City Court Happenings

Acting Recorder Hilton had a full house this morning.

The first case was that of James Stewart, charged with being drunk. The old man is a resident of Monroe, and his weakness is strong drink. Yesterday he was found by the wayside in a helpless condition and an officer took him in. This morning he pleaded guilty of the charge, but his age and other infirmities saved him from a fine. He was allowed to go, but was told to sin no more. Will he do it?

Lela Webb, one of the residents of the Tenderloin, was taxed with the costs on account of a disturbance at her house Wednesday night.

Alexander Smith, colored, forfeited a bond of $3 for being drunk and using profane language.

Sophia Johnston was made to pay the costs in the case for keeping a tailless dog on his premises.

Tom Hinton and Lou Miller were before the court charged with living together without the form of marriage. They both went to jail, there to repent of their wrongdoings.

Emma Weeks and Doovey Weeks were before the court charged with an affair. Both were fined $1 and the costs.

MARRIED IN ROANOKE.

Miss Lookabill and Mr. Thomas Married Wednesday Night.

Miss Lucy Lookabill, a well-known young lady of this city and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lookabill, of Dilworth, was married in Roanoke, Va., Wednesday night to Mr. John D. Thomas. The ceremony was performed in the manse of the First Presbyterian church of Roanoke. Rev. Dr. W. C. Campbell, pastor of the church, officiated. The newly wedded couple left on the midnight train Wednesday for Norfolk, where they will spend their honeymoon. From Norfolk they will return to Roanoke, their future home.

Miss Lookabill left Charlotte three weeks ago to visit her aunt in Roanoke. To a few of her Charlotte friends it was known that she intended marrying in the fall, but all were surprised to learn this morning that the event had taken place.

For some time Miss Lookabill has been a member of the First Presbyterian church choir. She is a splendid musician and has an exceptionally good voice. She is quite popular here and her friends wish for her much happiness.

The gentleman to whom she has dedicated her life has on several occasions visited Charlotte. He is private secretary to the superintendent of motive power of the Norfolk and Western railroad and is highly thought of in Roanoke.

AN OSTRICH RACE.

Probably One of the Attractions at Coming Fair.

One of the probable attractions of the county fair will be a spirited race between a very fast horse and an ostrich. The fair promoters are using every effort to secure the Florida ostrich exhibit and should they be successful the race will be pulled off. There are several in Charlotte who have witnessed a race of this kind. It will be surprising to many to know that the ostrich is great on a race and is exceedingly fleet of foot.

At a meeting of the Charlotte Day Nursery Association, held yesterday, the following committees were named to sell lunches during the days the fair is in progress:

Refreshments—Mrs. E. C. Register, Miss Ada Heath, Mrs. A. H. Washburn, Mrs. N. J. Sherrill, Mrs. F. M. Sawyer, Mrs. R. C. Holland, Mrs. A. C. Barron, Decorating—Mrs. D. A. McLaughlin, Mrs. C. C. Hook, Mrs. R. L. Jones, Miss Hattie Cooper.

The following named ladies will also sell refreshments during the fair, September 30: Miss Ada Heath, Miss Hattie Cooper, Mrs. D. A. McLaughlin, Mrs. E. C. Register, Mrs. W. W. Hagood.

October 1st: Mesdames F. M. Sawyer, W. G. Rogers, A. C. Barron, J. A. Russell.

October 2nd: Mesdames C. B. Bryant, Chas. Geissenhauer, John Zimmerman, R. L. Jones.

It was decided today to engage the Concord brass band to make music for the three days of the fair. The Concord band is one of the best in the State and every member is a thorough musician.

Still Loves the Old Town.

Mr. Frank P. Milburn, for many years a devoted Charlotte man, but who has of recent years, been converted to the Columbia way of thinking, is a Charlotte visitor today. He came to this city from New York, where he has been for several days on business. Mr. Milburn says he cannot pass through Charlotte without stopping over, for he still loves the old town. On one occasion he partook of the cooling draughts from the town pump, in front of the old court house and there is also some tar on his feet. It is useless to add that some day, he will return to the old love and his absence will only tend to make his heart grow that much fonder of Charlotte and Charlotte people.

"The Telephone Girl."

That brilliant musical comedy "The Telephone Girl," will be seen here on Wednesday night at the Park auditorium, and those who are fond of a jolly evening (and who isn't?) had better be on the qui vive. She comes escorted with her pretty and graceful sisters, clever comedians, and all that goes to constitute a first-class production in every detail. Nobody should miss "The Telephone Girl."

Burnett's Vanilla Extract is the fixed standard of excellence. It has outlived criticism. It is the finest and purest vanilla extract that can be bought.

PERSONALS.

Notes About Home Folks and Strangers.

PROCLAMATION BY MAYOR.

First Mayor of Charlotte to Issue Labor Day Proclamation.

In order to more properly dignify Labor Day, Mayor P. M. Brown has issued a proclamation setting aside the day for the city of Charlotte as a legal holiday. The proclamation, which follows, bears the distinction of being the first proclamation for the day ever issued by a mayor of Charlotte:

By an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of North Carolina, ratified the 23rd day of January, A. D. 1901, the first Monday in September, known as "Labor Day," is declared a legal holiday, and no person is compelled on that day to do or perform any labor that is not required to be performed on a legal holiday.

In accordance with the provisions of the above mentioned Act, and by virtue of authority vested in me as Mayor, I hereby proclaim and declare Monday, September 1st, 1902, a legal holiday. This proclamation is issued out of respect to the hundreds of Charlotte's deserving working men and the various bodies of organized labor, who have always shown themselves much interested in the prosperity and general welfare of the city.

It is my earnest hope and desire that our citizens will spend this day in a manner befitting the occasion.

I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Charlotte to be affixed hereto. This the 28th day of August A. D. 1902.

P. M. BROWN, Mayor.
