

THE TWENTY-THIRD VICTIM OF WRECK DIED THIS MORNING

Rosa McBride, One of the Worst of the Injured Died at the Good Samaritan Hospital at 8 O'clock This Morning. Three Others Are Expected to Die.

Nine of the Injured Brought Here Will Be Discharged This Afternoon. Only One or Two Limbs Have Been Amputated. Thirty in Hospital.

The twenty-third victim of the horrible wreck on the Seaboard Air line near Hamlet Sunday evening, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital this morning at 8 o'clock.

The unfortunate one was Rosa McBride, a well known woman of Hamlet. She was one of the occupants of the Jim Crow car which was smashed to pieces and in which 21 negroes were killed.

All day yesterday the life of this poor unfortunate was hanging by a brittle thread, and it was expected at that moment that death would relieve her of her sufferings. She sustained several fractures of the arms and legs, her right eye was entirely displaced and her head and body were torn and gashed in number of places.

In fact it seems hardly possible that she could have survived the awful catastrophe for any length of time. The body has been prepared for burial and will be slipped on the afternoon train to relatives in Hamlet.

Of the remaining 41 injured, now in the Good Samaritan Hospital, Dr. H. M. Wilder, informs The News this afternoon that nine will be discharged today and will be allowed to return to their respective homes.

Of the 31 that will remain in the Good Samaritan Hospital three sustained injuries that will probably result fatally. Two of these are very severely wounded and little or no hope is entertained for their recovery.

Everything possible is being done for the comfort and these poor unfortunate, and the hospital authorities as well as the physicians deserve commendation for the great work in their interests.

The physicians who administered to the relief of the negroes here were: Drs. F. M. Winchester, B. J. Witherspoon, Thos. H. Wright, C. S. McLaughlin, C. M. Strong and H. M. Wilder, the latter the very efficient surgeon of the Seaboard Air Line here.

Every one of these well known physicians did valiant service yesterday and last night and their splendid work is deserving of special mention. The Seaboard could not have possibly gotten together a more efficient corps of physicians to attend to their wounded.

BRYAN AMENDMENT TO ARBITRATION TREATY ADOPTED

Mr. Bryan's Amendment to Arbitration Treaty Discussed by Council of Inter-Parliamentary Union and Adopted. What the Amendment Provides.

Mr. Bryan Said if the Hand of War Could be Stayed Until Conscience Was Awakened War Would Become Remote. A Step Toward Peace.

By Associated Press. London, July 24.—Mr. Bryan's proposed rider to the model arbitration treaty was discussed by the international council of the Inter-Parliamentary Union and being recast, as follows was adopted:

"If a disagreement should arise which is not included in those to be submitted to arbitration the contracting parties shall not resort to any act of hostilities before they separately or jointly invite, as the case may necessitate, the formation of an international commission of inquiry or mediation of one or more friendly powers, this resolution to take place if necessary in accordance with article VIII of the Hague Convention providing for the peaceful settlement of international conflicts."

Mr. Bryan said his amendment was aimed at widening the scope of arbitration so as to include the questions of national honor, the chances being a hundred to one that the proposed investigation of facts would also settle any question of national honor.

If the hand of war could be stayed until the conscience was awakened, wars would become more remote. The amendment therefore was a long step in the direction of peace.

CHAOS REIGNS SUPREME

Russian Empire in State of Great Pandemonium—Much Bloodshed and Ruin.

By Associated Press. St. Petersburg, July 24.—The way has been prepared for a military dictatorship by the proposition now under consideration at Peterhof to create an advisory council to assist the Emperor.

All the old bureaucratic machinery of suppression has been placed in operation to prevent an explosion. Domestic searches continue in all quarters of the capital, prisons are already filling. An old, blind system of attempting to conceal from the people what is happening has been adopted. The censorship of the press has been re-established with vigor unknown since the days of the late Interior Minister, Von Plehve, accompanied by the wholesale confiscation of newspapers. No word of the proceedings of the members of parliament at Viborg or of the address adopted has been permitted to be published. Telegrams from the provinces, telling of the universal indignation aroused by dissolution and even those from abroad outlining public opinion in the foreign countries has been emasculated or suppressed.

The most serious immediate problem confronting the government is what to do with the members of the outlawed parliament. Proclamations announcing that the death sentence will be imposed on the Emperor, General Troppoff, M. Pobiedonostseff, who was Procurator General of the Holy Synod; General Orloff, the "Pacifier" of the Baltic provinces, and others have been scattered over part of Peterhof. Terrorists are said to have succeeded in causing copies of the sentence put on the doors of General Orloff's and General Troppoff's quarters.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY NEAR STATESVILLE

John Feimster, a Negro, Holds Up Mr. Cicero Fulp at the Point of a Pistol. Took His Money, Watch and Coat. Was Later Captured.

Special to The News. Statesville, July 24.—A highway robbery by John Feimster, colored, caused some excitement in the Loray neighborhood Sunday afternoon. Mr. Cicero Fulp was on his way home from Concord church, and was walking peacefully along the railroad track when John Feimster met him, and covering him with a pistol, demanded that he give up all the money he had. Mr. Fulp thereupon gave him all he had, fifteen cents, but the negro took Mr. Fulp's watch out of his pocket and the coat he had on and passed on. Mr. Fulp gave the alarm to the neighbors and with shot guns the surrounded Feimster in a swamp nearby and captured him.

Feimster had caused considerable uneasiness before he held up Mr. Fulp. He went to Mr. Fulp's home and frightened Mrs. Fulp by shooting at chickens and dogs. He was drunk and did no damage to the chickens, but his drunken condition made him the more dangerous.

After leaving Mr. Fulp's house he met some children in the road and drew his gun on them. They ran. He had shot out all his ammunition and the pistol was empty when he covered Mr. Fulp, but Mr. Fulp didn't happen to know it.

The Feimster negro is a bad man and dangerous. Some time ago he went into a fight at Logan colored church near Loray, and came out with his head badly beaten. He was brought here for treatment and finally recovered, though the physicians thought there was no hope for him. He afterwards got into trouble here and it is said went to Texas. He had not been seen in this vicinity for some time until Sunday.

When arrested he had on his person a razor, a pistol, a banjo, two knives, a bottle of whiskey, two small flower vases and a pin tray, which it is thought he had stolen from some one's house. Mr. Fulp recovered his fifteen cents and knife.

John is in jail here and when court meets next week he will probably find a number of charges against him, all of which will keep him on the roads or in the penitentiary for some time.

SEVEN KILLED AND NUMBER INJURED RAILWAY WRECK

Seven Lives Were Lost, Seven Seriously Injured and Score or More Injured In Wreck of Fast Train on Great Northern Railway.

Locomotive on Emerging From Tunnel Plunged Over Embankment Into Waters of Diamond Lake. Still Far Under Water. Cause of Wreck.

By Associated Press. Spokane, Wash., July 24.—At least seven lives were lost, seven seriously injured and a score of others sustained cuts and bruises in the wreck of the fast mail train on the Great Northern, near Camden, Washington, yesterday afternoon when the locomotive, mail, baggage and smoking cars left the rails on emerging from the tunnel and plunging over the embankment were submerged in the waters of Diamond Lake.

Spreading rails, probably, caused by sun kinks is given as the cause. Engineer Munson and Fireman Bell evidently stuck to their posts, and it is believed, too, that the locomotive is in from one to three hundred feet of water.

Two divers made a half dozen attempts to find the locomotive but were not successful.

A FOUR HANDED RUCUS.

Two Negro Men Throw Rocks While Their Sisters Have a Little Battle Too.

A rather complicated relationship fight was up for hearing before Squire Severs today in which two negro men, living near Arlington, in Paw Creek township, threw rocks at each other while their sisters in a more feminine manner, tried to have a little scrap of their own.

The cases were entitled, the State vs. Fannie Rameur for assaulting Lusa Powell, and the State vs. Sam Rameur, for assaulting James Powell with rocks.

The court after a thorough investigation of the matter decided that in the incident scrap between the women, nobody was guilty of an assault, and no damage was done. The defendant was dismissed.

In the case against Sam Rameur, however, it appeared that he had used dangerous weapons in the shape of rocks to pursue his enemy, and he was charged up with the costs in the case, amounting to several dollars.

The Rameurs were the aggressors and the Powells the object of their aggression in each case, it being one of those complicated family affairs that sports experience most trouble in unravelling clearly.

The participants after settling with the court were admonished to go their ways and sin no more.
