Four Metters. "Look up and down!"-do you mind how the tree-top Rejoices in sunshine denied to its root? And hear how the lark, gazing skyward, is floading All earth with its song, while the ground-bird is mute.

"Look out and not in!"-see the sap rushing outward In leaf, bud and blossom; all winter it lay mprisoned, while earth wore a white deso-

Intion; Now Nature is glad with the beauty of May.

"Look forward, not back!"-'Tis the chant of creation, The chime of the seasons as onward they rol; 'Tis the pulse of the world, 'Lis the hope of the ages.-This voice of the Lord in the depths of the soul!

In many instances, a sufferer from blocd pol-son hesitates as to which is the best remedy they should use. Theory and logic are not enough, for fluent writers may pen advertising with most seductive wording, but the intelli-gent man wants experimental proof Nothing is so convincing as the words from those who have suffered and found a cure. Read the fol-lowing true and unsolicited testimonials of the wonderful effects of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm):

The Blood of Drinkers

The Blood of Drinkers. The Medical Record, discussing the subject of "Science and Drink," says that Harley has found that, even in the small proportion of five pr cent, alcohol "scarts a powerful chemical effect on blood, so powerful as to entirely derange one of its most important functions—namely, the function of respira-tion. The alcohol scenns to act like an asphyxiant, inasmuch as it not alcone dinnin ishes the power of the red corpuscles to ab-sorb oxygen, but to exhale carbonic acid, and that, too, in the same way though to a somewhat less extent) as morphia dos." It is held that it is because of this chemical effect that the blood of the drinker is imper-factly acidized, unfitted for the purposes of nutrition, and predisposed to the gravest forms of disease.

wonderful effects of B. B. B. (Botanio Blood Balm): MERIDIAN, MISA, July 12, 1887. For a number of years i have suffered untold agong from the effects of blood poison. I had my case treated by several prominent physi-cians, but received but little, if any, relief. I resorted to all sorts of patent medicines, spend-ing a large amount of money, but yet getting ob better. My attention was attracted by the cures said to have been effected by R. B. B. and I commenced taking it merly as an ex-periment, having but little fa th in the results. To my utter surprise I soon commerced to im-prove, and deem myself to-day a well and lites of B. B. B. I cannot commend it too highly to those suffering from blood poison. J. O. Ginson, Trainman, M. & U. R. R.
