TO-DAY'S MARKETS

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 4 to 8 points under heavy general liquidation and Southern selling inspired by lower cables, reports of free spot offerings and a feeling that the cold wave had passed over without any widespread damage. October notices estimated at about sixty thousand bales were issued and that position sold off to 10.95 on the call. At the big discount under December, leading spot interests were heavy buyers of October, which soon became relatively steadier, while the general market continued very nervous and before the end of the first hour broke to a net loss of 7 to 9 points on the active months. Active covering by old shorts some trade buying checked the declin during the morning and the market ral lied to approximately last night' closing but later eased off again unde renewed liquidation and Southern sellin with prices at midday about 4 to

The market became very weak durin the early afternoon on reports of free spot offerings, rumors that the Nation Ginners' Association made the condition 69.1 and continued heavy liquidation Prices sold about 14 to 15 points no lower and on rallies of 5 or 6 point from that level appeared to meet re newed offerings. LAW MAY INVALIDATE AGED WOMAN'S SAVINGS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 .- A government regulation may take the bulk of savings of 80-year-old Mrs. Kate Coombs so much waste paper. For 30 years she has hoarded the monthly $10 voucher she received for her care of machine covers in the bureau of printing and engraving. Today her trunk contains 360 of the warrants, calling for $3,600 from the Treasury. But a Treasury law provided that such vouchers must be cashed within two years of the date of issue.

An investigation of the vouchers will be made and they may be paid out of the "outstanding liabilities funds." Otherwise, the bulk of Mrs. Coombs savings will be worthless.

How Money Grows

THAT regularity in the saving of money, no matter how small the amount, is of the highest importance may be seen by glancing at the accompanying table which indicates how money saved systematically will grow to a substantial amount in the course of years. This bank welcomes savings accounts in any sums of $1.00 or more and pays 4 per cent interest thereon, compounded quarterly. Money deposited regularly in this bank will grow as

Savings at 4 per cent	Amount in 5 years	Amount in 10 years
.50 a week	$ 146.00	$ 324.00
$ 1.00 a week	293.00	630.00
5.00 a month	332.00	736.00
20.00 a month	1,330.00	2,948.00
