

RELIGIOUS READING.

A Morning Prayer. In the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee, and will look up.—Ps. v. 3. Father, before I lift my head...

Speaking With the Master. We feeble mortals have the privilege of speaking to our Maker. We utter words here to pour out our desires in the closet, or when walking in the street...

Little Sins. Little sins grow. They are not like spiders or wasps, which we can put our foot on and crush if need be; but like little lions, which seem as harmless as kittens at first...

Three-Score and Ten. From an article written by the late Dr. S. Irenaeus Prime on his seventieth birthday, published in the New York Observer, we take the following: "In looking back, as every thoughtful person reaching such a period in his life must look, I have abundant reason for gratitude and praise. My life has been full of care, labor and sorrow, but over and above all, as sunshine on the troubled sea, I have had blessings many and great."

Two Epitaphs. On a recent trip through Tasmania, writes a correspondent, our traveling party happened to visit the graveyard at Launceston, and among the various epitaphs discovered the following on a slate-stone slab: Beneath this rustic pile of stones Lie the remains of Mary Jones. Her name was Lloyd; it was not Jones; But Jones was put to rhyme with stones.

SIGNIFICANT!

Some of the Last Public Opinions of a Great Man. New York Correspondence Cleveland Leader. One has most excellent opportunity to study "man" as represented by the average New Yorker.

Every intelligent person, with any knowledge of the human system, is well aware that if the kidneys are in good condition all unnecessary material is regularly carried off by them. If not, various acids, such as uric acid, one of the chief causes of rheumatism, are left in excess, creating deposits that cause all sorts of chronic organic diseases.

The above article, which we reproduce because of its general interest, is very significant. The public believes that rheumatism is an effect of diseased blood, this disease being caused by uric acid or kidney poison.

This fact is a scientific demonstration. If doctors do not admit it, it is probably because they do not wish to attract attention to the menaces of the kidneys offered to the general health, since they have no authorized specific for these organs.

Touching at Molokai, we were afforded an excellent opportunity for inspecting the leper colony established there. Many of these unfortunate were found to be in the last stages of the disease. The sight of these poor creatures would serve to excite the curiosity of only the most morbid nature.

That Tired Feeling. Is it general at this season that every one knows what is meant by the expression. A change of season, climate, or of life, has such a depressing effect upon the body that one feels all tired out, almost completely prostrated, the appetite is lost, and there is no ambition to do anything.

Wanted Money for His Pass. "I think," said a railroad man, reflectively, to a Washington correspondent, "the meanest man I ever met in the matter of passes was a member of Congress. All one winter he had bored us for passes upon one pretext and another."

A Bargain in Corner Lots. It is what most men desire, but to keep from filling a grave in a cemetery lot ere half your days are numbered, always keep a supply of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" by you. When the first symptoms of consumption appear lose no time in putting yourself under the treatment of this invaluable medicine.

"November, 1880," wrote Jos. P. Murry of Springfield, Tenn. "My wife suffered eight months with neuralgia and paralysis. By use of St. Jacobs Oil, she was cured. October 14, 1880, he writes: 'My wife recovered entirely.' Price fifty cents.

We mistake the gratuitous blessings of heaven for the fruits of our own industry. Charles Tiel, Philadelphia, Pa. was in a hopeless condition from that trouble and asthma. Red Star Cough Cure cured him. Price twenty-five cents. At druggists.

The farmers, in their swamps, we're sure, Could find the roots and plants that cure; If by their knowledge they are only new For just the disease such men grow.

Chronic Coughs and Colds. And all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, can be cured by the use of Scott's Emulsion, as it contains the healing virtues of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in their full form.
