you meet, Twin grave on earth, on high one sheet. Winds Northern cold and Southern fire. Into pity—one mother, into honor, one sire. Brother against brother, blood for a State; Reverse arms, soldier! Bury section fat.

Yet warrior, heart, raw bleeding and bled, Drop tears for the Union, o'er bivouac of the dead. In rain of bullet and storm of shell, Forgot of heaven, full-measured of hell; Fallen the heroes, still waves the flag, Bullet shrunken standard, honor shredded rag. Only one flag. Long may it wave; One nation for the living, for the dead one grave. Marble for battlefields, record in stone, Full-heralded the trenches, souls for a throne. Heart-broken sweethearts and widows' weeds, Tents and campfire, prancing war steeds; Dreams of home and motherly love, All gone with battle cry—gone above. See who's coming. It's the boys in blue, Bless my eyes, and the gray boys, too; File right, file left, the captain calls, Drops here a comrade, there a veteran falls. Unleash your dogs. Jap nation mad, Pit Island youth 'gainst American lad. Floats high the color, all blue, no gray, Stand from under, there's hell to pay. Didst hear the reveille. The morning sun Calls the last comrade; new day begun; Harkens the lullaby, angel mothers sing, Praise your visitors—salute a new King. Last call for muster, lads. The Master's roll Finds daily recruits in death's sure toll; Cut out the old, close ranks for the new route, God's color, boys—the gray was mustered out. — P. T. Wall. Gallipoli. O., Dedication Day, 1913.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. E. J. CHERRY, and Co., Toledo, Ohio Sold by Druggists, 75c. STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting address from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes says as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and I had such sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Bedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me." Bedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.
