THE CHARLOTTE NEWS.

VOLUME III.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 1, 1890.

ADVANCE PATTER OF THE APRIL BARGAIN SHOWERS.

Merry music if you want Dress Stuffs or Robe Patterns; not so merry for the somebody who pays the piper. Never mind, your concern stops with the dollar's worth for fifty or seven-ty-five cents. The clink of coin that inay be saved sounds from almost every counter in the Dress Goods circle. Like this:

36 inches all Wool Stripes 65c.; never sold under 85c.

86 inch all Wool Serge, all colors, 50 cents, worth 65c. 40 inch Marguerite Mohair at 50 cts.,

that you'll pay 621/2c. for anywhere else. Full line of shades. Cashmeres double width in evening shades and street tones at 45 cents. Good Cashmere, nice quality, double width, at 25c., 30c. and 37½c. Full line of Mohairs at 25c. Splendid values and pretty shades. 200 Men's Night Shirts. Three prices: One lot 75c., one $1.00, and the best $1.25. Embroidered all round collar and down front and around pocket and cuffs. White embroidered and colored embroidered.

Curtains, Carpets, Rugs, China North Tryon street. He paid $6,000 Mattings and house Linens are all for it. special features at Seigle's. Every quick-witted buyer knows this already. East window full of Dress es today.

T. L. SEIGLE & CO.

SHAKERS

-IN BULK AND-

KING'S Koyal Germateur,

For both Wholesale and Retail trade

WHOLESALE STORE,

3 and 5 West Trade street.

-Judge Fred Phillips is at the Buford Hotel today.

LOCAL RIPPLES.

-Mrs. A. M. Hill and children, left this afternoon for Greenville, S. C.

-Father Boyle, the ex-priest, has gone to his home in Pennsylvania.

-There was very little of the April fool foolishness in Charlotte today.

-Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Howard and Miss Howard, of Boston, are at the Buford.

-Miss Bleecker Springs and Miss Annie Tate left today to visit friends in Lancaster, S. C.

-Mrs. J. W. Miller will give a o'clock tea next Thursday, complimentary to Mrs. Robt. M. Miller, Jr.

-Rev. John E. McManaway will be ordained to the ministry, at the Tryon street Baptist church tonight

-Dr. Joseph Davidson has bought the Lutheran parsonage property on -An important meeting of the North State Club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock. It will be the quarterly meeting.

-No telegraphic markets were received from Chicago today, on ac- ing. count of the closing of the Board of Trade for an election.

meets at Rhochester, N. Y., on May 18th.

-Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, of Conto visit her daughter, Mr. Dr. E. C. again." Register, who has been quite ill for some days past.

-Mr. Sinclair Blackwelder has ac-Western North Carolina Railroad, at Salisbury. He is an expert machinist and commands a good salary. A Great Spectacular Show,

-They do say that Lewis Morrison makes so terrible a devil that some Charlotte opera house on Thursday by Mr. Fife. It was an affecting of the old-fashioned preachers advise night, will be the last and the great- sight to see these young people, at BURWELL & DUNN, their hearers to go and see him, and est operatic event of the season. the invitation of the pastor, stand get a fore knowledge of what is in Those of our people who want to see around the pulpit, publicly profess store for the unregenerate.

"linemen and the wires," from the is described by the North American solemn and interesting occasion by pen of Mr. W. E. Christian, formerly as follows: "The masterpiece of senic the presence of lovely flowers.

MR. DAVIS DELIGHTED.

How an Advertisement in "The News" Brought Surprising Results-He was Afraid it Wouldn't Work, but it Astonished Him-The Results of a "Test Advertisement" in One Single Paper.

Mr. W. J. Davis, of the Racket Store, was all smiles yesterday. He had arranged for a big sale of sat- reporter applied to weigher Withers teens, but had been so busy Saturday for some figures that would show that he neglected to get the adver- how the receipts this year compared tisement in any paper but THE NEWS. He was afraid that would did not take Mr. Withers five minnot do, but yesterday he couldn't say enough for THE NEWS.

"I never had anything like it," he said to a NEWS reporter. "My ad- April 1, 1889, were 21,188 bales. The vertisement went in THE NEWS in receipts from September, 1889, to this shape: 'On Monday we shall April 1890 amount to 17,330, showing offer our entire line of 8 1-3 cent Sat- a shortage in receipts this season teens at 5 cents per yard. It is an over last of 3,858 bales. unequalled offering, and cannot last tire line.""

"Well, sir," continued Mr. Davis, "I was astonished. That advertise- year's receipts in Charlotte will fall ment did not appear in any among the shortest of all yearly repaper except THE NEWS, yet up ceipts yet on record. There has been to 12 o'clock Monday I had sold 5,000 no complaint whatever against the yards of that satteen, and my store Charlotte market. Indeed there have was crowded with people still buy-a success as an advertising medium, as the market could justify. The -Capt. T. S. Clarkson, the popular and tell the business men that I say same is to be said of all the other C. C. & A. conductor, will attend the so. I never saw anything like it. buyers. Day after day, Charlotte's convention of the O. R. C., which That test advertisement Saturday buyers paid even with New York satisfied me.

"You may be sure that the next special sale I arrange for will be laid cord, arrived at the Central today, before the readers of THE NEWS

This unsolicited testimony of Mr. Davis is a pointer for advertisers. It sustains the claim we have always cepted a position in the shops of the made, that THE NEWS is the best and cheapest daily advertising medium in Charlotte.

The performance of "Faust," at the fruits of the late meeting conducted a magnificent and highly thrilling their faith and be received into the -THE NEWS has received a copy of spectacular show, should not miss it. communion of the church. The singthe Philadelphia Press, and recog- Few opportunities of this kind are ing was led by a full choir and a nizes a two column article on the ever presented to them. One scene touch of beauty was given to the

CHARLOTTE'S COTTON. A Big Shortage Reported to Date, Compared with the Short Receipts of Last Year-A Lot of Cotton Yet Unsold. Yesterday not a single bale of cotton was sold in Charlotte. Today only three bales were brought in by wagon. This is about the winding up of the cotton season, and a NEWS with the receipts of last year. It utes to give the desired information. Turning to his books, he found that the receipts from September 1888 to

There is no doubt of the fact that a long. About 12,000 yards in the en- good deal of cotton is yet held back. but not enough to make up, when it is all in, for the deficiency. This in with been no grounds for complaint. The Alliance buyer has done a big busi-"You can put THE NEWS down as ness and has always given as much quotations. The cotton crop was short, that's all there is about it.

Church Services in Concord.

Last Sunday the congregation of the First Presbyterian church of Concord assembled with feelings of unusual interest and solemnity. It was communion Sunday and, since the last occasion of the kind, fortyeight names had been added to the roll of membership. Thirty-one of these were children of the covenant,

A week has made a great difference in the looks of our BOY'S AND CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT. We might say that our Spring Stock is now complete. Every table and counter is filled with just the prettiest little Suit you ever saw. We are proud of our buying this season. Nobbier,

Handsomer Garments Can't be Found

Anywhere. There is Style and Tone in every garment we show. Some patterns that we show are exclusive. We intend to do just what we say in our advertisement last week—sellthis season at lower prices. We star

Suits at One Dollar.

WE SHOW A LINE OF SAILOR BLOUSE SUITS, BLUE AND GRAY FLANNELS at $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50. WE SHOW A LINE OF SUITS ALL WOOL, AT $8.00.

They are in plain colors, Plaids, Checks and Stripes. We know that you can't find their match in any house in the city for less than $4.00 or $4.50. Besides we have an elegant assortment of finer grade Suits. We can give you the best as well as the cheapest. Particular attention is called to our line of

LATEST NOVELTIES! LOVELY PATTERNS! AT PRICES FROM $2.50 UP.

We carry the most complete line of Anything you look for in the way of CLOTHING you can find in our house. Come and see what we have in general and get our prices. We have clever salesmen and we promise that they'll treat you right, whether you buy or not.

LEADING CLOTHIERS, GENT'S FURNISHERS AND HATTERS

· CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Come to us for your Easter Goods. We have a nice present for every one that buys from us.

RETAIL STORE,

Opposite Central Hotel. WATCHES CLOCKS

-AND-

JEWELRY Selling Out AT AND BELOW COST. The New Stamps.

As I wish to close my business in the next two or three months I offer

EVERYTHING GOE8 AT

J. T. BUTLERS.

FOR ANYTHING YOU NEED IN THE LINE OF

Boots Shoes

OUR STOCK IS

Fresh, Desirable, Stylish

AND DURABLE.

Goods and prices will please A full line of Trunks, Valises and Club Bags.

Orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

A. E. Rankin & Bro., 6 W. Trade Street.

age.

of the Charlotte Democrat. . We are doing well in his new position. -A colored woman named Delia French, was arraigned before the mayor this morning on charge of stealing clothes from another colored woman named Julia Ferrebee. She was sent to jail in default of bond for her appearance for trial before Judge Meares.

-Lewis Morrison introduces a novel idea in his spectacular production of "Faust." During the garden scene, Mr. Morrison, as Mephistopheles, makes flowers bloom where Headstones for the N. C. Soldiers. all was barren ground. With a wave of the hand he causes the flowers to the appeal of the ladies of Freder- composed. open, disclosing miniature varie- icksburg for headstones to mark the gated incandescent electric lights. graves of the North Carolina soldiers A Big Deal in Burned Cotton. It is a most novel as well a beautiful effect.

The new postage stamps were put on sale at the Charlotte postoffice this morning by postmaster Brady. Alderman Buchanan was the first one to buy them, and Mrs. S. C. White was the second. The new GREAT BARGAINS. stamps are smaller than the old ones and are about the color of the "old red clay hearths."

Police Business in March.

in Charlotte, principally for fights, go, Tenn., for some years past, died bold is all, and some of it will be drunkenness, and thefts. The fines there yesterday. A telegram receiv- stor days a town and drawn on as imposed by the mayor footed up ed this morning, says that the body needed. $301, and there wasn't any circus in of the child will arrive here on the town during that month, either. Our city appears to be growing in and will be escorted from the depot wickedness. In March, 1888, the mayor's court fines were $111.50; in March, 1889, $140.25, and in March, 1890, $301.80.

The Associate Reformed Church.

cost $5,000. It will have two front Osborne succeeds Mr. Erwin as depentrances and a tower on the corner uty clerk.

of Third and Tryon streets. THE The March Weather.

Mr. Erwin Resigns.

Pegram.

The report of Sergeant Bronson, of NEWS reporter got a glance at the sketch of the architect today, and if the signal station in this city, shows that during the month of March, the the plans are carried out it will be one of the handsomest churches in hottest day was on the 28th, when Machinists Wanted. the mercury registered 76 degrees. The coldest day was the 16th, when the temperature dropped to 19 de-grees. The mean temperature of the month was 49.5 degrees. The total rainfall was 3.08 inches. the country. The main building will the mercury registered 76 degrees. be 50x80 feet. Space will be left on The coldest day was the 16th, when the lot for the erection of a parson- the temperature dropped to 19 der the best Norfolk Oysters go to rainfall was 3,08 inches.

5:40 train from Atlanta this evening, effect is the summit of the Brocken, The household meeting in the glad to know that Mr. Christian is where the demons hold revel on Wal- ternoon was a Bible reading for the purgis night. Electric sparks and children to which all old enough to flash-fire, with the imps and goblins read brought testaments. Two inand a terrifying rain of fire, heighten fauts were baptised at this meeting.

> to is strong, and he portrays the After a short talk by Rev. Mr. fiendish joy, malignity and despair Payne on the duty of singing praises, of the demon with spirit and power. old tunes and hymns were announced Miss Rosabel Morrison's Marguerite and the congregation praised is a careful and conscientious piece God with heart and voice, the harp of work, and Miss Carry Carter does and the organ. The singing was rena pretty bit of comedy as Martha." | dered doubly delightful by an account from the pastor of the writers of these old hymns and of the cir-THE NEWS has called attention to cumstances under which they were buried there. It today received the There is more burned cotton in following liberal proposition from I. Charlotte today than was ever known W. Durham & Co., of Charlotte. That here before. It was not burned here firm writes: "We have read the ap- but is a lot that came out of a cotton peals in your paper for headstones mill fire in Georgia. It was bought for the graves of the North Carolina at auction by Messrs. Sanders and headstones and furnish as many lot, and the railroad is now deliverothers as is wanted at net cost." Death of a Child of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. building and baled in three grades

Bahor for April.

The picking of this immense lot of The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. S. cotton will give employment to a cording to the report of chief of S. Pegram, formerly of this city, but  $1 \le g \le n$ , for of hands. The big police Griffith, there were 61 arrests who have been living in Chattanoo-  $f \le s'$  ory vare soon cannot begin to Pruf. J. C. Baker, the weather proto Elmwood cemetery for interment. phot, sends his table of weather for April to THE NEWS as follows: 1, little rain; 2, rain and cool; 3-4, fair Mr. Will R. Erwin, who has for a and frost; 5-6, nearly fair and mild; long time acted as deputy clerk of 7, cloudy and wind; 8, partly cloudy the Superior court, today tendered and mild;, 9-10, nearly fair and cold Architect Leary is engaged in his resignation of that office to clerk wind; 11, cloudy and mild; 12, fair drawing plans for the Associate Re- Morrow. It is rumored, but we do and mild; 18, rain and cold; 14, fair formed church building to be erected not know how true it is, that Mr. and mild; 15, warm; 16, nearly fair on the lot now occupied by the Sam Erwin will probably be a candidate and cold wind; 17-18, fair, frost; 19, Jones tabernacle. The building will for the clerk's office. Mr. L. Frank nearly fair and cool; 20, fair and cold; 21, nearly fair and mild; 22-24, cloudy and warm; 25, nearly fair and warmer; 26-27, fair and warm; 28, local rains, thunder and wind; 20, partly cloudy and warm; 30, local rains.

April 1-1w

and a terrifying rain of fire, heighten the weirdness of a really magnificent scene of the Brocken. Mr. Lewis Morrison's impersonation of Mephis-song and praise. Mr toga and Flat Top Full Dress Trunks, are the nicest in the market, and will be appreciated by every lady. Gents Sole Leather Trunks and the full Leather Covered, are the best made, and are strong enough to trava around the world in safety. Full line of Sample Cases, and a'l kinds of Valises and Club Bags. It will pay you to see us when needing such things. We have just received a lare lot of fine Lamb's Wool Bound Slip-per Soles. These are the finest goods we have ever had. Price, all size to have needed out a strong stock of Shoe 25 cents; by mail 4c. extra. We have received our spring stock of Shoe and Slippers, which comprise the handsomest styles, the best makes an lowest prices we have ever shown.

GILREATH & CO., (Sue. to Pegram & Co.) 16 S. Tryon Street. Open evenings till 8:30; Saturday till 11:00.

for the graves of the North Carolina soldiers buried at Fredericksburg. Va. It is a shame that this has been neglected so long. We will give 10 Network the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect the purpose of oiling and at the same time dressing leather. It is abect and the output of the dresses or skirt lot, and the railroad is now deliver-ing it here. It will be picked over in the three large floors of Mr. Sanders' and finding it unsatisfactory. and finding it unsatisfactory.

Bixby's Royal Polish.

Warranted to restore the color and gloss to all black leather goods. Price 10 cents per bottle, put up in nice single cartons. This is a very popula Polish, and certainly there is none better for the money. It is largely sol all over the United States.

Jacquot's French Blacking 5c. AND 10c. PER BOX.

Full line of Shoe Brushes, Royal Daubers and Polishers. We shall h some elegant Shoes to show you before Easter. Be sure and see the Send your children in and get an Easter Card.

> GRAY & BARNHARD Successors to Gray

WANAMAKER.

In the Philadelphia Times of 31st ultimore, says:

19 East Trade Street

H. Baruch.

"Merry music if you want Dress Stuffs or Robe Patterns; not so merry for the somebody who pays the piper. Never mind, your concern stops with the dollar's worth for fifty or seventy-five cents. The clink of coin that may be saved sounds from almost every counter in the Dress Goods circle. Like this: "36 inch all Wool Stripes 37%, never sold under 50c. "40 inch French Serges 50c, never sold under 65c."

You need not send off for goods. Why should you, when you, me at the same prices. There are equally as good bargains to other departments of my store. Wanamaker is a model not invariably copy his prices, but never his advertisements.

