SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1892.

SALUTATORY.

In presenting this little sheet to our people, it is hoped they will appreciate it as an honest effort on our part to promote the moral, intellectual and material standing of our people.

We intend to make the Messenger a permanent institution and an organ worthy of its name. It is intended to fill a vacancy of long standing and one sorely felt.

W. C. SMITH, Publisher.

The Ticket.

The Republican Convention having met and endorsed the ticket put forward by the anti-prohibition convention which met one week previous, it is the duty of all good and loyal Republicans to lay aside whatever of personal feelings they may have had, and accept this ticket in good faith.

Individually, we were opposed to coalition, as we believed the party strong enough to win without a formal union with any other party; but as the party leaders have thought best to accept the work of the other convention, we acquiesce; none shall excel us in obeying the party leaders whenever we think them right.

The Convention of Republicans which met in Raleigh on Wednesday last was one of the most intelligent bodies of Republicans that has met in this State before.

Much is being said of Congressman Mackey's colored wife. They live in the most aristocratic part of Washington City.

The Raleigh Times is the official organ of the Republican party in the State.

The Republicans carried the election in Oregon last week, and will elect a Republican to succeed Grover in the United States Senate.

The Libera or anti-prohibition party met in Raleigh on the 7th and nominated the following ticket to be voted for in November: Congressman at Large, O. H. Dockery; Supreme Court Judge, G. N. Folk; Associate Justice, C. C. Pool; U. A. Moore, F. H. Darby, W. A. Guthrie, L. H. Churchill.

This ticket was endorsed by the Republican Convention which met on the 14th in the same city.

The colored newspaper men of the country met in Washington City on the 27th inst. They will have a grand time. Cromwell, the Advocate, will have everything necessary to make them happy.

There was a little unpleasantness in the court-room at Salisbury last week. Two pugilistic lawyers not being satisfied with hot words, resorted to their muscles.

Who They Are.

The nominees of the Anti-Prohibition convention were: for Congress-man, O. H. Dockery, Rep. for Congressman at Large, and Col Geo N Folk for Governor; for Senator, Judge Edgemoor, or at least to try to follow him; Col Dockery is "my son Oliver," (as old Gen Alfred Dockery used to call him) of Richmond county, and his family has long been among the most prominent of the "Free Dies country." He has a very high reputation as a politician, without being personally ambitious, which is saying a good deal. He is said to be very shy and polite in his conversation, and is a fastidious member of his party on the plan that he lacked the requisite "backbone" and "aggressiveness" to carry out his program.

Col. George Nathaniel Folk is a native of Hills of Wight county, Virginia; he has resided in North Carolina since 1858. He served in the Legislature several times prior to the war; and raised the first company for the famous "First N. C. Cavalry" in which regiment he served two years, when he was made Colonel of the 6th N. C. Cavalry. He is well known as a legislator and as a lawyer, and represented that district in the Senate from 1878. He was given the chairmanship of the legislative committee in a body embracing numerous prominent lawyers, such as Major John Graham, Col. James Scales, and F. Dornell, Col. H. B. Short, Geavany Coker, W. P. Coker, W. B. Robins, Col. Thomas Folk, Col. John W. Cunningham, and others.

Col. Folk is an handsome, black broad-shouldered man, of 58, and has great vitality. He is a cousin of Gov. Vance, and a brother of Mrs D. W. Beck of the Charlotte Medical Assurance Bureau in this city.

For Superior Court Judge, the Libera or anti-prohibition selected the following: First District - C. C. Pool, who was nominated by the Radical district convention.

Second District - John A. Moore, of Union, a brother of Radical ex-Judge W. A. Moore, who was elected to the Supreme Court in 1888, and was a member of the Supreme Court in 1890, according to Judge's official biography, with John H. Gresham, elected in 1888, the two being nominated at the Raleigh Republican convention on Monday.

Third District - Frank H. Deane, of Wilmington, formerly a young Congressman, his law firm being the accepted, the Wilmington papers state.

Fourth District - W. A. Guthrie, of Fayetteville. He is a former lawyer of this city, and was a member of the Raleigh Republican Convention.

Fifth District - Jacob A. Long, of Tryon. He is a young lawyer of this city, and was a member of the Raleigh Republican Convention. He is a member of the Democratic Party, and was a member of the Raleigh Republican Convention.

Sixth District - Lewis J. Smith, of Raleigh. He was not a member of the Raleigh Republican Convention.

Much is being said of Congressman Mackey's colored wife. They live in the most aristocratic part of Washington City.

We are to have another negro at West Point. This time he comes from Brooklyn, N. Y., through the merits of a competitive examination. Smart chap, he.

Who said Senator Bruce was the last negro to be in Congress? Mr. Lynch is in and Mr. Small's likely to get in very soon.

How do you like the ticket? Well, don't know; but it is bound to win. Guess it is the best after all--so say we, all of us.

As the MESSENGER is published for the benefit of the colored people, it is hoped that all the preachers, teachers and other public men, will feel that our columns are always open to them. We want to keep standing a directory of our churches and societies. If your church or society does not appear, inform us thereof.

Republican Executive Committee.

The following is the Republican State Executive Committee as elected by the recent convention in Raleigh: First district, Palmona John, of Pasquotank; second district, Willis Bagley of Northampton; third district, W. P. Canaday, of New Hanover; fourth district, J. H. Hester, of Wayne; fifth district, William P. Henderson, of Davidson; sixth district, W. R. Myers, of Mecklenburg; seventh district, Thomas H. Coker, of Iredell; eighth district, John M. Eason, of Rutherford.

THE SITUATION IN EGYPT.

The English--15,000 Troops Wanted--Communication by the Eastern Cable Interrupted--Ship-of-War En Route for Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, June 15.--The Khedive has expressed the hope that 15,000 British troops will be sent to Egypt. After the reception he held yesterday he informed the Europeans that he had divided the town into districts and had made an officer responsible for each. He said 400 ringleaders of Sunday's riot had been arrested and will be shortly on their way to the harbor, where they would be well guarded. Admiral Seymour has sailed the steamer St. Marango to convey fugitives to the coast.

Devoted Pasha expresses full confidence in the loyalty of the Egyptian troops. Turkish troops, however, are ready to start for Egypt, if necessary. He thinks he can settle the difficulty in a few days.

Germany and Austria are trying to induce the military party to ask the Khedive for pardon. The military party is in a condition to demand of two confidential advisers of the Khedive.

VIENNA, June 15.--The Neue Presse says that England and France are willing to agree that Turkey shall be engaged with intervention in Egypt as a condition and under the control of Europe, but not as a sovereign power. Should Turkey refuse this mission and persist in claiming a position as a sovereign power, England and France will be ready to accept the mandate of Europe, or, in the last resort, to act independently.

The Austrian Lloyd has sent two and the French Maritime Republics seven large steamers to Alexandria, to remove Egyptian cotton and other goods.

LONDON, June 15, 4:30 p. m.--Private advices from Cairo state that the European have left. A dispatch just received says that the Cairo office of the Eastern cable company has been closed. The route of the cable main line to India will have to be altered.

The Times correspondent at Constantinople says he has just received from Deris, a friend to England, that France is to send the fleet to Constantinople to support the fleet of the Emperor of Turkey, and that the Emperor of Turkey has just announced the suspension of Arabi Pasha for some time.

The British cabinet, consisting of five large ships, sailed from Gibraltar at 7 o'clock this morning.

In the House of Commons this afternoon Sir Charles Halliday announced that the Government had decided to send a fleet of six ships to Constantinople to support the fleet of the Emperor of Turkey, and that the Emperor of Turkey has just announced the suspension of Arabi Pasha for some time.

It is now estimated that 200,000 British troops will be sent to Constantinople to support the fleet of the Emperor of Turkey, and that the Emperor of Turkey has just announced the suspension of Arabi Pasha for some time.
