A Business Lie

A merchant in a distant city said he always added to his advertisements—made it stronger than it really was, because the public always made allowances, and after the allowances were made, it left his statements just right. Do you really think a business lie is not just as bad as any other?

We have tried to build up our business on the solid rock foundation of honesty, truthfulness and integrity. This has given us the best class of trade, and our business grows all the time.

We dare not make a misstatement in our ads, and we would appreciate it very much if you would report any seeming shortcomings.

A REMARKABLE EXHIBITION TO VISIT OUR CITY.

H. L. Bush, who is extensively known through this section of the State has been in our city for the last few days arranging for the appearance here of the Howell-Glass Blowers, Spinners and Weavers. This is one of the most interesting and instructive as well as the only exhibition of its kind traveling. They carry a company of six ladies and gentlemen who were, during the world's fair, employed by the Libby Glass Works. During their stay here they will locate in the vacant store room formerly occupied by Andrews & Davenport opposite Academy of Music, giving two introductions daily at 2 and 7 p. m. No doubt they will be very liberally patronized during their stay here, as they come highly recommended by our exchanges.

HAPPENINGS IN THE REALM OF Society

The marriage of Miss Carrie Pullum Beall and Mr. Henry Holland Springs will be solemnized next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Capt. and Mrs. A. J. Beall, on South Church street. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. J. R. Howerton of the First Presbyterian church.

The marriage will be a quiet home affair and only the immediate family and a few friends will witness the ceremony.

Miss Isabelle Beall, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor and Mr. Frank Fletcher will be best man. Miss Johnnie Dickson and Miss Ruth Ebeltoft will act as ribbon girls.

Next Monday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock the ladies of St. Mark's Lutheran church will give a church social in the lecture room of the church. This social reunion will be the more interesting by the presence of Dr. H. B. Peery and Mrs. Peery and their three little boys, missionaries from Japan. The ladies are preparing for an enjoyable evening and solicit a silver offering from the guests of the evening in promotion of their work as Missionary and Aid Society in the church.

The Woman's Guild of St. Peter's Episcopal church met yesterday and the following officers were elected: President, Miss M. L. Brown; vice president, Mrs. A. M. Spang; secretary, Mrs. John S. Walters; treasurer, Mrs. T. S. Clarkson.

The Cranford Book Club met with Miss Lilly Long at the Presbyterian College this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The student body of the Presbyterian College gave a reception to the young men of Charlotte yesterday evening from eight to eleven. The young men were received upon entering by the faculty, the president and a reception committee. It was due to the efforts of the reception committee that the new girls and the strangers among the boys were made to feel at ease and the evening passed quickly away. The halls, parlors and dining room were decorated with autumn leaves and the college colors. One room was especially attractive by the art-work of the young ladies. A delightful supper was served by the Preps in the dining room and the town boys, now that they have had their turn, envy the Davidson boys, who come next upon the invitation list.

Miss Rebekah Chambers will entertain friends at chaffing dish party this evening at her home on East Avenue.
