MISS MEADE AND COMPANY DELIGHT TWO FAIR HOUSES

Miss Ada Meade made her second appearance in Charlotte Saturday, matinee and night, in "Madame Sherry." The company appearing here was one of the main companies on the road, and not an imitation such as came out last winter on the heels of this same one. The show was atteded by two fair s red au liences, and was thoroughly appreciatprietors of the Hotel Fredonia on H. ed as a production deserving of a street, northwest, charging non-supliberal amount of praise. "The Quaker Girl."

The chorus girl has long been a much-talked-of and often maligned creature, but seldom does one hear a word, good or ill, about the chorus man. And yet, that he does exist in goodly numbers is evidenced by the fact that in the chorus of "The Quaker Girl," which comes to the Academy of Music next Moday night, there are nerly 20 males voices, and they can sing and dance with all the grace and beauty of the skirted members, too. But there are not very many chorus men of American birth tion for several months. The bulletin and rearing. In fact, the critical choosers of "The Quaker Girl" chorus had to go to England for them.
