THE TWIN BARGAINS.

Better value than ever and under this stimulus the trade is booming up; all over the State and especially in the big bargains in Towels and Hamburgs being picked up. Trust the Charlotte people to catch on to these bargains. When we say that we have a special drive the public knows that we have it. We never say what is not the exact truth. These bargains are in the West window and the bargain Hamburgs in the East window. This bargain is attracting attention all over the State. Orders from distant towns are coming in. They have the same shipping advantages as you right here in the city. These towels are pure linen.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

A new feature is today added to the service of this paper—the Associated Press telegraphic dispatches. It adds considerably to the weekly expense to this office, but we believe it will be an investment which our readers will appreciate. Some may not know the importance of this step, and will understand it better when they realize that this service insures them the same news that is given daily in the evening papers of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

This service, added to the local and general news features of this paper, will bring it more nearly into the line of the demands of Charlotte than it has yet been. It places it on an equal footing with the metropolitan evening papers, and Charlotte has never before had anything of that kind. It is quite a venture for this paper to undertake, but if our subscribers will only keep even receipts, we have no fear for the results. The subscription price of this paper will remain the same, and incidentally, terms the same, that is, cash in advance.

Local Happenings.

The cold wave flag was displayed this afternoon.

—Robert Downing has a date for the Charlotte Opera House on March 25th.

—Cranfall, Clark and Hank's minstrels will appear at the opera house next Saturday night.

—Mr. D. F. Cannon, a prominent merchant of Concord, spent the day at Mr. J. W. Wadsworth's.

—Editor J. J. Farries, of the High Point Enterprise, came down to see if the bar rooms were really closed.

—Work was begun this morning on the third cotton factory at Gastonia. That enterprising town is forging ahead as a manufacturing centre.

—Rev. Jesse H. Page, pastor of the Stateville Methodist church, was in the city, to meet his wife, who arrived on the Carolina Central railroad from Richmond county.

—Mr. J. W. Cobb, register of deeds was at his office today, for the first time, in three months. Mr. Cobb has had a severe attack of sickness and his shadow is very much thinner than when it last darkened the door of the register's office.

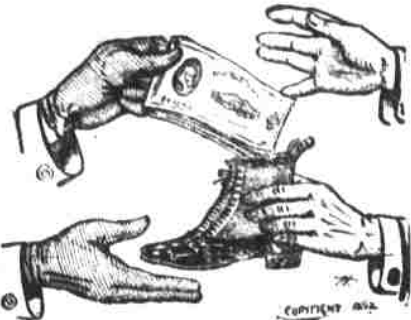

—The steam laundry starts out today under a new management. Mr. D. M. Rigler has entered upon the management of the laundry with his usual energetic way. He goes in for business, and we know he will get it.

—Daniel Wilkins and Jacob Lagrelle, colored, who have been in jail under sentence by the United States court for a violation of the revenue laws, today appeared before United States commissioner Maxwell, took the oath prescribed for poor convicts, and were released.

—John Wilson expects to have another meeting at the court house tomorrow night. Dr. McAden and the balance of the boys are expected to chip in when the hat is passed around. It is only fair that John should be paid for his fun. Lots of fellows have paid a dollar for a heap worse show at the opera house.

He exhibited a photograph of the monument showing it to be of most handsome design and also a specimen of the marble which is of a beautifully veined variety and susceptible of the highest polish.

This monument will be erected in the court house square, on a base of Cabarrus county granite and will be nearly twenty feet in height. Mr. Willeford has not yet succeeded in securing the whole sum necessary for the purchase of the monument and incidental expense and the ladies of the association, ever willing to do their part in this patriotic work, will shortly give an entertainment that will be worth going to see and hear, a concert of Confederate war songs, and tableaux of soldier life and camp scenes. Meanwhile contributions to the monument fund will be gratefully received and acknowledged by Mr. Willeford. The ceremony of unveiling the monument will take place on the tenth day of next May in connection with the memorial services distinguished sons of North Carolina will be invited to be present as speakers. It will be a big day for Concord.

Death of Mrs. Caroline Wilson.

Mrs. Caroline Wilson died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence of her grand son Mr. Willis Wilkinson on B street. Mrs. Wilson has for the past two or three years been a great sufferer and during this period has been confined almost all the time to her bed. Mrs. Wilson was a member of Tryon Street Baptist Church at which church the funeral services were held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. A. G. McManaway conducting the services. The deceased was in her eightieth year, and her long season of suffering was borne with that Christian fortitude and submission that has been a characteristic of her long and useful life. Her body was entered in Elmwood cemetery at half past 4 o'clock.

A Big Deal.

A big deal was made, to-day, between the Kerr Bag Manufacturing Co., of Concord, and the Morgan, Hamilton Co., large manufacturers of Nashville, Tenn. By the deal, the U. S. patent rights for the use of the Kerr bag machines are conveyed to the Nashville Company. This will not effect the manufacturing importance of the Odell Mills, as the capacity of the mills, in other lines, will be increased.

IN CONGRESS TO-DAY.

PROCEEDINGS IN TWO HOUSES.

Speaker Crisp Not Present on Account of Sickness. Election of President and Congressmen by the People.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Senate.—The attendance of senators at the opening of to-day's session was more numerous than usual. Senators Hill, Bruce and Cullum, however, were not in their seats.

Among the petitions presented and referred, was one for the continuance of the fast mail service between New York and Tampa.

Mr. Manderson from the Committee on Military Affairs reported back adversely, four bills for the increase of the infantry and artillery branches of the army, and reported in lieu of them, a bill to reorganise the artillery and the infantry of the army and to increase their efficiency which was placed on the calendar.

A bill appropriating $15,000,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi river, from the passes to the mouth of the Illinois river was reported and was placed on the calendar.

A concurrent resolution instructing the Senate committee on Immigration and the House committee on Immigration to investigate the recent admission into the port of New York of Russian immigrants infected with typhus fever, was introduced by Mr. Chandler and passed after remarks by him, condemning the course of the commissioner of immigration in permitting these immigrants to land in contravention of law.

The House, which today enters upon the 11th week of its labors, was called to order by Clerk Kerr, who read a communication from the Speaker designating Mr. McMillen, as Speaker pro tem. Speaker Crisp's absence in obedience to his physician's advice. He suffered from a severe headache yesterday, and thought it advisable to remain in his hotel today. There is nothing serious in his indisposition and he hopes to be able to wield the gavel tomorrow.

This being suspension Monday, Hatch, of Missouri, from the Committee on Agriculture moved to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution requesting that the Committee to report the effect upon agriculture of the present tariff law.

Bryan, of Indiana, demanded a second and on the request of Hatch that the second be considered as ordered, was objected to by Kilgore of Texas. Kilgore and Hatch were appointed tellers and represented the vote as 122 2. The Republicans did not vote but no one raised the point of "no quorum." Kilgore was recognized to oppose the resolution, but declined to avail himself of the recognition, stating that he was not opposed to it although he believed that it was originally offered as a piece of buncombe. Fustun of Kansas however raised his voice in opposition. He said if he believed that there could be a fair and impartial investigation of the effect of the present tariff law on agricultural interests, he would be in favor of it, but it could hardly be expected however that an investigation of this character could be made without being made upon a party basis. The resolution was adopted.

The committee on Election of President and Vice President and Representatives in Congress to-day agreed to report the bill leaving the election of senators to the people and conferring the exclusive power on State legislatures to fix time, place, and manner of holding such elections.

Forged Notes Again.

Some rather unpleasant developments have been made in the case of Mr. J. B. Bridgers, the Shelby merchant who failed last week. It was discovered last Saturday that he had forged notes to a considerable amount. Mr. Bridgers has shipped.

Dr. Miller's Successor.

A meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church of this city, will be held next Sunday, to consider the matter of a successor to the late Dr. A. W. Miller. Dr. Girardeau, of Columbia, will officiate. The call will probably be extended to a brilliant young young man, now stationed in the eastern part of the State.

A Big Police Court.

Mayor Brevard had a two hours sitting in the police court this morning. Six parties were arraigned for plain drunks, and several fights, but whiskey was at the bottom of it all. The total amount of fines was $50. A few more days like Sunday, and the graded school problem will be a problem no longer.

To be Married in Washington.

Mr. Thomas Holton Sprinkle, son of Capt. Wm. Sprinkle, and a young man well known and popular in Charlotte, is to be married in Washington City, on Tuesday evening, March 1, to Miss Lola McNeir. The ceremony will be performed in Mt. Vernon Methodist church, and a reception will be held at the home of Mr. William McNeir, 1329 Q street.

Sentences Passed.

In the Criminal court this morning, Judge Meyers passed sentences as follows:

John Wilson, manslaughter, 14 years in the penitentiary.
John Hart, for attempt at assault, five years in the chain gang.
Jas. Orr, larceny, 2 years in the chain gang.
Jim Byers larceny 5 years on the chain gang.
Will Hoke, larceny, 12 months on the chain gang.

The Effect Upon the Colored People.

Between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday night the display of Northern Lights in the skies in that direction was the cause of alarm among the "Creme de la creme," who usually turn out in large numbers on East Trade street to make Sunday purchases and exchange compliments with "the other sex." Before the county commissioners had sealed up the schools, a large traffic was done on that night in that vicinity in the "old stuff," but since the flat has gone forth, the scene there is dull and devoid of interest save here and there, the effects as shown on some who had found the "Tiger" elsewhere.

The well known superstition of the race, and the many "bright lights" in it, who are always ready to dilate upon mysteries about which know nothing, aggravated the destructive looking picture as it appeared in the northern skies to the one who had just been enlightened about the possibility of Gabriel tooting his trumpet. The suggestion that the end was here, that all accounts were to be squared, and that the world was to be licked up by the flame of finally promised as the successor of the flood which made Noah's ark notorious, bore fruit in the scamper of the more credulous to their homes, that they might be in the bosom of the family when the end came. About 9 o'clock more sensible explanations were being made relieving the alarming and putting at rest the possibility of an immediate foreclosure of worldly affairs.
