LOCAL AND GENERAL.

There is talk of putting the day passenger trains back on the Air Line road to-morrow.
 We had a slight fall of snow last Monday night.
 Our Sabbath-school concert was a success in a financial view.
 Zion Conference met at Statesville last Wednesday.
 The Observer has a new job press and will soon move into its new building near the square on Tryon street.
 Some of our graded school teachers returned home last Thursday morning on account of no wood for fire in the building.
 We have been laid up a good part of this week, and unable to do much for the Messenger readers. Be patient and help us all you can.
 The fall term of the Federal court for this district will convene in the Court House in this city the second Monday in December, Judges Hugh L. Bond and R. P. Dick will preside. Messrs. W. H. Houser and John Smith are the colored jurors from this county and Mr. Henderson White from Cabarrus.

A colored man named Jack White, living near Fort Mill, left his house on Monday morning to attend to some business, with no one but his two little children at home. He was horror stricken on his return to find his house burned to ashes with one of his children, the other having crawled out.

In the trial of the young men for taking Doc Jones from a house and beating him, Ed. Hagler, Gadsden Earle, Martin Orr, Jr., Will Brown, and Wm. Maxwell, submitted and judgment was suspended on payment of costs. Others all dismissed.

John Gross, a colored bootblack, has been put in possession, by the Sheriff, $50,000 worth of real estate, under the decision of the Court of Appeals. The property belonged to his father thirty years ago.

CITY NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Courts and Otherwise.

SUNDAY, 19th.—A good many of our citizens went over to Salisbury to witness the dedication of a Catholic church.—Elder Tyler preached his farewell sermon on Sunday night.—A colored woman, named Sallie Reed, fell dead on her return from church Sunday night—cause heart disease.—The schedule on the North road, was changed Sunday, so that passengers for Raleigh now leave here in the afternoon and arrives here in the afternoon.

MONDAY, 20th.—The Board of Aldermen met on Monday, and gave permission to one Anna Potts to peddle second-hand clothing without license. They ordered the sale of the horses belonging to the fire department; also the Pioneer Engine; the proceeds to be used in purchasing two reels for the whites and one for the Neptune Company.—There was an effort made to remove policeman Erwin, because he is two much of a demoeat and impolite to his superiors. There was also an effort made to increase the police force, both failed.—Receipts in the Mayor's court were $25.—The Inferior Court met Monday. Judge Waring charged the Jury. Capt. J. Roessler was foreman of the jury. The following cases were disposed of: John Alexander for carrying concealed weapons: judgment suspended on payment of cost. M. D. and L. B. Flow, disturbing religious meeting; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

TUESDAY, 21st.—Ed. Williams was convicted of rocking a train on the Air-Line, and got 18 months in the the penitentiary; this case took nearly all day.—Henry Cuthbertson, assault; submitted and paid cost. George Wilson, misdemeanor; nol. pros.—Cochrane, Snider and others, for retailing, dismissed.—Wm. Simpson, same, failed to appear, judgment ni si.—On Tuesday night a man was supposed to have been shot while trying to enter the front door of a citizen.

WEDNESDAY, 22d.—Pink Byers for disturbance, guilty.—C. F. Covington, for resisting officers, guilty. John Alexander, misdemeanor, judgment withdrawn.—D. S. Bennett, obtaining goods under false pretenses, guilty.—Only $5 taken in at the Mayor's court this day, from a white man for breaking a window.

From the Charlotte Observer, 24th inst.

THURSDAY.—The Inferior court was engaged for the greater part of the day in the trial of the colored men for mobbing Doc Jones last Summer, the particulars of which are still fresh in the minds of our readers. The plaintiff, Jones, did not appear in court, having left the city about a month ago. Mrs. Philips, the woman at whose house Jones was when the mobbing took place, appeared to prosecute the defendants for forcible trespass. Solicitor Calvin E. Grier and Mr. Thomas M. Pittman appeared for the prosecution, while the defendants were represented by the Charlotte bar. The jury returned verdicts as follows: Gadsden Earle, Ed Hagler, Martin Orr, Jr., Wm Maxwell and Wm Brown, forcible trespass, guilty.

Chris Lomax, Joseph Brown, James Hagler, A C Monroe, F Reed and Wellington Lomax, forcible trespass, not guilty.

Wellington Lomax, Chris Lomax, Jos Brown, Jas Hagler, A C Monroe and Frank Reed, assault and battery, not guilty.

Wm Brown, Wm Maxwell, Ed Hagler, Gadsden Earle and Martin Orr, Jr, assault and battery, plead former conviction. The costs of the case, which will probably amount to over $300, will fall upon the defendants and thus ends the great Doc Jones mobbing case.

Notwithstanding the time taken up in the trial of these cases, the court got through with a number of other cases. John Emanuel, was convicted of larceny; and sentenced to two years in the State penitentiary. Sam Witherspoon, on trial for larceny, plead guilty to forcible trespass. Sam Alexander, the negro who stole a bicycle from Mr. R. L. Cochrane in this city and carried it to Monroe, where he and the bicycle were both captured and brought back, was found guilty. Joe Cathey, for an affray, submitted and judgment was suspended on payment of costs. John Gorrell, for assault and battery, was found guilty. Gilbert Harris was acquitted of the charge of carrying concealed weapons. In the State vs. John Dunn and Rosina Duun, for assault and battery, the defendants were called and failed to appear and judgment nisi was entered.

Harrison Watts Hose Co.

Every member of the above named company is requested to meet in the room over Mr. A. C. Monroe's barber shop next Monday night at 7½ o'clock to make some disposition of the furniture and funds on hand. This is thought necessary, as the board of aldermen have failed to recognize the company. It is earnestly hoped that every member may be present and that the organization may be turned into something more beneficial.

Personals.

It is rumored that Elder W. J. Moore will spend to-morrow in the city.

Sam N. Hill, editor of the Wilson News, spent last Wednesday with us.

Mr. H. A. Gillespie has been made postmaster at Davidson College. This is a brother of our A. B. Gillespie, charged some time ago with using brass knucks upon W. H. Bailey.

Among the delegates to conference we met Revs. G. W. Grange, Rufus Collins, David Williams, Jr., David Williams, Sr., Jack Murchison, N. A. Williams and others of the Cape Fear section. Bishop Hood, Elder Kesler and daughter were along with the party on Tuesday.

I. O. of G. S. and D. of S.

The members of the lodges of this city working under Grand Lodge No. 10 are requested to meet the Grand Chief in mass meeting at their hall on Monday night. By order of the Grand Chief,
 W. J. MOORE.

R. T. WEDDINGTON,
 Special Deputy.

A New Deputy Collector.

On last Tuesday one Dr. Angle presented papers from Collector T. N. Cooper to Deputy Collector R. R. Ray of this county, asking Mr. Ray to turn his office, &c., over to Dr. Angle of Statesville. It is said that Dr. Angle is a brother-in-law of Collector Cooper. This is the only cause for the change we have yet heard. Many of our citizens express disapproval of the change.

OUR CONCERT.

Our readers will find elsewhere a very nice account of our concert last Monday night. The article was prepared by Puck, and we assure those who were not present, that Puck is a good judge of such entertainments.

We take this occasion to congratulate our Superintendent and all others connected with the concert, upon the satisfaction given and the financial success. The object of the entertainment was to realize some funds to make a present to our beloved Elder Tyler as a token of our love and appreciation of his services the past three years. There were over four hundred persons out, and after presenting the elder a nice $40 suit and beaver, we have a nice little sum left to go in our Sunday-school treasury.

We had some very good reading and singing as mentioned by "Puck," but of course the singing did not equal Madame Selika or Patti, as we had only one week to prepare. We now know what we can do and it is hoped that our young friends will take advantage of the time and prepare something grand for a Christmas concert. We have not forgotten the Christmas tree last year. Of course we intend to have another and we suggest that we have some well prepared pieces by our better teachers and older scholars as well as some fine sheet music. What say our teachers? 'Tis time to go to work.

School Books.

To My Customers and the Citizens of Charlotte.

I desire to have it distinctly understood, that I am still furnishing books for the Graded Schools either by exchange or introductory prices, as cheap as any one in the city. It does not matter to whom you are instructed for your books by slips given your children, always understand that they can be had at the same rates at my store. Just bring the slips to me and I will fill the order as cheap as you can get them anywhere, and will make you a present besides. Very respectfully,
 JNO. R. EDDINS.
