GOBIN'S STERN ORDER QUIETS DISORDER IN VALLEY

Panther Creek Strikers Cease Their Attacks Upon the State Troops

INSTRUCTIONS WERE TO SHOOT TO KILL

More Men Reported This Morning for Work at Tamaqua, Lansford and Summit Hill Than Any Day since the Big Strike Began

(By Wire to The News.) Tamaqua, Pa., Aug. 30.—General Gobin's stern declaration last night to shoot to kill in case of disorder had a quieting effect on the situation in Panther Creek Valley today. Company F toured the Valley this morning and met about fifty strikers who instead of shouting, jeering and stoning the soldiers, looked on in quiet amazement as they passed. Last night the strike leaders went from door to door apprising the strikers of General Gobin's orders to shoot if molested. Orders have been given to fire on all men, women and children who in any way molest the troops. More men reported for work at Tamaqua, Lansford and Summit Hill this morning than any morning since the strike was declared.

GUIDI IS OPPOSED TO EXPULSION OF THE CRAFTY FRIARS

He Thinks the Solution is Other Than Their Exile and Sale of Their Lands But Will Not Talk at Present

(By Wire to The News.) Rome, Aug. 30.—Monsignor Guidi, the newly appointed apostolic delegate to the Philippines, has carefully examined voluminous papers relating to the Philippine question and has concluded that the solution of the problem is other than the expulsion of the friars and the sale of the lands. He refuses to enter into details until he has submitted a proposition to Governor Taft.

VENEZUELA CLAIMS VICTORY.

Minister Bowen Cables that the Revolutionists are Beaten. (By Wire to The News.) Washington, Aug. 30.—Minister Bowen telegraphs the Department of State from Caracas that a victory has been announced by the Venezuelan government over the Revolutionists advance guard near Cuba. The blockade of the Orinoco river has been declared ineffective by the Holland government.

Street Car Men on Strike.

(By Wire to The News.) Allston, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Two hundred motormen and conductors on the Hudson Valley Railway went on strike today. The men struck for more wages, the company having announced a cut to take place Sept. first.

WILL BE HERE WITH HIS CREDENTIALS NEXT WEEK

Sir Michael Herbert Now the British Ambassador, Will Report and Then Return to England for His Family

(By Wire to The News.) Washington, Aug. 30.—Word has been received here that Sir Michael Herbert, the new British Ambassador, is arranging to come to this country next week to present his credentials from King Edward to the President. Two weeks later he will return to England and will bring his family here in December.

Futurity is the Attraction Today

Sheepshead Bay Race Track, N. Y., Aug. 30.—The futurity race for two-year-olds will be run over a fast track this afternoon. The weather this morning is clear and cool and promises to remain so. The greatest crowd ever assembled on a race course is expected. Thirty-one horses have entered and should all start the race will be worth $59,750, the larger share to go to the winner. The track officials hope there will be enough withdrawals to bring the entries down to 18.

GOBIN NOT IMPARTIAL TO HIS DUTY, SAYS MITCHELL

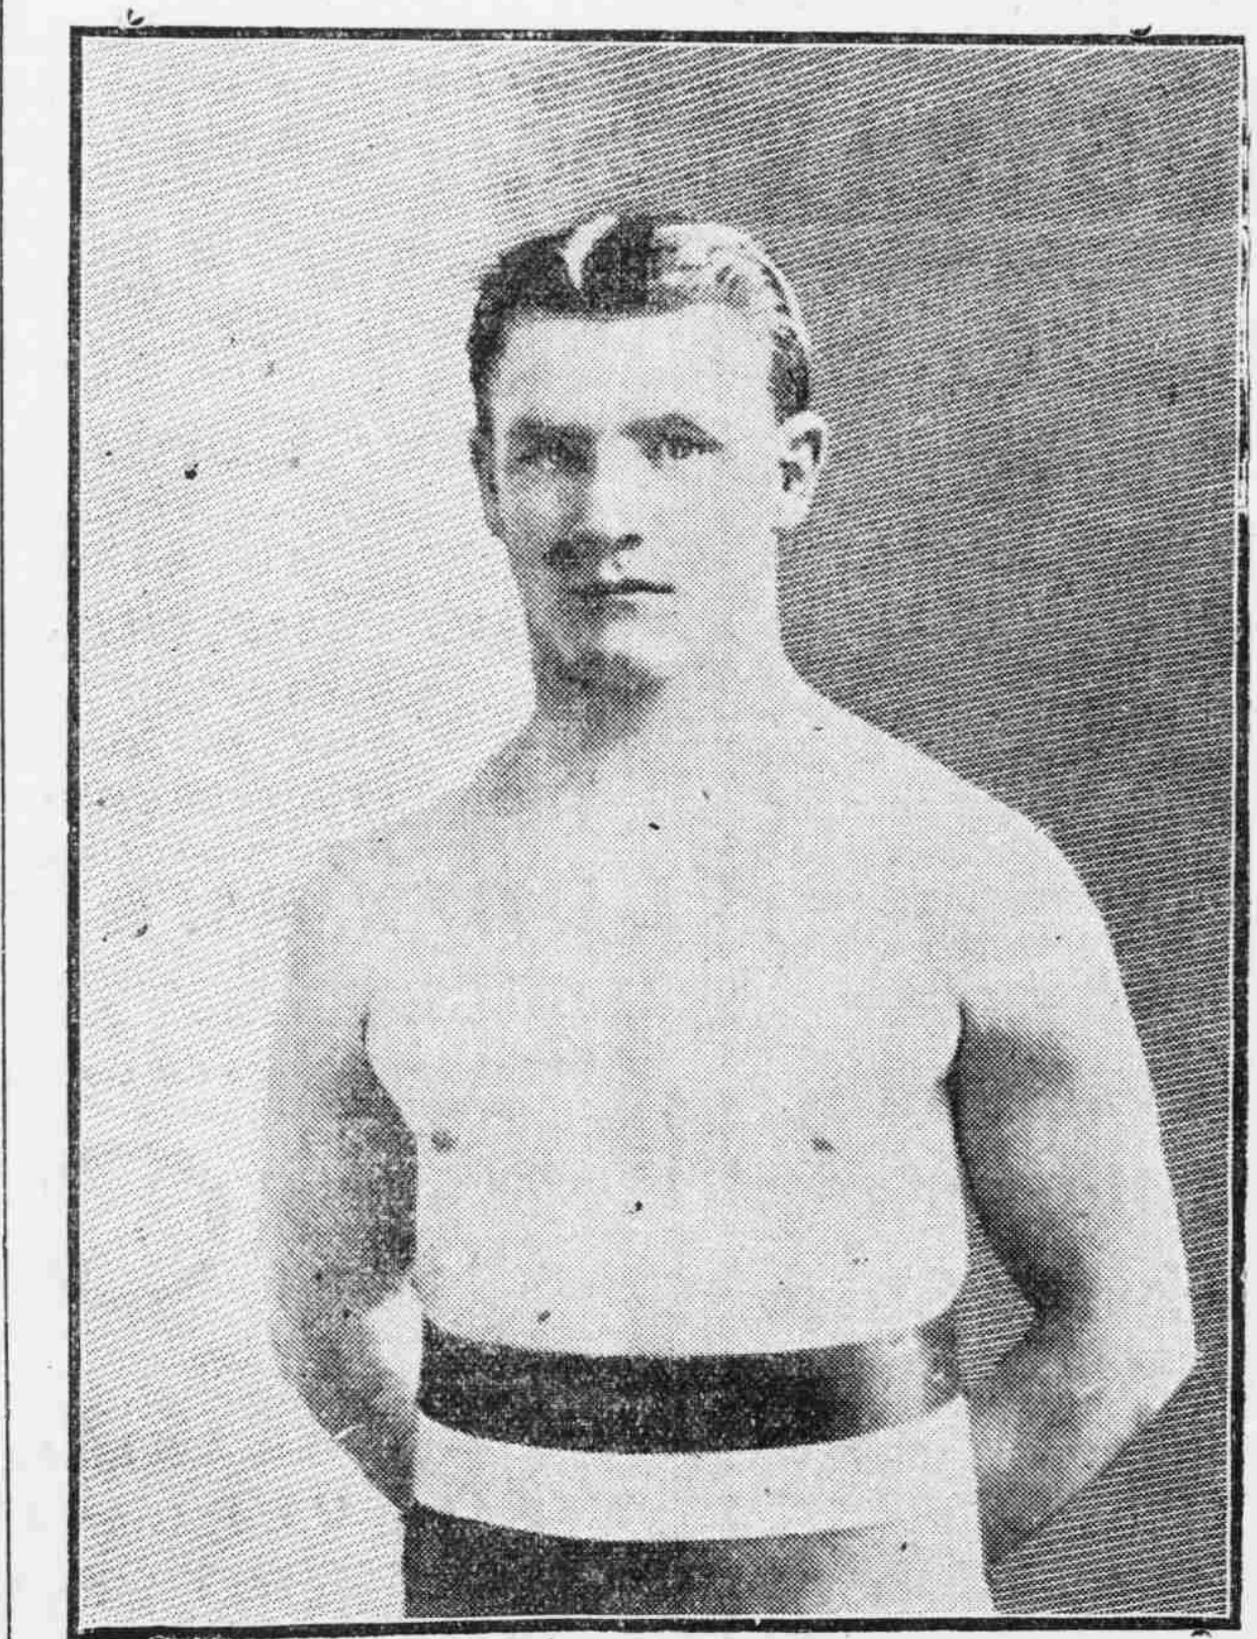

(By Wire to The News.) Wilkesbarre, Aug. 30.—President Mitchell left today for Atlantic City to spend Sunday and Monday. He will address the workmen of Philadelphia Monday night. Concerning General Gobin's order to shoot to kill, Mitchell said: "I believe the order will be uncalled for. I do not think Gen. Gobin is impartial to his duties."

(Special to The News.) Winston-Salem, Aug. 30.—The D Democrats held a great County Convention here today. This afternoon Capt. R. E. Glenn withdrew from the Senatorial race and offered a resolution strongly endorsing C. B. Watson, which was adopted with great enthusiasm.

YOUNG CORBETT. The featherweight champion of America is matched to fight "Terrible" Teddy McGovern in Louisville Sept. 22. They have fought once before but at that time McGovern was not in condition. The contest is expected to be a battle royal and the sporting world is looking forward to it with even more interest than it did the Fitzsimmons-Jeffries fight.

TWO TOWNS DESTROYED IN BATTLE YESTERDAY NEAR CAPE HAYTIAN

(By Wire to The News.) Washington, Aug. 30.—Minister Powell, at Port Au Prince, cables the State Department under yesterday's date that severe fighting began in the neighborhood of Cape Haytien Thursday and was continuing at the time he filed the dispatch. There was great loss on both sides and the towns of Marmelade and Laine were totally destroyed. The government army is under command of General Nord and General Juneau is at the head of the Revolutionists.

WAR CLOUD BURSTS AND THE ENEMY ADVANCES

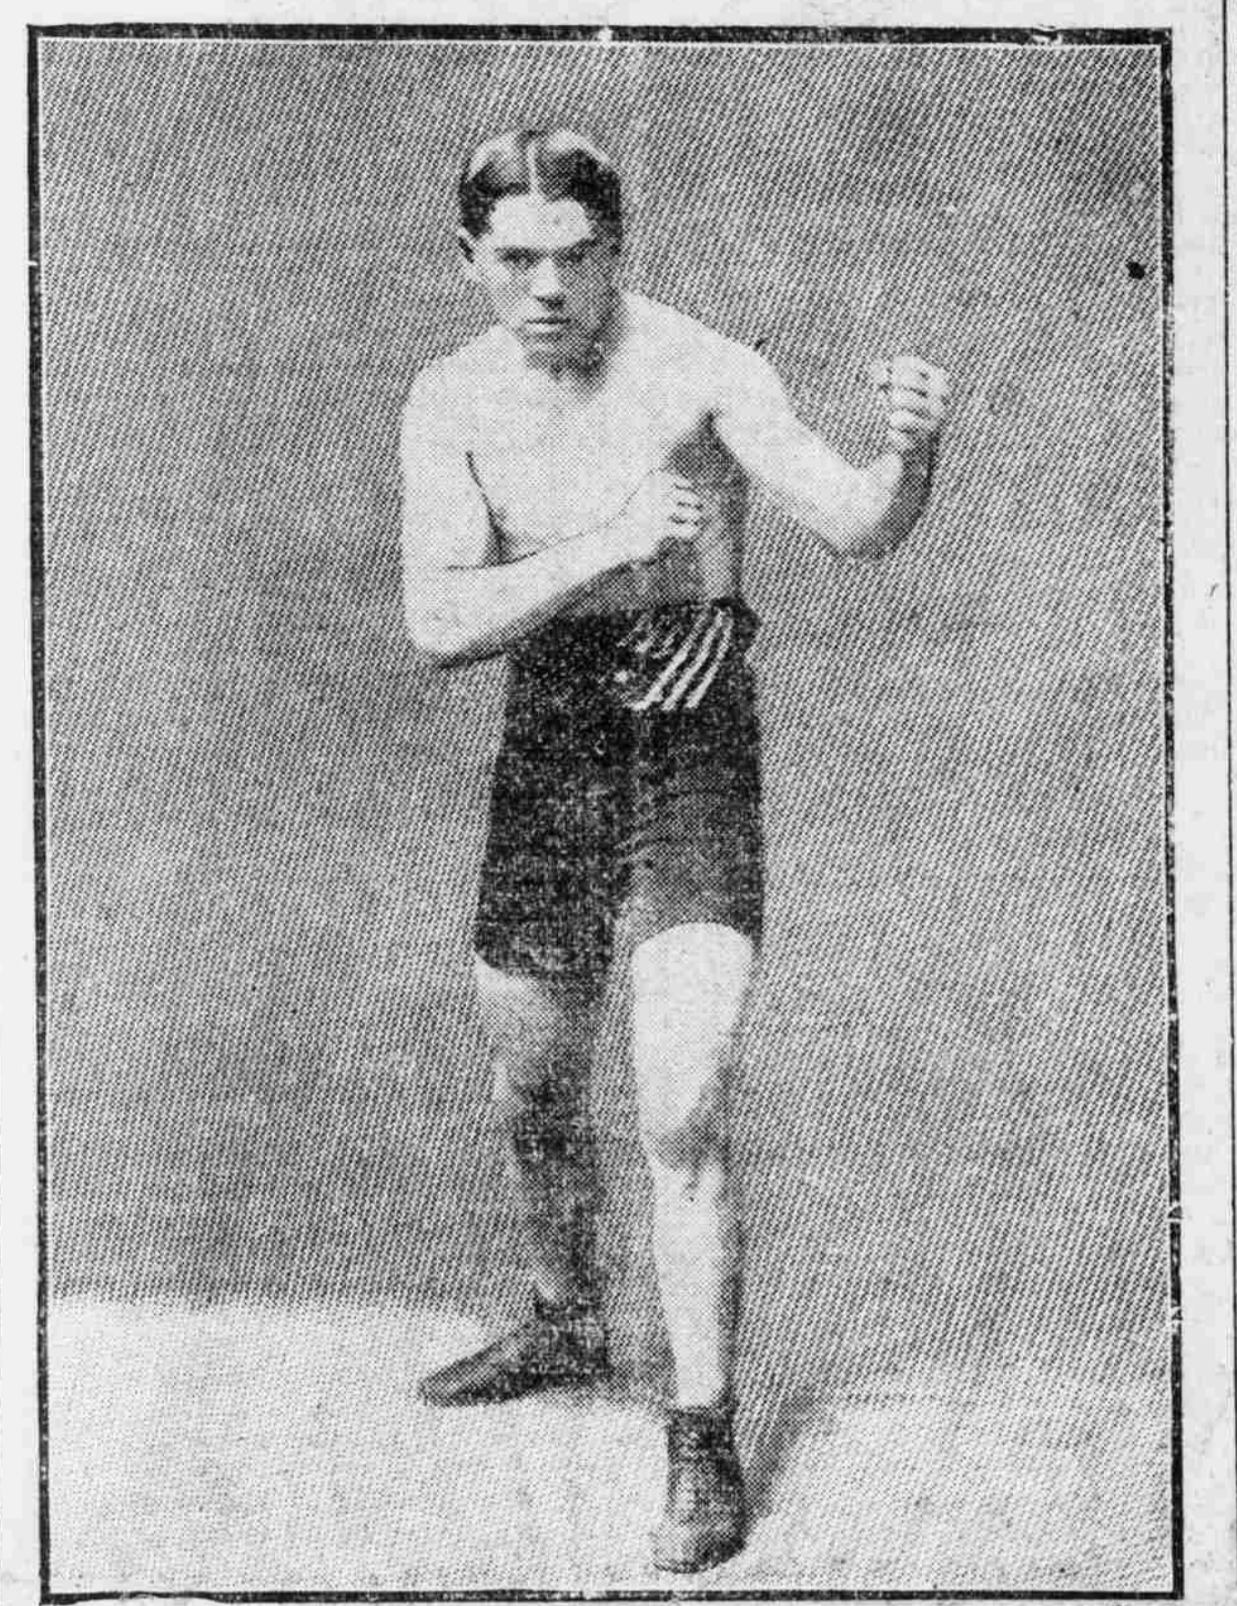

General Greely and His Signal Men are Hard at Work —Long Island Sound Dotted With Lights All Night and signals are seen

(By Wire to The News.) Army Headquarters Pequot Point, Conn., Aug. 30.—The war cloud which has threatened the country has broken in full fury. War is declared and there is a report here that an enemy will try to capture and destroy New York. Long Island Sound was streaked with lights all during the early morning hours and with daylight the wig wagging signal-men from the visual station could be plainly seen from here. They are being hurried through the streets of New London and being hurried to the fortifications on the island. General Greely is also hurrying additional signal-men to the stations along the coast. President drives to Windsor. (By Wire to The News.) Newport, N. H., President Roosevelt and party left here at 7 o'clock for a drive to Windsor, Vermont.

TWENTY-THREE HURT IN REAR END CRASH

Trains on Underground Railway Come Together Through Fault of Signal Man and Two Cars Are Telescoped

(By Wire to The News.) Glasgow, Aug. 30.—In a rear-end collision between two trains of the underground railway at Charing Cross station the last two cars from the first city were completely telescoped. Twenty-three persons were injured. The injured were removed to a hospital. Ten are seriously injured. It is a remarkable fact that none of those in the rear of the train were injured. The signal man has been arrested.

TERRY Mc GOVERN.

New Device for Satisfying Honor

Paris, Aug. 30.—The French duellists have devised a new scheme for satisfying outraged honor without danger to life. In the future wax instead of lead bullets will be used, and the mark left by the wax will decide which man hit must apologize.

Games and Contests For Prizes Will be Amusomen's of the Afternoon and Vaudeville Show at Night Will Wind Up the Day

Monday will be a gala day with the wage earners of Charlotte. The most elaborate celebration of Labor Day that has yet taken place in this city has been planned and, weather permitting, these plans will be executed. Briefly rehearsed—there will be a parade in the morning through the principal streets of the city and headed by the Steele Creek band, of all the labor unions in the city as well as the visiting unions. In addition the local merchants will be represented by appropriate floats. At midday there will be an address at Latta Park by Hon. Jerome Jones, of Atlanta, a speaker of considerable renown, followed by dinner. In the afternoon there will be a series of contests and games for prizes, concluding at night with a free minstrel and vaudeville show in the park auditorium. Committees from the various local labor unions have been hard at work on the plans and program for over a month and there is every reason to believe that the celebration will be a success from every standpoint. There will be many visitors. The railroads entering Charlotte have granted reduced rates for this occasion and there

(By Wire to The News.) Paris, Aug. 30.—During the recent visit of the Queen mother of Spain in Paris, negotiations were begun looking to the marriage of King Alfonso's twenty year old sister, Princess Maria Theresa, to a member of Prince Murat's family. The Prince at present is away making arrangements and details are impossible. The Prince of the Asturias, however, will visit Paris during September and try to reach a satisfactory basis with Prince Murat.

TEDDY MUCH TICKLED OVER HIS FIRST WILD BOAR

Pleased as a School Boy With His First Pair of Trousers —He Makes Two Addresses at Cornish

(By Wire to The News.) Windsor, Vert., Aug. 30.—The President said before starting for Windsor this morning, regarding his shooting the wild boar "It's the greatest piece of luck I ever had. I am greatly pleased over the affair, as it's the first boar I ever shot." On the way to Windsor while ascending Crocyden Mountain, the President walked to the summit without help from the tired horses. At Cornish flat the party changed conveyances and the President rode the rest of the way back, engineered by Winston Churchill, the novelist. The President addressed the people at Cornish and was then driven to the fair grounds where he delivered an address.
