A GOLD-BRICK SCHEME.

It is plainly evident to anyone whose vision is clear enough to see through the veriest gold brick swindling scheme that there will be no revision of the present trust-fostering, monopoly-sheltering tariff if the Republican party controls the next House of Representatives. Although the sensible farmers of Iowa have said, "We favor any modification of the tariff schedules as will prevent their affording shelter to monopoly," and although Secretary Root has admitted that the only way to reach the trusts is by revising the tariff, yes, and notwithstanding the fact that the Chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee himself has said with much unctious, "Shall we continue a tariff on articles which are, in fact, articles of export? If Congress maintains a tariff on such articles it simply inures to the benefit of those who may secure control of any such commodity, since by its aid they can fix exorbitant prices in the domestic market. How can such a policy be defended?"—despite all this the straight laced party organs are coming out and saying that there is no demand for tariff revision and that there will be none. The New York Press for instance, a paper which is supposed to reflect the sentiments of the administration says that the American people are perfectly satisfied with the present tariff. Perhaps the administration has forgotten Mr. Babcock's assertion that if the tyrannical rule of the House were relaxed it would be passed by a majority of three to one. But their saying so does not make it so. The people who are paying higher prices for American made goods than the foreigners have to pay, the people who are being robbed by the trusts which are sheltered behind the exorbitant prices those in control of the domestic markets see fit to fix, they will insist that the tariff must be revised and the administration does them a service in being frank enough to admit that they do not propose doing such a thing. These people will be heard from in November and in such a way that even a Republican Senate will not dare to thwart the purposes of the Democratic House they will elect.

BABCOCK AS A GYMNAST.

It is not strange that in order to avoid the issues of the present this Republican Campaign Text Book should deal so largely in fiction and attempt to disturb the ghosts of dead and buried controversies, says the Philadelphia Record. Some allowance must be made at the same time for Chairman Babcock's peculiar position. As the responsible author of a bill in Congress to curb the evil power of the trusts by reduction or repeal of the protective duties by which these combinations despoil the American people he could not in decency defend the tariff which has imposed these duties. Yet he is guilty at the same time of admitting into his Campaign Text Book a plea in regard to trusts in Free Trade England of which his own bill against the trusts is a denial and refutation. The dexterity of straddling politicians is sometimes equal to their embarrassments, but no political gymnastics will enable Chairman Babcock to evade the issues of this campaign.

THE TOWNS THAT GROW.

Says the Shelby Aurora: "Greensboro, Charlotte, Salisbury and Asheville, are growing rapidly. The advertisements of their merchants tell the tale. When merchants do not hustle for business then it is plain that the town is quiet. Go where you please and you will find it so. One good live aggressive merchant is worth his weight in gold to the town he lives in, and he usually prospers."

The New York newspapers have gone to the nauseous extreme. Mrs. Patrick Campbell has made another visit to this country and this time the yellow journals have interviewed Mrs. Campbell's poodle dog. That interview was about as intelligent however as some of the interviews with prominent persons that the New York yellows print.

ROOSEVELT AS A MIND-READER.

President Roosevelt's powers of perception are remarkable. As a president, soldier, rough rider, ranch and lawyer, he has missed his calling altogether; he should have been a seer, a mind-reader and prophet. His performance of second sight or mind-reading Saturday at Plainfield, N. J., was little short of marvelous and on that act alone he could ensure sufficient advertising to pack to standing room every house on three theatrical circuits. As the train sped away from the crowds at Plainfield, the press dispatches tell us, in the midst of the President's remarks, he shouted—"The engineer has spared you."—probably just what nineteenth of the minds in that crowd were thinking at that moment. The President is indeed endowed with wonderful power.

The Chanler baby has been christened, the President acting the godfather-ship role with becoming dignity and grace and thus has another great event been rolled into history's pages. It required a half column of space in the telling and it will not be long before we shall read that "Theodore Roosevelt Chanler, the baby named for the President, and at whose christening the Chief Executive officiated as god-father, has cut his first tooth and etc., etc." ad libitum, ad nauseum.

Representative Jim Moody is to be decorated, according to the press dispatches, by the republic of Cuba for his heroism in rescuing single-handed the little nation from the grasp of the Spaniards. Much interest is naturally aroused over what order of knighthood the republic will establish; will the Hon. Jim Moody be the Knight of the Single Star or an honorable member of the Order of the Empty Coffers? and will it be necessary hereafter to address the Hon. James as Sir Jim Moody?

The Asheville Citizen thinks "The Drummer Boy" is no misnomer for the Hon. Spencer Blackburn. Certainly he has beat a beautiful retreat before Congressman Klutz's challenge for a joint canvass of the district.

"Blind Tiger" Arrested.

A "blind tiger" was made to open his eyes yesterday. Chief Irwin has been suspecting that old man Henry Shaw was dealing out liquor, contrary to law. Yesterday, the old fellow was nabbed and was placed in the toms. There were a number of negro excursionists at the house of Mary Jane Jackson, who lives in the alley back of the General hotel. Yesterday morning old man Henry Shaw came around, bright and early to see if the visitors were thirsty. He found that they were and that all were in a notion to trade with him. He dealt out one-half pint, but that only called for more. As he was delivering the second half pint, Chief Irwin and two of his men were on hand and took old man Shaw to the toms.

This morning before Acting Recorder Hilton, Shaw said that he bought the liquor Saturday and he did not intend to violate the law. He was bound over in the sum of $25 for trial at the Superior Court. He went to jail.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail, Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

THE THIEF OF BEAUTY Is Captured by Bradfield's Regulator.

Thousands of young women are awaking to the fact that inherited comeliness has been stolen, and instead of glowing cheeks and bright eyes, the tell-tale wrinkles of pain have taken their place. These are the warning feelings! Weak and tired in the morning, no life to enter upon their former pleasures, irritable, cross, dull headaches, general dispirited feeling, sleepless nights, cold feet, "bearing down" pains. All these symptoms indicate deranged and weakened organs, and exhausted energies follow the weakened condition of the female organs as surely as night follows day. Save yourself from worse results by taking

HOPEFUL VIEW

The hopeful view consumptives take of their own cases is strongly in their favor. Each year is showing a larger percentage of cures.

One of the best reasons for good hope is the record of Scott's Emulsion as a medicine for consumptives. So long as the system is strong enough to use medicine of any kind it can use Scott's Emulsion.

The reason for its helpfulness in this disease is because of its long tolerance by the patient; one does not tire of it as quickly as other medicines and that is where the great benefit comes.
