

MR. N. B. BROUGHTON BATTLED WITH SEA

Was Swept out by Waves and Rescued by Capt. Munroe of the Wilmington Fire Department. To Organize Soldiers Association.

Special The News. Wilmington, Aug. 28.—Mr. N. B. Broughton, Jr., of Raleigh, a prominent young man of that town, and well known throughout the State, had a narrow escape from drowning at Wrightsville Beach yesterday afternoon.

Special The News. Wilmington, Aug. 28.—Mr. N. B. Broughton, Jr., of Raleigh, a prominent young man of that town, and well known throughout the State, had a narrow escape from drowning at Wrightsville Beach yesterday afternoon.

peny's service with headquarters at Montgomery, Ala. It is proposed to form an association of the veterans who participated in the famous battle of Fort Fisher which occurred during the civil war a few miles below Wilmington and with this idea in view those interested in the movement have prepared the following call for assemblage wherein will be given to all the prominent State papers for publication.

"All the survivors of the famous battle of Fort Fisher are earnestly requested to assemble in the city of Wilmington at 10 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, Sept. 10th, 1906, for the purpose of forming the 'Fort Fisher Survivors' Association, electing officers for the same and formulating definite plans for annual reunions and a general reunion of all the forces which participated in said battles. Comrades in distant States, who cannot attend in person this meeting Sept. 1st are requested to be represented by proxy. Comrades will be notified of place of meeting as soon as they arrive in the city. All who expect to attend this meeting will please notify at once J. A. Smith, 215 Walnut street, or John W. West, 601 North Fifth street, Wilmington, N. C.

The railroads will furnish the best possible rates for this meeting and publish the same."

DEATH OF MISS BUMPAS. Daughter of Rev. Dr. Bumpas of Raleigh, Died Sunday Night—Father in the East.

Special The News. New Bern, Aug. 28.—One of the saddest deaths that ever occurred in New Bern was that of Miss Jessie Bumpas at 10:30 o'clock Sunday night. She was the only child of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Bumpas, of Raleigh. Several weeks ago she came here to visit the family of Mr. J. A. Meadows and was taken ill, typhoid fever soon developing in a most virulent type. Everything that skilled medical treatment and excellent nursing could do was constantly done for her relief, but to no avail.

To make the case peculiarly sad, her father Rev. Dr. Bumpas, pastor of the Edenton Street M. E. Church, Raleigh, is absent on a tour through the Holy Land, and was not informed of his daughter's critical condition, it being thought best not to apprise him of the fact as he would be unable to reach home in time. The lines have fallen heavily upon Dr. and Mrs. Bumpas, they having lost their only son with the same disease a few years ago. The young lady's remains were carried to Durham for interment. Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of the Centenary M. E. Church here, accompanied them. There were few dry eyes at the railway station yesterday morning as numerous friends took leave of the sorrow stricken mother who was almost heartbroken beneath the burden of her double grief.

TO SALISBURY IN AN AUTOMOBILE

Special The News. Salisbury, Aug. 28.—The funeral of Mr. James R. Springle, who died at the home of his father in the South Ward yesterday morning early, was held this morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Arthur E. Reynolds, who has been sojourning in New York city for several weeks purchased a fine auto. car in the Metropolis, and is making the journey to Salisbury in his machine. He is expected home tomorrow, having left New York on Aug. 6th, making several stops en route.

Dr. Kinard, of Knoxville, Tenn., the new pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, in this city, will arrive in Salisbury Thursday and will at once take up his duties as pastor of the congregation here.

Capt. James M. Bowles, supervisor on the Salisbury-Norwood branch of the Southern, has tendered his resignation, effective yesterday and will accept a more flattering position with another road. Capt. Bowles has made a most efficient supervisor and much respect is expressed at his determination to locate elsewhere. The term of Rowan Superior Court which convened yesterday with Judge Ferguson on the bench does not promise to be as sensational as was expected. It is not now known whether the cases against the accused murderers of the Lyverly family or the ones against the alleged lynchers will be called at this term of court or not. It has proven so far to be an exceptionally quiet term. There is by no means the number of attendants which were in evidence at the special term early in the month and everything is moving off quietly and without any excitement. Mrs. Jane Wright, the aged mother of Mrs. R. M. Pendleton, is seriously ill at the home of her daughter on South Lee street and her death is expected at any hour.

ONE THOUSAND BUCKET SHOPS.

Now Supported in the United States—How Shall They Be Suppressed? Merrill A. Teague offers the following suggestions in his concluding article on "Bucket-Shop Sharks," in the September "Everybody's." "What Senator Kyle reported in 1898 is more cogent now than it was then, for the 400 bucket-shops have grown to be more than 1,000 and a mighty nation, riding on the crest of a wave of unparalleled prosperity, is daily more headlong in its rush to play the game thieves are operating. But, you ask, what is the action the Congress should take? I will answer in a sentence: "Pass an act which will bring the wires leased by the telegraph and telephone companies to brokerage or commission houses, of whatsoever kind, under the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission, with power vested in the commission to verify reports made by the companies and to prohibit the use of privately leased wires by bucket-shops. "For a quarter of a century these companies have been swelling their dividends with toll taken from knaves who have robbed and swindled almost without restraint. The time will come when a parental government will check this. The companies will assert and try to sustain in court, that brokerage-use of their wires cannot be construed as being interstate commerce. Can it? Within the realm of brokerage, wires are leased for transmitting quotations and orders. Quotations are the steam in the boilers of the bucket-shops; without them the thieves would have nothing with which to crive their engines—nothing against which their dupes might bet."

A Bird Freak. Back on the dry prairies the sickle-billed curlew, the marbled godwit, the upland or field plover, the killdeer nested; but this group of the avocet, willet and Wilson's phalarope—form a distinct unit,—shore-birds which nest beside the grassy pools in this southern section of the northwest shore-bird paradise. Of this trinity of odd characters—bird-freaks, we might call them—while the curlew, the godwit, the plover and the shining light is certainly the avocet. Its very appearance is distinguished, and instantly arrest attention. The plumage is of sharply contrasted black and white, with yellowish buff on head and neck; the legs are like stilts, while the bill, is long and slender, curving up in a way to make one wonder how the creature can eat. The first pair which I ever saw, on the shore of a Dakota lake, made a profound impression on me by their appearance and graceful movement as they ran jauntily about pursuing some sort of insect prey. The saying that what is meat to one may be poison to another is well exemplified in the avocet. For our part we have to exercise great care in that western country to avoid drinking alkaline water, whereas the avocet dislikes the insipid stuff which we extol as pure. Seemingly it is as objectionable to him as food without salt is to us. Hence we have to travel well west toward the Bad Lands of Dakota before we find the water sufficiently seasoned to suit our dainty epicure and to induce him to remain for the summer. Even the most unsavory mud hole, which is too bad for most of the other birds, is not without attraction for that crover of strong condiment.—Herbert K. Job in "Some Lake-Side Waders of the Northwest," in "The Outing Magazine" for September.

In the case of police magistrates, some one has remarked that his work is a fine art.

Thin Blood

Experience count anything with you? Then what do you think of 60 years' experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla! Sixty years of curing thin blood, weak nerves, general debility! We wish you would ask your own doctor about this. Ask him to tell you honestly what he thinks it will do for your case. Then do precisely as he says.

CABARRUS COURT.

In Session This Week—A Big Republic Pow Wow to Be Held Sept. 22—Store Robbed. Special to The News. Concord, Aug. 28.—The August term of the Cabarrus county superior court convened yesterday morning with his Honor Judge R. B. Peebles presiding and Solicitor Heriot Clarkson prosecuting. The calling of the jury brought forth many excuses and Judge Peebles excused several who had been drawn for service.

As soon as the grand jury was drawn and sworn in Judge Peebles delivered his charge and the criminal docket was taken up. The most prominent case is that against Will Cannon for the killing of Calvin Taylor on July 4th at a negro picnic at Cedar Grove, near this city in No. 2 township. The criminal docket will consume the most of the week.

Early Sunday morning Chief of Police Boger caught a young negro boy, Theodore Wright, in the store of the White-Morrison-Flowe Co. He went in by a cellar door, a trick he has played frequently before, each time raiding the cash drawer and carrying off what change was left there. This had become so frequent and common that Saturday night two of the employees of the store remained in the building until 5 o'clock, at that hour being relieved by Chief Boger. About 7 o'clock the boy came in the usual way and was caught. The cellar door is a double one fastened on the inside by a bar. The door gave sufficient space for the boy to get his hand or a thin bar through, and by this means lift the bar, opening the door. The little negro has been caught at this kind of work before.

E. Spencer Blackburn, the Republican nominee for Congress in this district, J. Frank Linney and Thomas Settle, of Asheville, are to be in this city on September 22nd for the Republican county convention. They come at the request of the chairman of the party in Cabarrus county, and on this day the Republicans are expected to open up the campaign. Just now there is not much in Republican circles by way of news. There is a contest on for chairman of the county clubs by way of news. There is a candidate for this position and he is bestirring himself to that end.

Death of Coco Cola President.

Mr. Luther Snyder, local manager of the Charlotte Coco Cola Bottling Works will leave this evening for Atlanta, Ga., to attend the funeral of Mr. J. B. Whitehead, whose death occurred at his home in that city early this morning. Mr. Whitehead was president of the Coco Cola Bottling Company and in memory of his death the Charlotte office will be closed tomorrow.

Recovered His Gold Watch.

Capt. Pope Barrow, who runs between Charlotte and Atlanta, has recovered his valuable gold watch which was lost in the city several days ago. Mr. L. E. Williams, traveling representative for the Beaufort Ginger Ale Company, found the watch and left it at Greenville, S. C., where it was properly identified as the property of Capt. Barrow. Engraved on the inside case was Capt. Barrow's address which was given at Greenville, his former home.

RESTAURANT NEEDS CASH.

Proprietor Has Good Moral Backing, But Must Have Money Support or Close His Doors. Schenectady, N. Y., Aug. 27.—The proprietor of the largest restaurant in this city has suspended a huge banner in front of his establishment and upon it is the following announcement: "I have tried hard to give this city a good, clean restaurant, where young men and women could go without the evil influences of intoxicating drinks. My patronage has not been sufficient to make it pay, so I must sell out or close in a few days if I do not get more business. Some of my creditors are suing me and can get judgment. I will pay every dollar I owe if given a chance."

It was a little more than a year ago that a delegation from the ministerial association opened this restaurant with prayer. No intoxicating liquors were to be sold within its walls, and it was to be closed on prayer-meeting nights and during all church services on Sundays. Despite its ecclesiastical backing the business has not prospered.

DEPREDAATIONS BY WOLVES.

Raids on Live Stock Are Causing Heavy Losses to Ranchmen. Ozona, Tex., Aug. 27.—The depredations of gray and lobo wolves upon live stock this part of the State are causing serious losses to ranchmen. Robert Massie, who owns a ranch near here, reports that forty-three head of his steers were killed in one month by wolves. Clay Montgomery, another ranchman, suffered a loss of thirty head of grown steers from the same cause during the same period. Arrangements are being made for a grand hunt for wolves, wildcats and coyotes by the ranchmen of this and adjacent counties.

Coon in Chicken House.

A "coon," and a full grown one, was discovered last night in the chicken house of Mr. Rogers who lives on North Caldwell street. The discovery was made by Mr. C. C. Martin who lives next door to Mr. Rogers. Late in the night he heard a noise in his neighbor's chicken house and thinking it was a chicken thief awoke Mr. Rogers. The two crept to the fowl house and there made the discovery that a full grown "coon" was in the house trying to make way with some of the chickens. The animal was captured.
