LADY ASSAULTED ON STREETS OF DURHAM.

—o—

R. L. Carr, A Prominent Business Man Who Did Act, Is Said to Be Crazy.

Durham, Sept. 9.—R. L. Carr, a prominent man of Durham, is held tonight under a $2,000 bond on a charge of attempt at criminal assault on Miss Addie Howard, on Main street here tonight. The assault occurred in front of the ten-cent store, just before dark, and attracted a large number of people.

Those seeing the assault declare that the man grabbed the woman as she started to pass him. Holding her about the waist she was thrown violently to the sidewalk. At this juncture a number of people interfered and Mr Carr was pulled away from the girl. He was placed under arrest by one of the city officials and carried to the police station.

Carr is said to be crazy. Eight years ago he suffered a mental derangement and spent some time in a hospital. He recovered from this trouble and has been at work for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co., as a salesman since then. For the past few days friends have noted a recurrence of the old trouble and it had been the intention of relatives to send him off again tonight. He has been accompanied by some friend all of the time today, for fear that he would get into some kind of trouble. When he went on the street just about dusk that was the first time he had been ou alone. He seemed to be in better shap and told a friend that he was going out to get a cigar.

The next they heard of the man he was in the custody of the police. The nature of the man's assault was such that there was only one charge against him, and while he is held in the highest respect by all Durham people, he will have to answer the charge that has been brought against him unless the court takes judicial notice of the condition of the man's mind.

Mr. Carr is prominently connected with the business and social life of Durham. For many years past he has been one of the chief representatives of the Durham office of the Virginia Carolina Chemical Co., and is known to the trade in all sections of the State. He is well-liked and the incident is very much deplored here.

CARRIED TO BALTIMORE.

Relatives and friends arranged bond for the demented man in time for him to be carried off on the 8 o'clock train for a hospital near Baltimore. The bond allows him to remain away from the court for thirty days. The affair has caused a lot of sensational talk in the city, but it was merely a crazy man's act.

Warsaw, Sept. 7.—In response to a call issued by O. P. Middleton, president of the Chamber of Commerce August 24, a large crowd of farmers and business men gathered Saturday afternoon in order to adopt some plan whereby they might be better able to hold their cotton until such time as the market permitted. Mr. Middleton stated the reason and purpose of he meeting, and asked that a chairman be elected. L. Middleton was chosen. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That a committee be appointed to proceed immediately to perfect an organization of a cotton storage company whose object and purpose is to accept, receive, store and preserve in a proper manner the surplus cotton of Warsaw township, said company when organized to establish rules and regulations to control its business and that such rules, regulations and restrictions shall be such as will enable the farmer to store his cotton in bonded warehouses or on his own farm, provided same is done in such a manner as will justify such receipts for same as will comply with the regulations of the government as to the issuance of emergency currency for the same."

President H. Q. Alexander Issues Call to County Unions to Meet September 15.

To the County Unions of North Carolina:

I hereby call meetings of all county unions in the cotton and tobacco belt at the court house of each respective county, on Tuesday, September 15th, to hear reports from delegates to the State Convention at Raleigh, Friday, September 11th. These county meeting, as well as the State Meetings, will be open to all farmers and the public in general.

The purpose of these county meetings is to organize and put into operation the plans which will be adopted at Raleigh next Friday.

I believe that the crop of North Carolina can be saved to the producer and that the convention at Raleigh will launch plans that will accomplish that end if entered into heartily by all the people.

I have wired Hon. Joseph G. Brown, of Raleigh, president of the National Currency Association of North Carolina to attend and address the Raleigh convention. Have also wired Senators Overman and Simmons and Governor Craig to address the convention on certain definite problems that must be met and solved.

The so-called McAdoo plan for financing the crop with emergency currency is totally inadequate under the present banking situation, to give the relief demanded. The numerous and sundry restrictions of the law will so limit the emergency funds that can be obtained by the banks of this state, that it will not be sufficient to meet the financial crisis.

Again, this currency as the law now stands, will be issued for only four months and with the present market outlook, it would be suicidal folly for the farmers to depend upon such short time loans. His "second state would be worse than the first." The mills and speculators could bide their time and at the expiration of the loan period they would probably buy "at their own price" the cotton that would be forced on the market.

I again urge every county union to be well represented at Raleigh next Friday. I urge all farmers who can attend, whether members of the Union or not, to do so. The crisis must be met and the crop saved to the farmers.

Fraternally,
H. Q. ALEXANDER.
Pres. N. C. Farmers Union.

The Soldier's Dream.

Our bugle sang truce, for the night cloud had lowered,
And the sentinel stars set their watch in the sky;
And thousands had sunk to the ground overpowered,
The weary to sleep, andt he wounded to die.

When reposing that night on my pallet of straw
By the wolf-scaring fagot that guarded the slain,
At the dead of the night a sweet vision I saw;
And thrice ere the morning I dreamt it again.

Methought from the battlefield's dreadful array
Far, far, I had roamed on a desolate track;
'Twas autumn, and sunshine arose on the way
To the home of my fathers, that welcomed me back.

I flew to the pleasant fields traversed so oft
In life's morning march, when my bosom was young;
I heard my own mountain goats bleating aloft,
And knew the sweet strain that the corn-reapers sung.

Then pledged me the wine cup, and fondly I swore
From my home and my weeping friends never to part;
My little ones kissed me a thousand times o'er,
And my wife sobbed aloud in her fullness of heart.

"Stay, stay with us! rest! thou art weary and worn!"—
And fain was their war-broken soldier to stay —
But sorrow returned with dawing of morn
And the voice in my dreaming ear melted away.

Other people's troubles bore a man more than his own.

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are often very distressing and leave the system in a run down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp-Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and, being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root. on receipt of ten cents to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles 50c. and $1.00. For sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper.

A friend in need seldom hates to tell you so.

Summer Constipation Dangerous.

Constipation in Summer-time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter of spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much water during the hot weather, thus injuring your stomach. Colic, Fever, Ptomaine Poisoning and other ills are natural esults. Po-Do-Lax will keep you well, as it increases the Bile, the natural laxative, which rids the bowels of the congested poisonous waste. Po-Do-Lax will make you feel better. Pleasant and effective. Take a dose to-night. 50c. at your Druggist.

Weak Kidneys Often the Result of Overwork.

On several occasions I have been unable to work and suffered severe pains in the back, due to my kidneys. I called on a doctor of Ripon, Wis., but received no relief.

I tried Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which gave me instant relief. I was then able to resume work. Swamp-Root is the only relief I can get from kidney disease which I am subject to in the spring of the year. I am writing this testimonial through my own free will that sufferers of kidney and bladder diseases will know of the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root. I recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root whenever I can and always have a bottle of Swamp-Root in my house.

I purchased Swamp-Root of Mr. C. J. Burnside, Drugist, of 202 Main St., Ripon, Wis.

Very truly yours,
