They fish with fishlines six miles long in Winnebago Lake, and use 20,000 hooks on every line. If they don't haul up 2,000 fish every time they lift a line they don't think they are having very good luck. And every fish will weigh from twenty to seventy pounds. That's the way they fish for sturgeon out there. One of these fishlines will reach half way across the lake. It is a rope an inch in diameter. It is stretched out into the lake by means of boats, large buoys being attached to it at intervals to keep it on the surface. The 20,000 hooks, baited with pieces of meat or fish, all lower to the bottom of the lake by snoods of the proper length which are fastened to the main line. It takes twenty boats, with two men in each, to look after this big fishline. Each boat has 1,000 of the snoods in its charge. These are tied to the main line 18 inches apart, and to bait all the hooks once requires not less than 1,000 pounds of bait. It takes the forty men and twenty boats ten hours to set the line for the first time. After that the fishermen are employed in going over the line, hauling in the sturgeon that have been caught on the hooks and rebaiting where it is necessary.

The indications are that Mr. Brower, of Mount Airy, who now poses in Congress as the Representative of the Fifth District, will have a very rough row of stumps to travel to secure a re-nomination. The Wilmington Star says that he hasn't panned out with any of the numerous promises he made in the late canvass, and the way he has divided out the patronage of which he has had the distribution has riled many of the faithful, especially the colored contingent which stood by him so unanimously at the last election. They are kicking against the way he has ignored their claims and are now talking seriously of putting up a colored man to run against him if he should be nominated. There are several Democratic candidates mentioned, any one of whom ought to be able to shake the very boots off of him.

Senator Ingalls says that Harrison will be a candidate for re-nomination. The State Chronicle remarks: The Democrats ask nothing better than that the Republicans should re-nominate the present occupant of the White House. He has made less impression upon the public and done less to win the people than any man who has been President since his grandfather, who died shortly after his inauguration. The sentiment of the country is that he is the smallest man who has been elected to Chief Magistracy in the history of the republic. In every local election held in Indiana since Dudley bought the Presidential election the Democrats have made gains. This rebuke at home, as well as in Ohio and Iowa, looks ominous for the fulfillment of Mr. Ingalls' prediction.

Petitions and protests in respect of the tariff are beginning to make their appearance in the Senate. Senator Manderson presented protests from the farmers of Dodge and Pierce counties, Neb., and Carroll county, Iowa, against any material reduction on sugar, and their petition for the encouragement of and promotion of the beet sugar industry. He also presented a protest from the cigar makers of Plattsmouth, Neb., against the adoption of the tobacco schedule in the House bill. They suggest a duty of fifty cents a pound on all tobacco imported, whether wrappers or fillers, and $5 a thousand on cigars. They also protest against the display of an import stamp on all cigars made in foreign countries and sold in the United States.

Out at Memphis they are taking hold heroically of the task of cleaning the city. The board of health have ordered the destruction of ninety-five cookeries in different parts of the city, and the thorough fumigation of a hundred or so others. This thorough work, with equally thorough methods of street and alley cleaning, is expected to make Memphis fever-proof this summer.

Will the next Pope be an out-and-out Liberal? That is the conclusion which we draw from Mr. Stead's interview with Cardinal Saeochi, who stands an excellent chance for election after Leo thirteenth. The Cardinal told Mr. Stead that his watchword was "Liberty as in London-Liberty as in New York."

Miss Mildred Lee, daughter of the late Gen. Robert E. Lee, is at Wormley's to spend a few weeks in Washington, as is her annual custom.

The Washington Post says that she is a great favorite in social circles, and her time is almost entirely taken up by the numerous demands made upon it in every direction.

The House Committee on Printing has authorized a favorable report on a resolution to print 10,000 copies of a compilation of the inaugural addresses of the Presidents of the United States from George Washington to Benjamin Harrison inclusive for the first century of Presidential inaugurations, with authenticated illustrations connected therewith, biographical sketches of the Presidents from official sources, together with steel plate portraits of the Presidents and steel plate illustrations of the Capitol and White House; also, on a resolution providing for the printing of 10,000 additional copies of the volume known as the "Growth of Industrial Art," with some additions.

The Senate and House Committees on the Silver bill have come to an agreement—the basis being the Witcomb bill, as it comes from the House Committee on Coinage.
