A WORKINGMAN'S VIEW OF DEMOCRATIC

(Special Correspondent.) Mr. Editor-There is one thing that strikes me as peculiar in our political canvasses, and that is, that the majority of writers and speakers, never concede an honest motive to their opponents. This peculiarity is strikingly apparent in the present contest. Prejudice and passion take the place of common sense and reason. It is certainly humiliating and absurd, to hear men otherwise sensible and intelligent, giving utterance to sentiments that would disgrace the intelligence of the average school boy. It would be well for such persons if they would stop Politics is business and serious business at that. THE SILVER QUESTION.

(Special Correspondent.)

Mr. Editor: - Whenever and wherever the creditor class has been able it has tampered with the measures of the people's produce-that is, tampered with the currency. For the past twenty years the degradation of silver has been the pet object of time of promise and the time of
