A Shingle Gets A Wife.

One year and six days after she received a shingle on which was written: "I want a wife before 1915." Miss May Matterson, of East Warren, Street, Dunmore, Pa., married in Port Angeles, Washington, Royal M. LaFlower, the shingle correspondent. Miss Matterson's parents, of Dunmore, received word of their daughter's marriage. The girl's father is a carpenter, and while shingling a roof, in May, 1912, he came upon the shingle containing name and address of LaFlower and the words "I want a wife before 1915."

Matterson took the shingle home for a curio, and it falling into his daughter's hands, she opened correspondence with LaFlower, with the result that he arranged for her going to him in the West.

Postmaster White Fails To Make Bond And Loses His Job.

Washington, July 11.—Postmaster General Burleson last Friday issued an order removing Postmaster S. Arthur White, of Mebane from office and requested Major Charles M. Stedman, of the fifth congressional district to recommend a man as soon as possible to take Mr. White's place.

The order removing Mr. White was issued, the postoffice department officials say because the postmaster had failed to furnish a satisfactory bond. They claim that White has been requested repeatedly to furnish bond required by the postoffice officials here and his failure to do so has caused him to lose his job.

Major Stedman said Friday that he would name a man for the Mebane postmastership promptly. He has no one in mind for the place, but acting upon the advice of the postmaster general, he will see to it that the office is filled by a Democrat within a very short time.

The removal of Mr. White was a great surprise to North Carolinians here. Mr. White, it will be remembered, was one of the few republicans to be confirmed by the senate last fall. Because of strong pressure brought to bear upon Senators Simmons and Overman by patrons of the office, both Democrats and Republicans, the two Tar Heel senators allowed Mr. White's confirmation to be made. There were a dozen or more other nominations pending at the time which never saw daylight, among them that of Thomas S. Wallace, at Wilmington. Mr. White's commission expires in 1916.

It is not quite clear why Mr. White has not furnished the required bond. He is a man of considerable standing in his community and the postoffice department is at a loss to account for the delay on his part. So far as is known no other charge has been brought against the Mebane postmaster.
