Tom Lambert Made to Pay $10 and the Costs Eor Disturbing the Night Lchool at the Victor Mill. Mr. Alfred W. Brown Appeared Against the Young Man.

The most interesting case heard in the Recorder's Court this morning, was the charge against Thomas Lam-Alfred W. Brown.

Mr. Brown, who was a witness against Lambert, testified that the young man appeared on the scene last night and acted in an ugly manner. When he was ordered out of the room, he refused to go. Mr. Brown then used sufficient force in order to eject him. After Lambert was outside, he commenced to curse Mr. Brown and threat-

> John Connor, a well known negro, an employee of the Southern railway, was before the court charged with an assault on Ed. Kirkpatrick. Connor arrived at his home about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and found Kirkpatrick in his house, sitting in a chair. He did not wait for any explanation, but lit on Kirkpatrick and made him hard to catch. Connor's wife pleaded with her husband not to create a scene, telling him that his jealousy had no foundation; that Kirkpatrick merely dropped in and was a meaning of no harm and a hopin' of no hard feelings. Connor declined to accept his wife's version of the affair and caused a scene that completely set the neighbor's tongues wagging.

Rutherfordton, Feb. 14.—The second week of the civil term of Rutherford morning with the case of Gallert vs. Henry Connor, a negro boy with Morrow. Most of the morning and a only one leg, was before the court, portion of the afternoon was taken up in the selection of a jury and other preliminaries of the trial, after which it was begun in earnest. This is a case in which Mr. S. Gallert is sueing Mr. D. F. Morrow for $50,000 damages on account of an article that appeared in the county papers during the heat of the primary, preceding the last general election, which the plaintiff claims was defamitory of his character. Mr. Gallert, the chief witness, was the first to be examined and occupied the greater part of the afternoon yesterday, and it is thought that his testimony will conclude the evidence, as it brought out about all the points involved in the case. The case is a very interestwatched with much interest. A like action is also pending in the court, in which Mr. Morrow is sueing Mr. Gallert for the same amount and on the same grounds, but, it is hardly probable
