

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Does Not Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile, causes it to break up into small particles, which are then vomited up. This is why you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, if you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, use a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

AGRONOMY.

A Poor Method of Corn Breeding.

Some corn growers attempt to improve their corn by crossing it with one or more very different varieties. The object of such crossing is to combine the good qualities into one variety. It is not an unusual practice to cross a large-eared variety with a prolific variety or a deep-grained variety with a shallow-grained corn. Such practice should be avoided. It not only produces a badly mixed variety, but usually fails to produce the desired results. Our varieties are already too badly mixed for the production of the best yields and quality of corn. If a variety has undesirable qualities which can not be corrected by straight selection, discard it and secure an established variety which has the desired qualities. The results will be much surer and more quickly gotten if one secures an established variety which comes nearest to having the desired qualities and improves it further by selecting the best plants. Straight selection is the best practice for improving the yield and quality of the corn crop.

RUSSIANS LOSE MILLION.

Berlin, Sept. 1 (by wireless to Sayville).—An official review of the eastern campaign as given out here today by the Overseas News Agency, estimates that since May 2 the Russians have lost at least 300,000 men killed or wounded, and 1,000,000 men captured by the Germans.

SILHOUETTE SKIRT COMES

French Liner Espagne Brings Over Last Word in Fashions.

New York, Sept. 1.—The French liner Espagne, in from Bordeaux, brought over the last word in autumn fashions, and as women passengers tripped down the gangplank New Yorkers gasped.

There was the silhouette skirt, shorter and wider than ever; the high top boot with a dainty gold watch ticking its little heart away as it rested on the left ankle of a pretty girl's right foot; the Joffe wrap, a style of cloak that takes its name from France's war hero, and the high crown hat perked down sharply over the eyes and a tilt at the rear of the coilfuz. Not in years has such a breath of loveliness swept over the Chelsea piers. The skirts are higher or shorter as you wish; the hosiery is the gayest of the ultra violet rays increased in high top boots.

The Espagne brought over 389 passengers. There were a few Americans aboard but the French women on the saloon list had the honor of revealing Paris' latest contribution to New York. These French women added to the beauty of the creations.

Charles Kurzman, importer and milliner of the 5th avenue, was among the passengers. "The skirts are to be shorter this autumn, and very much wider," said Mr. Kurzman. "They will be worn with high, fancy boots and vari-colored hosiery."

"The high hats will be pulled down forward over the eyes. Before returning I visited the Jenny collection in Paris, and in spite of the war it was greater, grander and better than ever. I was at the resort Exains le Bains, where the fashions were of the gayest. I have found the war has made the styles more sensible."

Mr. Kurzman said Jenny had invented the silhouette skirt, which is not as transparent as the shadow skirt.

SPEAS CAN PROVE THIS.

Baseball Game With Three Balls in Play at One Time.

New York Times.

The following humorous story of the baseball field is related by Bill Speas, outfielder, of the Portland team of the Pacific Coast League, and probably is one of the most humorous things witnessed on a baseball field. Incidentally, the story has been told and retold by prominent players in the two major leagues.

"You might not believe this," says Speas, "but I've got several clippings to prove it. It happened in 1906 in the Pennsylvania and Ohio League. I was playing with Mansfield, and Doc Bailey, the old-time Columbus pitcher, was doing the pitching for us. Our opponents had us beaten, about 40 to 0, when one of them hit a ball and slammed it down the rightfield foul line. The umpire threw in another ball, and he knocked it foul again. Then he hit one at me in left, and after breaking my neck to keep it from rolling into the next State, I got it and threw it into the place, only it hit the grand stand instead.

"Well, in the meantime, the fielders had recovered the foul balls and the shortstop had one running a man down between second and third, and the second baseman had the other trying to catch a man between first and second. The catcher was chasing the ball I threw in. It looked like a fire in a Chinese laundry the way everybody was running around. I was almost sick from laughing out there in leftfield.

"The umpire eventually ruled the foul balls out of play and held that the ball I threw at the grand stand was the right one. But that does not change the fact that there were three balls in play all at one time."

Paris, Sept. 2.—Four Turkish transports have been torpedoed by British submarines.

"A transport was sunk on the 20th of August by one of our aviators in the anchorage at Acbaashliman," says an official announcement today, "it is necessary to add four transports torpedoed by British submarines; two of them at the same point and two others between Gallipoli and Nagara."

SUMMER CALLS.

My heart said: "Up, away,
Where cooling breezes blow;
Where leafy roads wind on
To meet the sunset glow,
Leave care and toil behind,
And to the summons trust;
Go gypsying afar,
I have the wanderlust."

My purse cried: "Stick right here,
I cannot raise the wind;
No easy street for you.
Just get that notion skinned.
Take up the work to do,
And buckle down, nor rust;
Be deaf to other calls,
I have the backyardlust."

A WEAK DIET.

"The moth," one of them shouted, confidently. "It eats nothing but holes."—Youth's Companion.

IN THE CLASS ROOM.

After a somewhat lengthy explanation of the wonders of the human body the teacher decided to question the class.

"Johnny," she said, "can you give me an example showing how the body will adapt itself to changed conditions?"
"Yes'm," quoth Johnny, "Pa keeps getting fatter and fatter every day and still his skin don't crack."—Exchange.

The small son of a suffragist was being catechised by his Sunday school teacher.

"Who made man?" asked the teacher.
"God," was the prompt reply.
"And who made woman?"
"God made her too."

"How?"
