TWIN PICNIC.

The Rural carriers and patrons of Route No. 1, Union Ridge, and Route No. 2, Altamahaw, N. C., will have their annual picnic at Stony Creek, (Lee's Old Store,) Saturday, October 2nd. This is in a good community and among the best people in the world and a good time is in store for those who attend.

The editor of the Dispatch is in receipt of an invitation to the Twin Picnic to be held at Stony Creek, (Lee's Old Store) by Rural carriers, Route No. 1, Union Ridge, and Route No. 2, Altamahaw, N. C., October 2. We extend our thanks and appreciation for same but cannot promise to be present at this time. We would enjoy it ever so much as some of our very best friends live in this community.

CHANGES MANAGEMENT.

Miss Lillie Shatterly, formerly manager of Ralph's Place, has resigned on account of her mother's health, and Mr. James Workman has been selected as her successor. Mr. Workman says he will be glad to have his friends call to see him at his new place.

DEATH OF MRS. COBLE.

Hattie Anna Coble was born near Brick Church, Guilford County, November 18, 1883 and departed this life September 17, 1915. She was a daughter of M. N. and Nellie J. Greeson. On April 22, 1908, she was married to Robert A. Coble. The deceased is survived by her husband and three children, also by her parents and three brothers and three sisters, James F. Greeson, Sapulpa, Okla., M. C. Greeson, Greensboro, H. D. Greeson, Jones, Ala., Mrs. Joda Stuart, McLainsville, and Mrs. Donna Coble of Burlington.

Mrs. Coble was a woman of fine character, capable and of a bright, cheerful disposition. She added grace and charm to her home and every circle in which she moved. This in a large measure was due, not only to her culture and refinement, but to a beautiful Christian character by which her life was directed. She loved her church and Sunday School and was absent only when providentially hindered. God's ways are "past finding out", though ordered by eternal wisdom. He has taken her from this world of sin and sorrow to Himself in Heaven. "It is the Lord, let Him do what seemeth to Him good." Her body was laid to rest in Pinewood cemetery under a bank of flowers, surrounded by a large concourse of friends and relatives to await the resurrection call. The funeral service was held at Macedonia Lutheran Church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. S. Brown, assisted by the Rev. V. R. Strickley, a former pastor. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. Coble and his bereaved children. May He who tempests the winds to the stormy seas guard and keep them.

I thought upon the happy dead, So calm, so sweet, so still And wished that I might be as they Beyond the reach of ill.

I thought upon the happy dead, So serene and holy blest, And wished that I might be as they Forever so at rest.

I thought upon the happy dead, Amongst whom I longed to be, And wondered could I hear them speak.

They would say to me;

Think not upon the happy dead, Closer is the Lord's protection than a neat-investing wall; Closer than a moat about me, closer than a tower tall; Closer than a suit of armour, or my hands or feet can be, For me against my own assailing, His protection keepth me."

CHAPEL HILL LETTER.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 20.—The first meeting of the North Carolina Club was held Monday night, Sept. 20th. The primary purpose of the meeting was to start the organization of county clubs and plan work for the present year. At this meeting there was an open discussion on "Advertising North Carolina." In developing this subject it was shown: 1. What We Have to Advertise; 2nd. Why We need to Advertise; and 3rd. Effective Ways of Advertising. In Dr. Branson's opinion this subject is the most important one now confronting the people of North Carolina. The first problem to be worked out by the Club will be a detailed study of the 1915 tax lists in the various counties. Already some of the Club members are at work on such subjects as pauperism, homicides, suicides, and other similar topics connected with North Carolina life.

Last year 121 North Carolina subjects were worked out by various Club members. These studies embraced such topics as: School, Sunday School and Church surveys of North Carolina by counties; a detailed study of the local market problem in Mecklenburg, Wayne, Wake, Lincoln, Rutherford, Granville, Randolph, and Northampton counties. "Elbow Room for Home-Seekers"—a study of the uncultivated areas of the State; "The Bill for Imported Food and Feed Stuff" and "Tax Values of Farm Lands Compared with Census Values." These are a few random pickings from the 121 topics worked out by the Club last year.

"Not large in size, a single sheet of five columns, the University of North Carolina News Letter is not only an innovation but it is a publication which is doing a real service, and doing it well, in emphasizing what is being done and what ought to be done for the upbuilding of North Carolina—the above editorial extract from the News and Observer speaks for itself. Today there are over seven thousand names on the mailing list of the News Letter. The Bureau of Extension at the University is of the opinion that the News Letter covers as large a territory as any other news sheet in the United States. Dr. A. S. Wheeler, of the department of Chemistry, while in Tacoma, Washington, found an editorial on the News Letter in the Tacoma Daily News; and on the return trip he struck up an acquaintance with a Wisconsin farmer who asked that his name be put on the mailing list of the News Letter. The Letter owes its remarkable growth to the fact that it is not looking out for the welfare of the University to the exclusion of all other obligations, but is also thinking of the people beyond the University walls. A Green Bay alumnus expressed it very aptly when he said: "The News Letter is the best possible advertisement of the University." The Letter is sent free of charge to all those who want it. Those interested in North Carolina life and problems may obtain a copy of the News Letter each week by writing to Mr. E. R. Rankin.

How's This?

The best paint is the one that is most economical and most durable. It is the one that will give you the most for your money. It is the one that will stand up to the most severe tests. It is the one that will give you the most satisfaction. It is the one that will give you the most peace of mind. It is the one that will give you the most comfort. It is the one that will give you the most health. It is the one that will give you the most happiness. It is the one that will give you the most success. It is the one that will give you the most glory. It is the one that will give you the most honor. It is the one that will give you the most respect. It is the one that will give you the most admiration. It is the one that will give you the most esteem. It is the one that will give you the most reverence. It is the one that will give you the most awe. It is the one that will give you the most fear. It is the one that will give you the most terror. It is the one that will give you the most dread. It is the one that will give you the most horror. It is the one that will give you the most loathing. It is the one that will give you the most disgust. It is the one that will give you the most revulsion. It is the one that will give you the most abhorrence. It is the one that will give you the most detestation. It is the one that will give you the most execration. It is the one that will give you the most anathema. It is the one that will give you the most curse. It is the one that will give you the most curse.

BEST PAINT.

What is it? Devoe. How Devoe? It's 100 years old; but that isn't how. It has long been the best; but that isn't how. It has been developed by use and study, by study and use; that is how; and approved by experience, many years; that's how. It commends itself by long lasting and small paint-cost; not cheap by the gallon, but cheap by the job and cheap by the year and ten years cheap by the lifetime. That's how. Hold and May sell it.

A PINE WHOOPING COUGH REMEDY.

Mothers, Dr. Ball's Pine-Tar-Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucous in the throat, soothe the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant, with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it, new friends. A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c. a bottle.

THRILLING TO YOUNG AND OLD.

While the thrilling aerial and acrobatic acts, as well as sensational equestrianism and hippodrome track events, are absolutely essential to all big tented shows, their performances would fall flat were it not for the clowns. Primarily the majority of show-going enthusiasts, not to mention the small boys and girls, visit the canvas cities to be amused, and the salaried jesters must see to it that none are disappointed. Realizing that a steady share of the success of the entertainment depends upon the funsters, the Robinson Famous Shows, which give afternoon and evening performances, Saturday, September 25th, at Burlington, N. C., engaged for this season an unparalleled quota of world-famous clowns as money can hire.

There is a veritable army of those jolly fellows, whose sole work is to provide wholesome laughs and amusement for all classes and all ages. From the time the main tent doors are open, which is an hour before the first act enters the rings, until the end of the program, the great hippodrome track swarms with harlequins, and mirth reigns fast and furious. The Katzenjammer Kids, Buster Brown, simple Simon and the Billiken, those, together with all the other comic supplement characters, are there as well as more than a score of others. Also a whole army of suffragettes. If you do not wish to enjoy hale and hearty jollity, it will be advisable to remain away from the Robinson Famous Shows. On the other hand, if you are suffering from an attack of the blues a certain and permanent cure is assured if you attend the performance.
