To Keep the Sabbath

The weather interfered with the at tendance at the union meeting at Trinity Methodist church last night, but those who came out were amply repaid in the splendid address delivered by Rev. W. H. McMaster, of Blafrsville, Pa., who gave a most interesting and inspiring talk on the Christian and civil Sabbath. He said in part: The Sabbath as an institution is of divine appointment and is fortified behind divine law, it is binding upon all classes of people, it is maintained both by rewards and penalties, "If you turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on My holy day," etc. On the other hand the captivity of the Jews is supposed to be the equivalent in point of period for the time taken from God by robbing Him of His Sabbath. Railroads act upon the same principle today, and it is doubtful if they gain a dellar by Sabbath day traffic. The ex- goodsoossoossoossoossoossoos isting relation between the antecedent cause and the certain consequence is wholly ignored by railroad companies and worldly corporations. And yet in all departments of life. Six wrecks were mentioned by the speaker as ocenuring on the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad in 1902, in which the loss of life and property fell excluspress, the exponent of the public mind, safety of the Sabbath as an institution is to get access to the classes who most that some of value are missing. of all need this work. W. E. Gorman, manager of the farcical comedy, "A Friend of the Family," which has been the talk of the town since its appearance here a short while ago, is to give the theatre-goers of this city another opportunity of witnessing his clever company of laugh producers tonight at the Academy of Music.

It is safe to say that many lovers of good clean comedy who did not attend on the occasion of its first visit, being doubtful as to the merit of this unknown attraction, will be at the theatre tonight, for it proved to be the very best straight comedy seen in our city in many years, and presented by a surprisingly strong cast of metropolitan

Since the first notice appeared of Miss Grantley's visit to this city in Lorrimer Stoddard's dramatization of F. Marion Crawford's novel, "In the Palace of the King," several theatre parties composed of the leading social and fashionable people of this city, have been formed to welcome the favorite astress. Miss Grantley nas always been popular here and her impersonation of Dolores Mendoza is sure to strengthen the esteem in which she is held. She will be seen here at the Academy of Music on Wednesday, March 2nd .

Richard Golden, who is the jovial king in Henry W. Savage's production "King Dodo," which appears at the Academy of Music Tuesday, March 8th, is considered a master of stage makeup. His character poses have won high praised for his photographs. He had the distinction last year of receiving a prize for his photographs at the international exhibition in Milan.

The Buffaloes seem to have a streak of hard luck, as they have failed to secure a single game of the series. Four games have been played and of the number | Practically demonstrating the Panthers have won two and the Kangaroos two. The fight for the championship stands between these of the two teams. The Panthers will play the Kangaroos Friday night instead of Saturday.

Pev. Mr. Fry at Y. M. C. A. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon was interesting and inspiring. Rev. J. A. B. Fry delivered a strong talk on the important theme, "The True Idea of Serving Others." His address was one that appealed to every man present. Th boys' meeting was conducted by the boys' secretary in the absence of the regular speaker.

Taking out a policy of life assurance early in life is like crossing a river near its source. The cost of assurance is then lowest, and the width of the river is there narrowest. As a river widens and deepens as it flows toward its outlet, so the cost of assurance increases the longer it is delayed. If, while in early manhood, at the head of life's river, a man assures his life, he can do so with compara-tive ease, as the premium is then low-er than it ever will be again. The longer he waits, the larger will be the premium he must pay annually.

If he should defer the matter until old age, the cost might be prohibitive.

A river that must be crossed sometime should be crosed at its narrowest point; and when a man knows he will need life assurance some day, he should procure it at the time the cost INSURE IN
