DYESTUFF SITUATION.

The other day a Connecticut manufacturer of vegetable dyes said there was no such famine of dyestuffs as the frequent publications from the office of Congressman Metz, an importer would suggest. And now The New York Herald quotes "the representative of a large corporation" as saying that it is the importers who have been doing most of the talking about the scarcity of dyes; the manufacturers have made no complaint except in a few instances and here he thinks the complaints were inspired by the importers. His idea is that the latter are "misrepresenting conditions in the fear that American chemists will succeed in producing the colors and so supersede them in the market." This he believes is the reason the importers are making such strenuous efforts with the State Department to get it to secure the transportation of German dyes. The latest news on this subject is that two cargoes of dyestuffs now in Rotterdam will be permitted by the British cruisers to come to this country. The original obstacle to getting dyes was the embargo imposed by the German government.—Philadelphia Record.

CIVIL ENGINEER KILLS GIRL AND HIMSELF.

Pittsburgh, April 20.—Ernest H. Bingler, Jr., a civil engineer, tonight shot and killed Miss Mildred Rich, a telephone operator, whose home is in York, in her room at a lodging house at 208 Shady Avenue. A moment later he killed himself. The couple were to have been married soon. Bingler was a son of Ernest H. Bingler, a bookkeeper in the Anchor Savings Bank.

Little was known of the girl, who had gone to the house several days ago, but a letter addressed to Bingler, found by a Deputy Coroner in the room, was written by her from York, on April 2. In it she professed love for Bingler and said she was coming to Pittsburgh to be with him.

When the girl took the room in the house, conducted by Mrs. Payson Chapmar, she said she was to be married in the Spring to a banker's son.

VILLA PREPARES FOR NEW BATTLE.

Washington Hears Defeat At Celaya Has Not Destroyed His Power.

Washington, April 22.—Consular despatches received by the Washington Government from various points in Mexico, indicate that while temporarily disorganized by the defeat sustained at Celaya, General Villa and his forces have by no means been removed as a formidable factor in Mexico's civil war.

Office at the State Department are guarding closely the reports received from consuls in the territory occupied by General Villa as it is not desired to give out military information, but it is known that plans for another battle with General Obregon are proceeding rapidly.

The Carranza forces are reported to be well supplied with ammunition and pressing the Villa army closely north of Irapuato.

In the meantime, many rumors of counter revolutionary movements have been current. Many former sympathizers of Huerta have been in Washington, but most of them deny that Huerta intends to take the field again.

HUERTA MEN ARE BUSY.

Former Dictator May Seize Opportunity To Infer In Mexico.

El Paso, April 21.—Since Villas, recent reverses, activity among the so called reactionists of whom Huerta and Orozco were former leaders, has become more apparent across the border. Several former federal generals have appeared here within the past few days.

Obregon's apparently successful advance north has delayed more than ever the hope of organizing the Villa-Zapata convention. Roque Gonzales, named provisional president by the convention, is said to be with Zapata in the vicinity of Mexico City.

Villa leaders now hope to crush Obregon by a concentration of troops from the east and west to reinforce the routed army led by Villa in the center.

GERMAN RAIDER SEEMS READY FOR DASH TO OPEN SEA.

Vessel Anchored in Stream Could Slip Out of Port Perhaps UNNOTICED.

Newport News, Va., April 22.—The German auxiliary cruiser Kron Prinz Wilhelm, which yesterday was removed from dry dock into the stream, donned a veil of mystery today. Until Commander Thierfelder attempts a dash past the allies' cruisers off the capes, or notifies the United States government that he desires to intern his vessel, developments will be guarded with the utmost secrecy.

Collector of Customs Hamilton today declined to discuss the status of the Wilhelm. Those unofficially in touch with the situation believe Capt. Thierfelder really intends to depart. Anchored in the stream, instead of tied up at a pier, as was the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, the Wilhelm on a dark night could leave this port before the fact became known to those ashore.

Repair work is being rushed and it is believed that the cruiser will be in a seaworthy condition before the expiration of any time limit set by the government.

We regret to have to report that the meanest man on earth lives in Norfolk. When a pretty girl offered him a kiss for a nickel he suggested that she make six for a quarter and call it a "jitney buss."
