Mr. Bryan Arrives in Raleigh and Speaks in Metropolitan Hall to Enthusiastic Audience. Rain Throws Dampers on Ardor of People.

Mr. Bryan Answers Speeches of Secretary Shaw in this State. Leaves at 3 p. m. for Greensboro Where he Speaks Tonight. His Itinerary.

By Associated Press. Raleigh, N. C., September 17.—Mr. Bryan arrived to make eleven speeches in North Carolina, winding up with an address at Charlotte tomorrow night.

Not more than 400 persons were at the station, and as the procession moved to Metropolitan Hall, there was no demonstration whatever.

The limited capacity of the hall was filled. Governor Glenn introduced Mr. Bryan briefly and announced that the overflow meeting would be held in the capitol square, as there were indications of clearing skies.

Received Splendid Ovation. Raleigh, Sept. 17.—Hon. William Jennings Bryan received a splendid ovation in the Metropolitan Hall here today although there was a marked absence of cheers or enthusiasm on the part of the people who lined the sidewalk as the procession moved from the depot to the hall.

The first part of Bryan's address was delivered in answer to Secretary Shaw's recent speeches in this State. He will answer Secretary Shaw more especially at Greensboro and Winston-Salem tomorrow. Mr. Bryan was heard here only by about 800 people owing to the rain and the necessity to speak in doors.

Mr. Bryan's Speech. Raleigh, N. C., September 17.—For an overflow meeting of 2,000 people in the capitol square after the speech in the hall Governor Glenn introduced Mr. Bryan as the man whom he hoped and prayed would be our next president.

Mr. Bryan declared he confidently expected a Democratic triumph two years hence. Mr. Bryan declared that there was less reason than ever to make speeches in this state and the Republicans themselves were making the Democrats. He said that he had tried to show that Mr. Roosevelt's popularity was due entirely to the Democratic ideas he had adopted.

He had proven that wherever a Republican talked boastfully of anything his party had done that it was really a good thing; it would develop that each and every ground for boasting was carrying out some principle contended for by the Democratic party and the Republicans had been forced by public sentiment to adopt it.

They only success he declared had been where following the Democratic ideas. He said that if the principles of Democracy could only be patented 17 years so that the Republicans would not usurp them the Republican party would be dead before the 17 years passed.
