

Stimbers, Annoying Coughs Cured.
"My husband had a cough for fifteen years and my son for eight years. Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured them, for which I most thankful," writes Mrs. David Moor, of Saginaw, Ala. What Dr. King's New Discovery did for these men, it will do for you. Dr. King's New Discovery should be in every home. Stops hacking coughs, relieves the grippe and all throat and lung ailments. Money back if it fails. All druggists. Price 50c. and $1.00.—H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Less Dyspepsia Now—Here's The Reason.

The fact that there is less dyspepsia and indigestion in this community than there used to be is largely, we believe due to the extensive use of Rexall's Dyspepsia Tablets, hundreds of packages of which we have sold. No wonder we have faith in them. No wonder we are willing to offer them to you for trial entirely at our risk.

Among other things, they contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two of the greatest digestive acids known to medical science. They soothe the inflamed stomach, ally pain, check heartburn and distress, help to digest the food, and tend to quickly restore the stomach to its natural comfortable healthy state.

There is no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. Your word is enough for us. If Rexall's Dyspepsia Tablets don't restore your stomach to health and make your digestion easy and comfortable, we want you to come back for your money. They are sold only at the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1. Freeman Drug Co., Burlington, N. C.

Retired Georgia Planter's Advice to Kidney Sufferers.

Regarding the wonderful curative merits of your Swamp-Root, I cannot say too much. After suffering severely for three years or more with severe pains caused by weak kidneys, I was finally induced to try Swamp-Root through a testimonial I read in one of the newspapers. I was in such a condition that I was obliged to arise from my bed six or eight times every night. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and before it was used I felt so much relief that I purchased a one-dollar bottle and by the time this was taken the old pains had left my back and I could sleep the whole night through. I am a retired planter, 70 years of age, and owing to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, I am in the best of health and feel like a boy. I am always glad to recommend Swamp-Root to those who are in need of it.

Sincerely yours,
C. E. USSERY,
Bowersville, Ga.

Personally appeared before me, this 24th day of September, 1909, C. E. USSERY, who subscribed and above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

The Bible and Your Mouth.

By Rev. D. H. Tuttle.

The mouth, as any other member of the body, may be an instrument of life or death, just as we choose to use it. David knew this and made this resolution:

"I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue; I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me."—Psalms 39:1.

2 David put power in his resolve by prayer when he asked God saying:

"Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer."—Psalms 19:14.

3 Solomon advised wisely concerning the mouth when he said:

"Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in Heaven and thou upon earth; therefore let thy words be few.

For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for He hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

Better it is that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

4 The right use of the mouth lengthens life and guarantees good days:

"What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days that he may see good?"

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace and pursue it."—Psalms 34:12-14.

5 Jesus against swearing and profanity:

"Again ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old, thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: But I say unto you, swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne; nor by earth; for it is His footstool; neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

But let your communications be, yea, yea, nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil."—Matt. 5:33-37.

6 Jesus reveals source of evil speaking:

O, generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things."—Matt. 12:34-35.

7 Paul's advice about our mouths: Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man."—Col. 4:6.

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that is may minister grace unto the hearers.—Eph. 4:29.

8 James' common sense talk on the tongue. (a) Vain religion: If any man among you seem to be religious, and brideth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own hearth this man's religion is vain.—James 1:26.

(b) Tongues "a world of iniquity." For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

Behold also the ship, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity; so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

For every kind of beast, and of birds and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind.

But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil full of deadly poison.

Therewith bless we God, even the Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.—James 3:2-14.

9 Jesus warns of mouth in the Judgment:

But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak they shall give an account thereof in the day of judgment.

For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.—Matt. 12:36-37.

Not in the judgment some will wish that they had been born dumb—their mouths will be their ruin.

Juggling With the Cost of Living.

The President is not pleased with the reports issued from the Bureau of Statistics in the Department of Labor which shows an increase in the cost of living since the Democratic tariff act went into effect, and therefore it is announced that the method of compiling these statistics is to be changed.

Well, figures can be made to lie, but no statistical jugglery can convince the people upon whom the cost of living is an increasing burden that prices have come down. The high flying predictions made and the false hopes held out, not only in the Democratic platform, and in campaign speeches, but by the utterances of the President and other Democratic leaders when the tariff act became a law, have been blown away by the winds of cold and inexorable facts. Not only does the high cost of living continue high, but the Government statistics show that it is mounting still higher.

The President made a great flourish when signing the tariff act. The event was staged with considerable dramatic power, and the performance required two pens to make it properly impressive. The country was promised every possible blessing. It was on that joyful occasion that Mr. Underwood, who had put the bill through the House, said: "Assuredly it will reduce the cost of living."

Senator Simmons, who had charge of the measure in the Senate, said, "It is a tariff that will above all things reduce the cost of living," while Speaker Champ Clark, who once announced himself in favor of tearing up the tariff act, said: "This bill is intended to reduce the cost of living; if it did not do that it would not be of any value, and would have no reason for existence." All this was part of the heedless jubilation of the moment.

A policy evolved by theorists and condemned by experience was forced upon the country which had not voted for it on any way approved it. There had been no endorsement of the Democratic party at the polls. It slipped into power as the minority party, and was given its mischief-making opportunities because the majority was divided, but that minority party has brazenly undertaken to doctor the country's ills with its quack remedies which have always made it worse than heretofore, and are making it worse now.

Juggling official statistics cannot change the fact that the Democratic tariff act has not fulfilled the promise made for it. It has not reduced the cost of living. It has reduced nothing but the Government revenues and the opportunity of labor for employment, and it has caused a general business depression.—Press.

"Backless" Gown on View.

Philadelphia, Mar. 14.—The "backless" evening gown was exhibited by models, under the direction of Mme. Joire, at the Bellevue Stratford hotel today. Mme. Leduc walked out with nothing on her back but a string of beads and a draught.

The gown was of bright green crepe de Chine, veiled with a lighter shade of tulle. There was hardly anything to the front of the waist and the back was entirely absent. As a result, as the handsome model walked across the room, the effect was frank in the extreme, and the exclamations of the women present indicated that the model will not become popular immediately in Philadelphia.

As Mme. Joire announced, four diagonal strands of beads are all that stand between the wearer and pneumonia.
