SOUTH CAROLINA LABELS CASE SEES STUBBORN FIGHT

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 28.—Progress of the labels case trials was again marked to-day by the stubborn fight of defendant's attorneys against the introduction of evidence sought to be put up by the State. The first witness who was subjected to a rigid cross-examination, was H. W. Cogswell, of the Charleston printing house of Walker, Evans & Cogswell, who at the request of the legislative investigating committee in 1906 had obtained from the Brandon Printing Company, of Nashville, bids on 21 million labels upon samples which are taken from the lot purchased by the State dispensary board from Nivison-Weiskopf Company of Cincinnati for $35,000 for the 21 million labels.

ANDERSON LAD KILLS FATHER TO PROTECT MOTHER

Special to The Chronicle. ANDERSON, Sept. 28.—Oscar W. Hall, aged 10, a well-to-do white farmer was shot and instantly killed by his son, Walter Hall, aged 18, last night. The elder Hall was in this city yesterday afternoon and returned to his home six miles west of Anderson in a drunken condition. Walter Hall was sick in bed with gastritis and his father tried to force some whiskey down his throat. The boy's mother interfered and she was hit over the head with a broom by her husband. The woman then fled out in the yard and was followed by Oscar Hall who had secured his rifle from a hook on the wall.
