came on the arm of her father, Dr. J. W .Lasley, who gave her away. She wore a gown of Dutchess satin trimlotte; and Mr. William Wright, Winmed with rhinestones-and lace, a veilfastened with a wreath of orange blossoms, and a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of orchids and lillies of the valley. They stood together before the officiating ministers, Rev. W. E. Abernathy, of Shelby, uncle of the bride, and Rev. D. H. Tuttle. The ring ceremony was used unting the lives of these two favored persons. Immediately after the ceremony an elaborate floating reception was given the couple by Dr. and Mrs. Lasley at their home. This was attended by about one hundred and fifty. The hall and parlor were decorated in pink roses and potted plants. The den was beautifully decorated in yellow and white, a profusion of daisies being used. In the dining room pink and white predominated. The buffet and mantel were beautiful in vases of roses and banks of magnolias, while the table was in sweet peas. ceiving line consisted of Dr. and Mrs. Lasley and the bridal party. Mesdames D. E. Sellars, James H. Holt and James N. Williamson received in the hall, and Mrs. C. A. Smith carried the guests to the receiving line in the parlor. They were then shown into the den by Mesdames O. F. Crowson and B. R. Sellars. Punch was served there by Miss Louola Tuttle and Bettie Vann Ward. Mrs. P. E. Morrow had the bride's register and all guests wrote their names. Miss Mary Freeman and Mrs. J. S. Frost then escorted them into the gift room, in charge of Mesdames W. W. Rippy and W. W. Lasley.
