A GOOD DEAL OF SHOOLING is going on just now, and we happen to be in it. Our $2 shoe keeps all its old friends. For every penny expended in its purchase, a trifle more than a penny's worth of wear is certain to be obtained. Nothing that was ever bought, sold or exchanged, ever did a handsomer thing by the purchaser than this shoe does. Never was a larger value given for a smaller price. It is a perfect phenomenon of durability, it's just the thing for those who believe in having comfortable feet, and it is exactly what economical buyers are looking for.

A large stock Hats and Umbrellas, Trunks, Valises and Handbags always on hand.

Concord Notes.
A lecture on Africa was delivered at South Seminary in Concord, last night, by Mrs. Isabelle Nassan, lady who has been for twenty-five years at the Gaboon mission, on the west coast of Africa. The object of the lecture was to obtain recruits for missionary work in Africa among the pupils of South, and was very interesting. The people among whom Mrs. Nassan labored have no written language, no religion but all manner of superstitions. Faith Hall, the room in which the lecture was delivered, is quite spacious, beautifully finished in native wood and has thirteen handsome stained glass memorial windows. During the last session South numbered 280 boarders.

The funeral services of the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Loreh, native of Wurtemberg, Germany and now living in Concord, were held at that place on yesterday evening. Mrs. Loreh, not being able to speak English, a service in the German language was conducted at the residence by Rev. N. I. Bakke, of the colored Lutheran church. Mr. and Mrs. Bakke, who are Norwegians, sang a hymn in German. The service in English was held at St. James' church by Rev. W. G. Campbell.

The Railroad's Belt Line.

The Atlanta Constitution says the Georgia, Carolina and Northern's belt line will open up some of the most valuable property around Atlanta. The road will follow Peach tree creek, and it is predicted that many factories will be located along the line.

Captain Winder, the Georgia, Carolina and Northern's superintendent said yesterday that the company hopes to have the belt line completed and be running trains into the union depot within five months. His company was willing to pay the Georgia road a good rental for the use of its tracks or right of way. The belt line will be a great convenience for transferring through freight.

Nearly all of the right of way has been obtained, and on good terms the owners of the land, realizing that the road will enhance the value of their property.

They Like to get the News.

If one would have paid strict attention to the office of the Western Union to-day, he might have gotten a faint conception of how many interested people there are in Charlotte concerning the outcome of the Chicago convention. From the time the first bulletin was filed on the bulletin board, anxious enquiries and lookers on, have waited to catch every spark of news, and some in their eagerness to get all, look as if they would like to get over the iron railing and grasp the instrument.

Manager Thompson has been exceedingly kind to the public, and has had efficient men who get all of the news that is going on.

Blowing Rock.

Charlotte people who go to Blowing Rock this season will be surrounded with comforts heretofore unknown in that region. Last season the hotel accommodations were very limited only three hotels and neither of the three had many rooms and the consequence was that it was a jam from the beginning of the season until the close. This year none of this worry will be experienced. All three of the hotels have been remodeled and the accommodations, it is claimed by the managers of the hostilities will be all that is wanted. Blowing Rock is a drawing card with Charlotte people and many will this year be there from Charlotte.

A Permanent Organization. The Convention. Addressed by Mr. Wilson. Chicago, June 22.—The day opened bright in Chicago, and at 11 o'clock the Democratic wigwag was filled with overflowing with enthusiastic Democrats. Soon after the arrival of delegates, it was whispered around that the Cleveland men, claimed and felt confident of 620 votes for their favorite on the first ballot, and will push for a ballot to-day leaving the selection of Vice President for tomorrow.

It is said that Stevenson, of Illinois, will more than likely be chosen for second place, instead of Gray. A Chicago morning paper said this morning that a combination has been formed to beat Cleveland and claims that it has more than a third of the delegates in favor of it. Several names have been mentioned on whom the combination may be effected.

It is said that an effort will be made to abrogate the State limit rule in the convention to-day. The Chicago Tribune says that the platform will demand the coinage of a gold and silver dollar of equal value and reciprocity will be denounced as a deceit and fraud.

It is said that the anti-Cleveland men will make a big fight on the question of abrogating the unit rule in order to prevent a ballot from being reached to-day. When Gov. Roswell P. Flower, of New York, entered the wigwag, the delegates arose and cheer after cheer, greeted him.

A motion was carried to appoint a committee of two to wait on the committee on credentials to find out when they would be ready to report. At this juncture some one in the vast audience arose and yelled out "Mills' Mills" and in a few seconds delegates were on their feet loudly calling for the Texas Senator. Mills had been compelled to leave the hall and go to the hotel. Loud calls for Palmer of Illinois. A motion was carried to ask Mr. Palmer to address the convention. Mr. Palmer consented and took the platform. He appealed for harmony in the party as absolutely necessary to success. Mr. Palmer said the Democrats had good men to select from. Loud cries for Hall, with huzzing. Mr. Palmer predicts that the Democrats will win both on Presidential and State ticket. When Mr. Palmer had finished the delegates began cheering for Mr. Fellows, of New York, and asked that the convention invite him to address them. Mr. Fellows, rising at his seat, said he was a delegate and that the time had not arrived when it would be proper for him to address the convention. The report of the committee on credentials was unanimously adopted, and the committee on permanent organization was called for. Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia, was chosen permanent chairman.

At 12:30 a heavy rain storm came up and during its progress the bands played, as it was so dark in the hall no one could see anything.

When the band began playing "Dixie" the cheers of the delegates drowned the noise of the heavy rain-fall and hats and canes were tossed in the air.

A committee of five were appointed to notify Mr. Wilson of his selection as permanent chairman. The report of the committee on permanent organization was adopted at 12:11.

Chairman Wilson took the platform, amid the cheering of the galleries and delegates. Among other things, Mr. Wilson said as much as we owe to our party we owe more to our country. Democrats should see that legislation is not in the interest of any section but for the whole people. Mr. Wilson denounced the force and tariff bills soon to be introduced by the Republicans. Mr. Wilson was esteemed to with great attention and was frequently cheered.

The first of States was ordered for the naming of members of the national committee and notification committee. It was concluded not to call the roll of States but that the States be requested to send names to the secretary. Carlisle was asked to address the convention but was not in the hall.

Gov. Campbell was then asked to address the convention. Gov. "Bob" Taylor, of Tennessee, was invited to address the convention, but said he did not feel well enough to respond. Watterson was then invited but was not in the hall. At this point Burke Cochrane rose to a point of order, and said it was impossible to hear the proceedings of the convention on account of the sides being filled with people. The chairman asked that all delegates be seated. Loud calls for Voorhees and Vilas but neither responded. Burke Cochrane was next called on but declined to take the platform saying that he expected to have business with it later on. At 11:44 the convention took a recess until 5 o'clock.

W. G. Oakman Appointed Receiver.

Special to The News.
NEW YORK, June 22.—Judge Brown this morning, appointed W. G. Oakman, receiver of the Richmond Terminal.

The Excursion Tomorrow.

The excursion tomorrow, run by the Queen City Guards, bids fair to be a success. The train will consist of four passenger coaches and a baggage car. Conveyances will meet the train at Shelby and will take the crowd to the springs. All who can get off should go and help the boys out.

The Mott and Eaves Row Continues.

There is another row between the Mott and Eaves factions of the Republican party, due, it is stated to-day, to the election of Henry D. Cowles as a member of the National Executive Committee. Cowles is an antagonist of Dr. Mott, the leader of the anti-administration forces, and the latter claims that the official holders elected Cowles just as they nominated Harrison.

Last Night at the Park.

Considering the inclement weather a large crowd turned out to the entertainment at the park last night. About the time for the pedestrians to go forth, a dark and angry cloud came up and rain began to fall. The pavilion was brilliantly lighted and all the varied amusements for the entertainment of the crowd were in tip-top shape. The lake was a favorite resort and many delighted themselves by rowing. These evening entertainments bid fair to become exceedingly popular.

Rain and Cyclone.

A regular cyclone is reported as having passed through the border counties of North Carolina, near the Virginia line. Trees were stripped of their branches and the ground covered with leaves. In the tobacco section the hail was almost as large as that reported as fallen at Chicago yesterday. The damage to the growing crops will be great but cannot as yet be estimated. Heavy rains followed the cyclone and the rivers are overflowing their banks.
