

STILL FIGHTING LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Evangelist Richard Morse Enjoys Reading the News, Way Out in Indianapolis. Liked the Salisbury Article in The News. Some Very Pointed Remarks.

In a letter to the editor of The News Evangelist Richard Morse writing from Indianapolis says:

"This will inform you and your readers that I am still in Indianapolis fighting the devil and his co-workers.

"I enjoy the Charlotte News. We have the Star, Sun and News here, but none of them take the place of the Charlotte News. I tell the people here that they should have one more paper and call it The Moon.

Commenting on The News' article concerning the criminal records of Salisbury, Mr. Morse says: "All that is needed in any town is that the saloons be shown up in the papers. If I press I can close them everywhere."

"I would help the devil if he were to get loose and get converted and take sides against the curse of strong drink. I know he would do this if he were genuinely converted.

"You know I was once a Democrat and remained one until I became a Prohibitionist. I never was low enough to be a Republican, nor had I little sense enough to be a Populist. I never was fool enough to be a Socialist nor devil enough to be an anarchist. I never expect to be anything in politics but a Prohibitionist unless some party in power will seek to prohibit the manufacture and sale of whiskey. If the Democrats will do this I will return to them. If the Democrats continue to put such men as Governor Glenn in office they will get there with both feet. They will not get there but will stay there.

"If I were a policeman I would arrest every woman I found sitting around a euchre table playing euchre for a prize. I would do them just as the Recorder did that crowd of negro gamblers in Charlotte the other day. Euchre is just as much gambling as poker or any other game of cards.

"I would like to see Zeb Vance have a monument that would do honor to that great man and to North Carolina. A Home to reform boys and girls is the kind of monument I would like to have. I would rather have such a monument than all the shafts on the battlefield of Gettysburg. I, however, would not like for this monument to be built from money derived from a carnival, unless that carnival be different from any I have seen.

"I know this doctrine is not popular. I am not seeking popularity. I am trying to serve God and am trying to get other people to do the same thing."

DEATH OF MR. J. H. DOUGLAS.

The End Came This Morning at 11 O'Clock—Funeral Saturday.

Mr. J. H. Douglas, one of the best known citizens of the county, died at his home on the Statesville road, about two miles from the city, this morning at 11 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held from the Sugar Creek Church Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The interment will be in the churchyard.

Mr. Douglas had been in declining health for the past 10 months and had been critically ill for the past three or four weeks. The deceased was 68 years old and is survived by three sisters, Mrs. E. W. Lyles, Mrs. M. C. McKay and Miss Mary Douglas. All these were at his bedside when the end came.

For many years Mr. Douglas had been a member of the Presbyterian Church, holding his membership at Sugar Creek Church. He was a good man and was highly respected by all who knew him.

Property Changes Hands.

The Charlotte Realty Company has sold a house and lot on North Brevard street to Mrs. L. I. Presson, the consideration being $2,750.

Through the same agency Mr. J. W. Keorans has sold a piece of property on South Myers street, the consideration being $2,000.

Judge Webb Here.

Judge James L. Webb spent today in the city en route to his home at Shelby after holding criminal court at Clinton, Sampson county. Judge Webb returns to Clinton Monday to hold civil court.

HYOMEI CURES CATARRH.

Its Healing Balsams Kill All Catarrhal Germs—Sold Under Guarantee by R. H. Jordan & Co.

It is a noteworthy fact that among the many medicines and treatments for catarrh, there is only one which R. H. Jordan & Co. sell under their positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure—Hyomei, Nature's remedy for the cure of catarrh.

No dangerous drugs are taken into the stomach when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the small pocket inhaler that comes with every Hyomei outfit, its healing balsams penetrate to the most remote cells of the throat, nose and lungs, killing the germs of catarrh, healing the irritated mucous membrane and making complete and lasting cures.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of an inhaler that can be carried in the purse or vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei, costs only $1. The inhaler will last a lifetime, while extra bottles of Hyomei can be procured, when ever needed, for only 50 cents.

If not convenient to obtain Hyomei of R. H. Jordan or some other druggist it will be forwarded from the laboratory by mail on receipt of price. The R. T. Booth Co., Hyomei Bldg., Ithaca, N. Y.

WAKE FOREST TEAM WINS THE GAME

The "Old Gold and Black" Wins the Basket-ball Game From Y. M. C. A. Team by Score of 32 to 19. A Lively Contest. Line-up of the Teams.

It was a lively and interesting game of basket ball the boys put up at the Charlotte Y. M. C. A. last night.

The Y. M. C. A. team was pitted against the Old Gold and Black of Wake Forest College.

Not a dull moment marred the pleasure of the contest which abounded in snappy, rushing plays. Although the home team was outclassed, the game was close enough to be mighty interesting. The Wake Forest boys were the heavier and taller, which fact proved of much advantage to them.

Wake Forest's line-up was as follows: Forwards, Couch and Ward; center, Elliot; guards, Beverly and Gore.

Accompanying the team were B. F. Keith, business manager and alternate forward; Richard Crozier, coach, and Claude McBrayer, press correspondent.

The line-up of Y. M. C. A. was, viz: Forwards, McClure and Bradford; center, Alexander; guards, Page and Walker.

Referee, Mr. Crozier, of Wake Forest.

The score for the first half was: Y. M. C. A., 10; Wake Forest, 13.

For the second half, Y. M. C. A., 9; Wake Forest, 17.

Total score, Y. M. C. A., 19; Wake Forest, 32.

The playing of Couch, of Wake Forest, and Alexander and McClure, of the Y. M. C. A. team, was especially brilliant. All the boys on both teams acquitted themselves very creditably.

The Wake Forest boys are nice, gentlemanly fellows, and made a good impression.

The home team naturally had the greater number of rooters, but scattered among the crowd, were a few of the old Wake Forest boys, with their college pride still warm in their hearts, who made the air ring when the college team made a good play.

The boys from "The Hill" showed evidence of thorough training, much of which is due to Coach Crozier, who is himself an athlete of note. He is the famous "auburn-haired left felder," whose brilliant plays on the Atlanta team were for eight years, the delight of Southern "fans."

Mr. Crozier now has charge of all branches of athletics at Wake Forest, and abundant proofs of his ability can be seen in the general great improvement there in athletics during the past year.

The college team left this morning for Spartanburg, S. C., where they will go up against the team of the Y. M. C. A. of that town tonight.

MECKLENBURG PRESBYTERY.

Called to Meet at the First Presbyterian Church Next Tuesday.

UNDER THE KNIFE.

Rockefeller's Grandchild Had Appendicitis—Oil King Here—Going to Lakewood.

New York, Feb. 8.—John D. Rockefeller's little grand-daughter, Muriel McCormick, it was learned last night was attacked by appendicitis about a week ago and is now recovering under the personal care of her mother, from an operation performed in a private sanitarium in this city. The World yesterday told of the serious illness of one of the oil king's grandchildren, but there was doubt as to whether it was Muriel or her brother Fowler.

Muriel's mother, who was Edith Rockefeller, wife of Harold McCormick of Chicago, is her constant nurse, despite the fact that she has hardly recovered from the illness attending the birth of a little daughter in Europe eight weeks ago.

Harold McCormick considered danger in Muriel's illness so remote yesterday that in the afternoon he went to Lakewood, taking with him the infant daughter, John D. Rockefeller and Mrs. McCormick are staying in town until Mrs. McCormick and Muriel are able to go to Lakewood, which it is hoped, will be early next week. Mrs. McCormick's parents will accompany them to Lakewood, where the family has planned to spend the rest of the season.

Muriel McCormick and her eight-year old brother, Fowler, came from Chicago ten days ago to meet their parents upon their return from Europe and say "How d'ye do" to their new sister. She was then as well as a child could possibly be, and the news of her illness was a great shock to her father's family in Chicago.

J. Medill McCormick said to The World's Chicago correspondent last night:

"Word came last evening that Muriel is ill with appendicitis; that she has been operated on and is recovering from the operation." He added that Muriel had been sent to New York with her brother to meet their parents and to pay John D. Rockefeller and his wife a promised visit.

Muriel McCormick children spent the greater part of last season with their grandparents at Lakewood. Mr. Rockefeller delights in romping with them and taking them on automobile runs.

A LITTLE POLITICS.

Rollins and Blackburn are said to have fused sufficiently, when they hear of the appointment of Rollins and Millikan, to go together to the White House and sing a duet to Teddy.

"Perhaps it was right to dissemble your love. But why did you kick me down stairs?" —Rhankatte Roaster.

Col. George Harvey, the editor of Harper's Weekly, suggests President Wilson of Princeton University, for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1908. If he can organize the Jersey voters as well as he can drill the freshmen or write history, he would be a winning candidate.

It is not partisan for the Republican Senators to line up solidly for the Santo Domingo treaty, but partisan politics for Democrats to stand against the indefensible course pursued by the President. It is the story of the farmer and the going of the ox told in Webster's spelling book.

If it is unconstitutional for the Democrats to agree to stand together against the revolutionary Santo Domingo treaty, why isn't it unconstitutional for the Republicans to vote solidly as a result of orders sent down for the treaty?

The appointment of Holton was "the blow that almost killed father." Rollins has sufficiently recovered to gasp, but Blackburn is yet blue in the face.

Which penitentiary will the next Republican State Convention be held in?—Atlanta or Raleigh. The Federal and State courts are sending 'em up pretty fast.—News and Observer.

Dry Goods Casseerie.

Shipments of cotton goods to China from this port amount this week to 7,796 bales, valued at $359,377.

Included in the exports of cotton goods from this port for the week were 205 bales of duck, valued at $18,388.

The American Woolen Co. has advanced all Wadsworth dyes not previously advanced, five cents a yard. Garment makers are out with many new styles in three-piece cloth, costumes for spring and report satisfactory orders.

George O. Leavitt, selling agent of the Gilbert Manufacturing Co., has opened lines for fall in worsteds, from $2.00 to $2.65.

Buyers of prints for export purposes state that the recent advances have for the time being put a stop to the demand for these goods.

A. G. & G. of Seattle are showing lines for fall from the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, Monarch mills and Stockton mills, ranging from 67 cents up.

Several of the accounts that have been sold through the abolished agencies of the Consolidated Cotton Duck Co. will not be transferred for some weeks, owing to existing contracts. "Buyers are in the market in eight and nine ounce weights in larger volume than at any time since the opening of the year and are paying full values."

Buyers from South America who have visited this market during the past two weeks state that American cotton goods, especially colored goods, are too high priced for their trade.

Quite a few orders were reported yesterday in jobbing houses for silks. Buyers are taking anything in the shape of novelty goods that appears available, all saleable, especially the rough woven fabrics.

It is generally believed in the wholesale division of the market that the demand from the Red Sea and India this month, and prices are accordingly held firm for nearby delivery of goods.

NEW BERN NOTES.

Death of a Prominent Man Case of Lock Jaw.

Special to The News. New Bern N. C., February 8.—Mr. McGuder Dowdy, a popular and prominent river man of this city, died at his residence here yesterday morning. He had been ill for several weeks with a complication of diseases. He was 31 years of age. He leaves a wife and one child. The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock this A. M., from the Middle Street Baptist church and will be attended by the members of the Royal Arcanum of which the deceased was a member.

It is rumored that a new bank financed by Col. J. S. Carr, of Durham and other prominent capitalists will soon be opened here. There are only two banks—The National and the Citizens—here at present and a new bank would doubtless do a good volume of business.

Superior court with Judge Long, of Statesville presiding, convened here yesterday. It is a civil term.

An unusual case of lock-jaw has appeared in the person of Isaac, the little son of Mr. James Lewis of this city. Some weeks ago the boy fell and broke his arm.

It was promptly set and splinted and was thought to be doing nicely till the other day when, upon examination, Dr. Duguid decided that it was necessary to break and reset it. This after symptoms of tetanus were already apparent. The boy's condition is precarious, he not having rallied under the administration of anti-toxin.

The wife of a colored man by the name of Fernie Moore was seriously burned a day or so since while trying to hold lard over her stove in the rear of a market. In some way her clothing became ignited. She rushed into the street and another colored woman seized her and succeeded after a desperate effort, in extinguishing the flames. The burns will in all probability prove fatal.

DAVIDSON NEWS.

Rev. Johnson, of Charlotte, to Lecture—Personal Notes.

Special to The News. Davidson, N. C., Feb. 8.—Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Charlotte, is to give a series of lectures here, illustrated with stereopticon views. The first one will be given Monday evening in the Biblical Hall and the subject is "The Cliff Dwellers." The others will be given some time in the near future. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged.

Dr. Graham is holding services in the church every evening this week in preparation for the Communion services to be held Sunday. Dr. J. M. Wharey conducted the services Tuesday on account of Dr. Graham being slightly ill.

Miss Mary Marshall Dupuy, who has been visiting in Jacksonville, Fla., returned home Monday night.

Miss Craig, of Salisbury, is visiting at the home of Mrs. A. B. Young.

The new athletic field has been almost completed now, and everyone is hoping that it will be in good condition to play on by the opening of the base ball season. The coach is expected to arrive in a few days, and if the weather is not too bad regular practices will begin at least by the end of the month. The first game is scheduled for the middle of March, and from till the end of the season the team will have its hands full of games.

HIS VALENTINES.

To Maud I'll send a valentine All tinsel, bows and gilded lace; She's such a young sweetheart of mine That gifts like these will be in place; She'll dance for joy, because, you see, My sweetheart Maud, is only three!

To my old sweetheart, grandma dear, I'll send a parcel, trim and neat; Contents I need not mention here—Something to wear, or drink, or eat; No matter! She'll consider it The valentine for her most fit.

For quiet May I'll buy and send A pretty book to read betimes; (She my good comrade is, and friend); To saucy Lil some saucy rhymes; To Ethel flowers; and then—ah, well, To her whose name I will not tell,

Whose tender eyes before me shine, Whose sweet face haunts me, angel fair, I dare not write a valentine. I breathe, instead, a trembling prayer (So dear she is, so far apart). And send her, silently, my heart! —Madeline S. Bridges.

It is easier to induce two hearts to beat as one than it is to induce two mouths to eat that way.

A BOY'S BREAKFAST.

There's a Natural Food That Makes Its Own Way.

There's a boy up in Hoosick Falls, N. Y., who is growing into sturdy manhood on Grape-Nuts breakfasts. It might have been different with him, as his mother explains:

"My 11-year-old boy is large, well developed and active, and has been made so by his fondness for Grape-Nuts food. At five years he was a very nervous child and was subject to frequent attacks of indigestion, which used to rob him of his strength and were very troublesome to deal with. He never seemed to care for anything for his breakfast until I tried Grape-Nuts, and I have never had to change from that. He makes his entire breakfast of Grape-Nuts food. It is always relished by him and he says that it satisfies him better than the ordinary kind of a meal.

"Better than all he is no longer troubled with indigestion or nervousness, and has got to be a splendidly developed fellow since he began to use Grape-Nuts food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in packages.
