beautiful horse. I was just 18, and very fond of pretty girls. Sunday morning of the Leitch revival I drove to Providence Church to get the daughter of our minister and take her to Pineville. On arriving at her home I found that she had a date with Charlton O. Howard, so I had to go alone. To save a little time I took a short cut, going by way of the Weeks ford, of McAlpine Creek. I had alford the ridge of the inauguration of Gov. Elias ways heard that the water there was is a great awakening on the subject shallow. flowed it into the bottoms. Up to that time muddy water had never stopped me, so I drove in. My horse was hardly bridlewise, and when a load of wood. I realized that he would have to swim the channel, it was too late for me to turn around. Soon I was literally indeep water, and the danger of a catastrophe. The horse was carried down stream, and the buggy became lodged between the forks of a tree, plain, simple and forceful. where the water was ten or more feet deep. I cut him loose, and he swam out, leaving me wilth the buggy. I climbed the tree and remained there from ten a. m. to States assay office at Charlotte. I am indebted to my dear old friend, iar with the creek bottoms, came in Gov. Z. B. Vance, and zealous friends, and took me out. The buggy, minus in Charlotte, namely, Robert M. War production records that most of us were inclined to forget that many, many, long months are needed even to get an armament program subs tantially under way.

Some of these bad guesses, particularily regarding Italy, Russia, and the RAF, turned out better than had been expected. The others, however, have been major factors in aiding the measure of greater caution. They have helped convince the United States that now is the time to start sawing wood and reject the predictions that everything is rosy merely because we want it to be so.

"Imagine me, steering a Destroyer!"

"And I've had two pay raises in only eight months! I'll say you can't beat Uncle Sam's Navy!"

TOU couldn't ask for a greater thrill than I that which a fellow gets when he comes back home wearing a trim Navy uniform. The folks crowd around. They all want to know where you've been, what you've done. And man, do you have stories to tell!

GREATEST LIFE IN THE WORLD

You're proud. And you should be. For you've been leading the greatest life in the world. And it's a thrill to tell about it, too. A thrill to see the admiration in the eyes of the One and Only Girl as you tell about the first time you steered a Destroyer. Or handled a P.T. Boat at more than 45 miles per hour. Or stepped out in front of your shipmates to receive your first promotion.

And with that promotion came an increase in pay. And there were more to come. Second Class. First Class. And then Chief Petty Officer. Many might even go to Annapolis. Or to Pensacola with the flying cadets!

Exciting? You bet, and fun too. Something doing all the time. Real he-man's stuff. Boxing. Baseball. Football. Swimming. AND MOVIES... previews, too!
