LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Brick sidewalk is being laid from the Air-Line depot up town.

The brick work of the new building at the Air-Line depot is finished.

Work on the College is suspended a few days waiting on granite.

They have now nearly a hundred students at Biddle and they are continually coming in.

There are about 350 children in the colored graded school. There ought to be 600. Where are the children?

Two more circuses coming in November we hear. We know some young folks who say they have enough circuses.

Jack Frost is coming and dances and festivals are getting numerous.

Last Tuesday was a big day with cotton folks, but don't think prices were very good, as we heard one man say he sent his back home.

The Liberal movement in Mecklenburg county seems to be fizzling out in empty promises.

Send your children to school and they will not have to be told so often to register and vote.

The young men of the city interested in the welfare of the race politically, are requested to meet at the office of the MESSENGER, on next Thursday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, sharp.

The revival at the Methodist Church is going on again. We hope great good will be done. The harvest certainly is great in this city.

More Clubbing.

We hear of complaint of police officers clubbing another woman. We do not know the facts in this case, but learn the woman was severely clubbed by two officers, from which she is laid up. We regret to have to mention such occurrences. It is wrong for an officer to club a woman. It is cowardly and inhuman. Yet, there is one sad mistake very commonly made by colored people; that is insulting and resisting officers. When an officer comes to a person in a lawful way and arrests them it is the duty of that person to submit and go with the officer, and have the necessary examination. Innocence is no excuse, and we are sorry brutal officers are gratified by an excuse to use the billy so often upon the heads of men and women.

Third Ward Registrar Again.

Our Registrar on Third Ward certainly needs a lawyer to stay in his store all the while to tell him what to do with colored men when they come to register. He not only refuses to take the oath of a man whose age he doubts, but this week we learn he demands a certificate of men from other counties who have been living here more than eight months. "Charity suffereth long."

At the Fair.

At the Industrial Fair held in Raleigh last week, there were assembled much of North Carolina's best talent among the colored people. The east, the west and the northwest were represented. Hon. John S. Leary, one of our best lawyer's was on hand and did the loud talking at the social entertainment on Thursday night. Rev. Joseph C. Price, our most gifted young speaker, distinguished himself as equal to any occasion, and filled Prof Greener's place about as well as the Prof. could have done himself. The press of the State was represented by I. B. Abbott, of the Lodge, E. E. Smith, of the Enterprise, S. N. Hill, of Wilson News. Among other distinguished visitors was Mr. Brag, of the Petersburg (Va.) Lancer. He is a man, grown, he says, but looks like he is not more than 16. J. C. Dancy, G. C. Scurlock, N. W. Harlee, G. W. Poe, C. H. Moore, E. H. Martin, and a host of beautiful ladies were with us during the fair.

Personals.

Mr. W. H. Woodward of Richmond county, is another colored mail agent on the Carolina Central Road.

Our good old friend, John Holloway, spent Wednesday night in our city. He looks well and is as lively as ever.

For the Messenger.

Colored Lutheran Mission in Concord.

The colored Lutheran Mission in Concord is progressing finely. The Missionary, Rev. D. J. Koontz, has just closed an interesting protracted meeting, which resulted in the reception of six members into the church. On Sunday night an organization was effected by the installation of Messrs. Robert R. White and Simon Lord as Elders, and W. C. Coleman and F. J. Alexander as Deacons. The prospect for the accomplishment of great good in the future prosecution of this noble work is very encouraging. There is abundant material upon which to operate and with which to build up another household for God. The brethren officially engaged in this enterprise fully understand their business, and possess the capacity and energy to carry it forward to victory. We bespeak for them and their cause the generous sympathy and kind cooperation of all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Pecuniary aid to provide a place of worship and to meet other necessary expenses is much needed and respectfully solicited. Friends of Christ help us in this good cause. Contributions may be sent to W. C. Coleman who will receive, and duly acknowledge the same.

Concord N. C., Oct. 23, 1882.

Although about eighty pupils have been dropped from the rolls of the Centennial graded school, for frequent tardiness and other causes, yet there is now over 600 in attendance.

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CONGRESS.

An Interesting Discussion on the Relations of the Colored Race to the Church.

RICHMOND, October 26.—In the Protestant Episcopal Congress last night Rev. W. B. W. Howe, D. D., Bishop of South Carolina, in speaking on the subject of the relations of the church to the colored race, said the method must be purely missionary for a century or two. They should be entitled to seats in diocesan boards; they should be considered as members of the same body until the two races should be united under one bishop. The general sympathy on the part of the whites and becoming modesty on the part of the blacks would unite the two races. As to the qualification of colored candidates for the deaconate and the priesthood, he said the difficulties could be met by recognizing in the canon the differences recognized in nature. He advocated a theological department in some institution near the field of their labors.

Rev. J. E. C. Smedes, of Raleigh, N. C., in his paper gave at length statistics of the work done among the colored race by other denominations, and contrasted therewith the little work that the Episcopal Church is doing among them. The contrast was mortifying and it should stimulate renewed efforts and better results.

The next paper was by Rev. Henry Dunlap, of Savannah, who spoke of the relations between Christians and the colored race, all of whom prayed to one Father.

The first speaker was Rev. J. L. Tucker, D. D., of Jackson, Miss. He said the selection of topic was an evidence that there is a difference between the relation of the Church to the colored man and the relation of the Church to the white race. After stating that the negroes were brought to this country in absolute barbarism, and charged them with utter want of honesty, truthfulness and virtue, and said that all attempts on the part of the masters and others to instil better principles developed the vilest hypocrisy.

Rev. J. S. Hancek, of Virginia, contended that the Church stands in her relation to the colored race as to every other race. He advocated separate diocesan organization for the colored people.

Dr. Hopkins, of Pennsylvania, compared the prior efforts to bring the African up to the level of the Episcopal church service to pouring hot mutton gravy into a cold dish. The negro misook emotion for religion, and after shouting and feeling warm and good he takes that to be piety and then does not care how many hen roosts he robs.

Mr. Shackelford, of Virginia, defended the character of the negroes and contended that in the matter of gratitude and justice they were often in advance of the whites and were generally true in their relations in life as far as they had an opportunity of learning right from wrong.

Dr. Yale, of Philadelphia, favored missionary work among the negroes.

Rev. C. C. Tiffany, of New York, contended that Episcopal churches was especially fitted for colored people.

Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky, thought injustice had been done to the colored people by the gentlemen who had preceded him. He said that the negro must be brought into our bodies and welcomed. He as a southern man, was willing to sit with him, he be as black as he may, if he is the right sort of clergyman or layman. Congress adjourned at 11 30 p. m.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Coroner.

The friends of Mr. J. A. McClure hereby announce him as the People's candidate for the office of Coroner of Mecklenburg county, at the ensuing election.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 1st, '82.

The propriety of running a colored man for some of our County offices has been discussed very frequently amongst the leaders of our race, and surely, representing the voting element of the Republican party as we do, we are entitled to some of the offices bestowed by the suffrage of the people. I am one of those who think it high time that the colored people should be rewarded for their devotion to their party, and acting upon this reasoning, and the solicitation of many friends, I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Constable, in Charlotte Township. Respectfully,
S. J. CALDWELL.

Independent-Republican Candidate for Clerk of Superior Court.

TO THE VOTERS OF MECKLENBURG COUNTY: At the earnest solicitation of my many friends I hereby announce myself as an independent candidate for Clerk of the Superior Court of Mecklenburg county, N. C.

In submitting my claims to the voters of the county for the office of Clerk, I do so as a Republican, leaving it to be determined by the people of Mecklenburg county, at an election to be held on the 7th day of November, 1882, as to their choice. My record in the past must be a guarantee for my course in the future. While I entertain liberal views on all party questions, I do not as a Republican, deem it advisable to abandon our party organization to gratify the whims of a few office-seekers.

If the masses of the Liberal party (so-called) are anxious for the defeat of the Bourbon Democrats they will vote for Republicans.
