Mortuary Report. In view of the fact that the grip prevailed in Charlotte with great severity during January...

The report of cemetery keeper Moses Thomas, shows that the number of interments during the month, in Elmwood cemetery was 10, two of this number being from the county...

The interments in Pinewood cemetery numbered 14, four male adults, three female adults and seven children...

The county record, though, was far different. There were more deaths throughout Mecklenburg during the month just past than for any one month in years...

Local Deaths. -Rev. Sam Jones passed through Charlotte on this morning's port-bound train. -Esquire W. W. Boyd was able to be out today for the first time in six weeks...

-Mrs. Tate, Miss Tate and Mr. Weaver returned today from Mt. Island where they were the guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan.

-Mr. J. N. Atkinson and Mr. M. M. Murphy have rented the store room now occupied by "Walker, the candy man," and will open up a big stock of drugs on February 15th.

-The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session this afternoon. The board was in session at the time THE NEWS went to press, but had transacted no business of any public interest.

-The Board of Regents of the Presbyterian Orphans Home, will meet in this city to-morrow to receive the report of Col. John L. Brown and Dr. Rumble on the plans for the new orphanage.

-A negro named Bob Grimes, who is suspected of burning the barn of Mr. J. H. Barnett at Pineville, a few days ago, was brought to Charlotte Saturday evening and lodged in jail under a bond of $200, to await trial in the Criminal Court.

-Mr. Joseph P. Caldwell took charge of the Chronicle this morning. In conversation with a NEWS reporter to-day, he stated that the present arrangement of his staff will be Miss Addie Williams and Mr. J. F. Newell, reporters.

-The lower compress is gradually reducing the stock of cotton on the city platform, but there is still a great amount of cotton on hand yet.

The wagon receipts to-day were 50 bales. The quotations were a little off, seven cents being about the best price reached.
