

CHARTERS ISSUED TO FIVE LARGE N. C. CORPORATIONS

New Companies at McAdenville, Greensboro, Milton, Concord, Zebulon and Albermarle were To-day Chartered. Murderer of Negro Clark Captured.

Marriage of Miss Annie Margaret Dughi and Mr. James Maag. Beautiful Ceremony, Reception To-night, Escaped Convict Arrested.

Special to The News. Raleigh, Feb. 21.—Charters were issued for five new corporations at a capital stock aggregating $200,000.

The others are the Central Electric Company, of Greensboro, at a $25,000 capital, by D. C. Waddell, C. W. Petty, and others; the Milton Bridge Company, of Milton, Caswell county at a $50,000 capital, by R. L. Walker and others; the Dove Best Mercantile Company, of Concord, at a $10,000 capital, by D. L. Bost and others.

The Zeberlon Company, at a $50,000 capital, by E. B. Barbee and others, to develop the new town of Zeberlon on the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad and the Albermarle Grocery Company, of Albermarle, at a $25,000 capital by Lewis Hartsell and others.

Ben Williams, the negro who killed Alex Clark here Monday evening, was captured last night at Hamlet and brought to Raleigh this afternoon to await trial for his life.

This morning at 10 o'clock in the Church of the Sacred Heart, Miss Annie Margaret Dughi, of this city and Mr. James D. Maag, of Baltimore, were united in marriage in accordance with the impressive Roman Catholic service, Rev. Father Griffin, the rector, officiating.

The church was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and Southern smilax and myriad candles burned on the altar and elsewhere about the lovely little church. The nuptial mass was said and the wedding ceremony performed in an especially impressive manner.

The bridal party were Miss Rebecca Gordon and Miss Louise Dughi bridesmaids, little Misses Susan Brown and Margaret Dughi ring bearers, Miss Rosa Dughi maid of honor, Mr. Henry Bunch best man and Mr. Scanlon, Mr. Norwood Watts, Mr. Albert Bretch and Mr. Drisco ushers.

Tonight from 8 to 12 o'clock there was an elaborate reception in honor of the bride's father at the home of the bride's father on North Sanders street. Probably 200 guests called during the evening. The special decorations and illuminations for the affair were especially handsome and the courses of refreshments served during the evening were up to the highest type of the caterers art, Mr. Dughi, the bride's father, being especially noted for his successful catering for practically all of the elaborate banquets and similar functions in every part of North Carolina.

The bride was the recipient of numerous and handsome gifts, testimonials of the love and esteem which is hers in a wide circle of admiring friends. The groom is a prosperous young business man of Baltimore, a son of Mr. Augustus Maag, manufacturer of ice cream molds and caterers supplies.

Governor Glenn returned this afternoon from Wilmington and New Bern and expresses himself delighted with his visit to each of these cities. He says he addressed immense and remarkably attentive audiences in both places and the hospitality extended to him far exceeded anything he could possibly have anticipated. He enjoyed every minute of his stay both at New Bern and Wilmington. He says the temperance force in Wilmington are marshaling strength and are leaving no stone unturned to further the cause.

The A. & M. College authorities have issued an order countermanning the permission that had been given for the opening of the Pullen hall as a public skating rink. It will only be used for skating by the students and lady friends on the evening before Washington's birthday a sort of festive celebration.

WAS PROBABLY MURDERED. Young Alfred Bard, Son of Former California Senator Met Death in Europe—Foul Play Suspicioned.

By Associated Press. New York, Feb. 21.—That Alfred M. Bard, nephew of former Senator Bard, of California, met his death in Europe by foul play was the statement made by Detective, Sergeant John J. Fogarty, who returned to New York today from Brussels, Belgium.

Bard intended to return to New York on a steamer leaving Brussels, October 20.

A French girl with whom the young man had become acquainted in Brussels was responsible for the postponement of his departure the detective said.

Fogarty declined to talk further about the case except to say that young Bard was dead and probably murdered.

MOBILE'S QUARANTINE.

To Be Into Effect March 1—Every Vessel and Passenger to Be Examined.

Mobile, Ala., Feb. 21.—The quarantine, which in this instance means detention and inspection, goes into effect against Havana and all Cuban and other tropical ports on March 1st, as the statement by Dr. Rhett Goode, health officer of Mobile, today.

All vessels from Havana will be detained at the quarantine station for inspection, the length of time to be determined by the health officer at the quarantine station in Mobile Bay.

Every passenger will undergo examination. If there is any suspicious sickness on board the patient or patients will be isolated and the steamer and passengers held for a required period, the length of which will be determined at a meeting of the Quarantine Board to be held within the next few days. Through passengers for points beyond Mobile will not be affected by the ruling.

Freight is not affected.

JOHNSON MUST DIE.

Although Small Confessed To Complicity in the Crime it Does Not Change the Sentence of Johnson.

By Associated Press. Mount Holly, Feb. 21.—Prosecutor Atkinson said that the confession of George Small a negro, to complicity in the murder of Miss Florence W. Allison will not interfere with the execution of Rufus Johnson, another negro, now under sentence of death for the crime. The prosecutor said: the accused was found guilty of murder by the due process of the law. His guilt is beyond doubt and the law will take its course just as though Small had not confessed his share in the murder.

Voluminous Petition Presented to Senate from Women in Wyoming, Praying for Expulsion from Senate of Senator Smoot, Mr. Warren's Endorsement.

By Associated Press. Washington, Feb. 21.—Senator Smoot received another endorsement in the Senate today. It came from Mr. Warren, who, upon the convening for the day's session, presented a voluminous petition from women in Wyoming praying for the expulsion of Mr. Smoot from the Senate. He said he had been requested to accompany the presentation of the petition with some remarks of his own. He added: "The subject of the petition is before the proper committee and I hope to be guided by the report of the committee when made. If I should express my opinion before the report is made, I should be inclined to endorse what was said on the subject a few days since by the Senator from California.

Upon conclusion of the routine business at 12:20 P. M., the Senate went into executive session on motion of Mr. Morgan.

To Vote On Bill. When at 12:50 p. m. the doors were reopened the Pure Food Bill was taken up. A vote will be had on the bill before adjournment today.

Amend Resolution. At the suggestion of Senator Tillman the House committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce made an amendment in the resolution which had agreed to recommend for a favorable action for an investigation of the alleged railway monopoly of coal and oil.

As the resolution was originally framed, it provided for an investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission as to whether the railways own the coal and oil they hauled, but it was the purpose of the commission to extend its investigation definitely to the alleged railway ownership of mines and oil properties.

HORSE HIT TRAIN.

Peculiar Runaway in New Bern—A Coming Entertainment—The "Deestric Skule."

Special to The News. New Bern, N. C., Feb. 21.—There was quite an exciting runaway on South Front street yesterday. A dray horse ran away and in the course of his flight dashed into a passing freight train. Both of his front legs were cut off by the car wheels and he was otherwise mutilated, being killed instantly. Fortunately he had broken loose from the vehicle to which he was attached, thus the driver escaped injury.

The "Deestric Skule" performance, a local play, was greeted by a record-breaking house last night. Standing room was at a premium.

The following invitation, savoring of ye olde English, has been received in New Bern: "Ye pleasure of your gracious preference is requested at a Washington Reception, to be given at ye rooms of ye Daughter on Broad Street, at eight o'ye clock, ye 22nd, of February, 1906."

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Taylor was buried here yesterday. Miss Lucy Rishton, formerly a resident of this city, died at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Saturday night, where she had gone for special treatment.

MORRIS DEMANDED A PUBLIC APOLOGY FROM PRESIDENT

Dr. Minor Morris, Husband of Woman Recently Ejected From White House, Gives Out Correspondence Between Himself and the President.

Demanded Apology for "Outrage on Womanhood and Common Decency." Secretary Loeb Answered Letter. Advises a Closing of the Affair at Once.

By Associated Press. Washington, Feb. 21.—Dr. Minor Morris, whose wife some weeks ago was ejected from the White House, where she had gone to present alleged grievances to the President, today gave out for publication the correspondence which recently passed between himself and the President regarding the case.

Dr. Morris demanded a public apology from the President. "For this outrage on womanhood and common decency." Secretary Loeb replied to the letter stating that an investigation by the chief of police showed the arrest was justified, and the kindest act to Mrs. Morris and her kinsfolk was to refrain from giving the case additional publicity.

FUNERAL OF MRS. EMERY.

Will Be Held From St. Peter's Episcopal Church Tomorrow Afternoon at 4 O'clock.

The funeral of Mrs. Addie Gilmer Emery, wife of Mr. Joseph H. Emery, who died last night at her home on North Graham street, will take place from St. Peter's Episcopal church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, the pastor, will conduct the service. The interment will be in Elmwood. The pall-bearers will be Messrs. H. A. London, Jr., J. Frank Wilkes, Thomas M. Webb, Joseph E. Wearn, A. S. Cureton, J. F. Ware and C. B. Flournoy.

Mrs. Emery was stricken yesterday afternoon shortly before 6 o'clock with apoplexy. Her condition gradually grew worse and at 9 o'clock death came as a sweet relief from suffering.

The deceased was a daughter of Capt. Samuel Neisler, and had been a resident of Charlotte most of her life. When a young lady she connected herself with the Episcopal church and was one of St. Peter's most devoted members. She always took a leading part in the work of the church and was one of the best of women.

It was in her home that this good woman's true worth was best known and most appreciated. She was the devoted wife, the loving mother and the best of neighbors. Her heart was easily touched and none ever went to her for sympathy or comfort but who were repaid.

In the charity work of the church, Mrs. Emery always extended a helping hand. In fact, wherever there was grief or suffering the hand of this good woman was outstretched. She was loved by all who knew her and her death will be sincerely mourned.

Surviving the deceased are her husband, Mr. L. H. Emery and five children, George, Margaret, Joseph, Samuel and Mildred Emery. Besides these, her father, Capt. Samuel Neisler and three sisters, Mrs. Shakespear of Philadelphia; Mrs. La Moine of New York and Mrs. E. T. Byers of this county, two brothers, Messrs. Thomas and Samuel Neisler, also survive. The deceased was 40 years old.

PROBABLY PASS PURE FOOD BILL

Measure in Senate this Afternoon. Many Changes Made to Prevent Injustice to Manufacturers, Distillers, Patent Medicine, Etc.

By Associated Press. Washington, Feb. 21.—The so-called "Pure Food Bill" will be voted and probably passed by the Senate late this afternoon. There has been a great deal of opposition to the measure from distillers, manufacturers of food products and makers of proprietary medicines. In response to appeals the original language of the bill has been considerably modified and Senator Hepburn, who has it in charge, has agreed to accept a number of amendments, which will still further prevent possible injustice.

ARMY APPROPRIATIONS.

The House regular Army Appropriation Bill was taken up when the House met. An agreement was reached to continue the general debate for eight hours. Chairman Hull, of the Military Committee, took the floor to explain the bill.

The bill carries a total appropriation of $69,678,592, which is less by $1,521,158 than the amount asked for by the Department.

A MARRIAGE TOMORROW.

The marriage of Miss Mattie McMillan and Mr. Bradey McNellis will take place at St. Peter's Catholic church tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Father Joseph officiating. The following people arrived in Charlotte this morning to attend the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McMillan, parents of the bride, Mrs. T. C. Green, Mrs. J. T. Green and Miss Bessie McDow, all of Lancaster, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan and daughter, Miss Christine McMillan, of Rock Hill, S. C.

—Owing to the absence of several officers of the Greater Charlotte Club, the meeting announced for tomorrow night has been postponed until Friday week.

SUBJECT "TEMPERANCE."

Governor's Theme in Wilmington—Junior Order May Have Orphanage at Wilmington.

Special to The News. Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 21.—Governor Glenn spoke Monday night on "Temperance" at the Academy of Music. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity. The Governor spoke for at least an hour and a half and held the crowd with his eloquence throughout the discourse. The Governor arrived in the city Monday afternoon from New Bern on the 12:20 P. M. train and was met at the depot by a party of prominent citizens. A special car of the Consolidated Company was in waiting which quickly transported the distinguished visitor and party to Wrightsville Beach, where he was entertained at lunch. The Governor was the guest of Mr. W. B. Cooper while in the city.

Mr. Alexander McAllister, the young baggage master, whose severe illness was chronicled in these columns recently, died early Monday morning, and the funeral was held in Rocky Point, the old home of the deceased, the Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, of this city, officiating.

The Junior Order of United American Mechanics of this city are putting forth efforts to have the orphanage of the order located in this city, or near here, and the representatives to the Grand Lodge which meets in Salisbury this week, have commissioned to do everything their power to that end. The lodges of this city have contributed $1,000 to the fund and Messrs. Hugh McRae & Co. have donated land near Winter Park Gardens upon which to build the orphanage.

When the weather is pleasant great crowds of people take advantage of the fact and go down to Lumina on Sunday to enjoy the sea breezes and a delightful oyster roast at that resort. It is a fact also for social events to be held there during the week and many such functions have been held during the present season.

DR. BRODIE NALLE BETTER.

Dr. Brodie C. Nalle, who was removed to St. Peter's Hospital yesterday, is much better today. He suffered an attack of appendicitis, and it was at first thought that an operation would be necessary. Dr. George Ben Johnston, the prominent Richmond, Va., surgeon, arrived in the city this morning to perform the operation, but after examination decided to wait until the attack is over.

REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Mr. R. H. Jordan has sold to Mr. P. M. Brown a store-house and two cottages on the corner of Stonewall and Alexander streets. The consideration was $1,600 and the transfer was made through the real estate department of the Southern Real Estate Loan and Trust Company.

HIS 81ST BIRTHDAY.

Mr. W. M. Vandiver, one of Charlotte's best known citizens, celebrated his 81st birthday today. Mr. Vandiver is one of the oldest residents of Charlotte and his host of friends hope that he will pass many more mile stones, in just as good health as he now enjoys.

WENT ACROSS THE LINE.

Belmont Couple Married by Squire Epps—Other News Notes. The Belmont correspondent of The News sends in the following news notes:

There are a number of cases of measles in our town.

Mr. Sidney McLelland, of Concord, spent Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. A. B. McKinnon.

We are glad to state that Dr. Hiatt is now able to be out. He has been quite sick since moving to Belmont.

Mrs. D. F. O'Brien is spending this week with her father's formerly at Rockingham.

Mr. L. J. Hildebrand and Miss Lilly Benfield went across the line Sunday and were united in marriage by Squire Epps.

The "town incorporation boom" that sprung up so suddenly a few days ago has, like the ground hog, played out. The great meeting was a farce in every particular.

We are sorry to note that Mr. G. F. Navy continues in very poor health.

Mr. Fulton Cole has returned from Rockingham, where he went on business.

Mr. A. F. McKinnon is very much improved after a right severe illness.

"GENERAL" MAYFIELD.

He Has Been Gathering Up Clothing and Now is in the Tolls.

"General" Mayfield, a well known negro was arrested this afternoon, charged with stealing a lot of clothing from a number of residences in the city. Mayfield has been going from house to house informing people that he works for certain pressing clubs and that he had been sent after clothes. He has been able, by this means, to gather a lot of second hand clothing. The police have a lot of the clothing at the station. If the owners come they can secure these belongings.

MR. BUSBEE'S NEW POSITION.

The Raleigh News and Observer has the following in its issue of today: "Friends throughout the State of Mr. Richard H. Busbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, will be glad to know that he is to come from Atlanta to Charlotte to reside. He has been promoted for the third time in two years, and is given the territory of Virginia and North Carolina for the Glenn Falls Insurance Company. Mr. and Mrs. Busbee are to go to Charlotte the latter part of this month, and it will be a pleasure to have them in the State again."

HOLIDAY AT POSTOFFICE.

Tomorrow Washington's birthday, being a legal holiday, the force at the city postoffice will observe the regular holiday hours. The carriers will make the regular morning delivery, also the business delivery. The general delivery window will remain open until 6 o'clock. The money order and stamp windows will close at 12 o'clock, noon. The rural carriers will make no trips during the day.

SCHOOLS CLOSE TOMORROW.

The city graded school will close tomorrow in honor of Washington's birthday.
