KINDNESS.

A language which the dumb can speak and the deaf can understand—Bovee.

The only road to advancement is to do your work so well that you are always ahead of the demands of your position. Our employers do not decide whether we shall stay where we are or go on and up; we decide them for ourselves. Success or failure are not chosen for us; we choose them for ourselves.—Hamilton Wright Mabie.

Conversation.

There is an ever-recurrent plaint that conversation is a lost art. Conversation is not an art; it is a habit. The talking habit is a subtle tute for the thinking habit. Side by side the two cannot exist. Side is best exemplified by the average politician. The same thing may be observed by listening to preachers.

Talking as a habit has not gone out entirely. Many young girls are still taught to begin chattering as soon as they join a crowd and to keep on chattering as long as their breath holds out. Many young men are still encouraged to be brilliant conversationalists, which means that they are to say nothing glibly to people who not only are not interested but who are trying to do something themselves.

People who have ideas worth expressing do not have enough of them to vie with the chatters. Furthermore, it is hard for them to find people who can or will grasp ideas. Finally, the fewer words used to express an idea the better. Ideas are the greatest known foe to conversation.

If, therefore, the so-called art of conversation is obsolescent, there is no need for worry. To say that, when people get together they should begin to gabble and jabber just for the sake of gabbling and jabbering, is no more sensible than to say that they should all take canals and palettes or pianos and madly set to painting or playing, which are merely other forms of expression.—Life.

MARRIAGE AT MOORE'S CHAPEL.

A wedding of no little interest to this community was that of Miss Beena Florence Saine and Mr. Baxter Rowland McCord yesterday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Bowles, of Mount Holly, at Moore Chapel in Paw Creek township. As maid of honor, Miss Bessie Heffner was the bride's attendant, while Mr. W. E. Moss acted as best man to the groom. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Mary Bowles, of Mount Holly. The bride was attractively gowned in white, carrying white carnations, while her maid of honor was dressed in pink with pink carnations. Messrs. Clifton Sadler and Alden Reid, both of Paw Creek, were the ushers for the occasion. An informal reception was held immediately after the ceremony, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Saine, at which the bride and party and a selected number of friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. McCord will spend a few days with relatives in Paw Creek, when they will go to housekeeping at No. 811 West Trade street.

Mr. McCord is a son of Mr. J. F. McCord, of Paw Creek, and is connected with the Ed Mellon Co., here. Mrs. McCord has many friends here in the city who welcome her to their midst.

HUBBARD-BOWEN MARRIAGE.

The marriage last evening of Miss Loula Bowen to Mr. Henry W. Hubbard, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. M. E. Bloom, on West Trade street, was a happy affair. Rev. R. L. ## BIG COAL CONTRACT COAL MEN HERE BID CLOSE SAT.

There is a flurry in the coal fields of Charlotte today. A big lump of coal weighing 300,000 tons is to drop Saturday, and coal men from far and near are gathering here to catch it.

The contract for this amount of coal is to be let Saturday, by Mr. R. M. Miller, president of the North Carolina Manufacturers' Association. Mr. Miller is the man, therefore, of the hour, with coal men. He is being besieged at his office by representatives of many of the big coal companies of the East.

The contract will be let Saturday, as the time limit for the submitting of bids expires then.

The coal is to be bought in one lot by the association from that company which will furnish the best grade of coal at the most reasonable figure.

The coal will not be delivered at one point but will be shipped direct from the coal fields, in lot assignments, to the point designated by Mr. Miller, president of the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association. The association will call for delivery of the coal throughout its territory as it is needed.

This is probably the largest contract for coal ever let in the state. Among the prominent coal men here trying to get the contract are Messrs. H. M. Rice, W. Alcover, R. B. Alcover, O. Mouser, A. F. Massey, Elliott Wavter and K. S. Finch, representing the coal companies of the East.

Rev. J. A. Young Left 142 Descendants

Mr. Young was 80 years of age. Fifty-eight grand children and 63 great grandchildren and nine great-grand children.

HIGH POINT NEWS NOTES.

Special to The News.

High Point, N. C., Jan. 5.—The anxious waiters for the census report were paid yesterday, when E. Dana Drund sent the telegram, the head of which read: "High Point city, population, 12,348; 9,525; 12th census, 1,163." While now and then dissatisfaction was expressed that the figures were not as large as expected, the conservative citizens realized that almost as many as a third of High Point's inhabitants reside outside of the corporate limits, and, if included, in the census would easily bring the population to 12,000. As it stands, High Point has gained a greater percentage than any town in the state.

There's much pleasure expressed among the citizens that Mr. W. C. Dowd has been chosen speaker of the house.

Dr. H. W. McCain, of Waxhaw, a graduate of the State University, and of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, has located here for the practice of medicine.

To Select Successor.

By Associated Press. Columbus, O., Jan. 5.—The caucus of democrats in the legislature will be held today at 2 p. m. to consider the election of a successor to United States Senator Dick. The democrats control the legislature.

The Cleveland delegation has announced that it will enter the caucus and this fact is hailed by the followers of Governor-elect Alden Pomerene, of Stark county, as indicating his selection by the caucus as the democratic candidate for senator. Friends of the other candidates, including Edward W. Hanley, of Dayton, Congressman T. T. Ansberry and Carl C. Anderson, and ex-Congressman John J. Lentz, deny that Pomerene will be chosen and predict the victory of their own candidate.

Rumors of many combinations to beat Pomerene are circulating today.

Congress Reconvenes.

By Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 5.—Congress reconvened today following the recess for the Christmas holidays. The senate adjourned immediately out of respect for Senator Elkins, who died last night. The house proceeded with the consideration of the legislative bill, which is before it as unfinished business.

Recorder's Court

The bills may lose their perpetuity, the sun may even cease to shine upon us, and the heavens may withdraw their acoustics from the reverberating thunder; yea, even the lightning will no longer flash, and the gentle rains will aviate instead of descend but the drunk stays by Judge Smith's temple of justice forever and anon. One for a nest egg this morning: R. W. Chaney, white, $5 and expenses.

Geo. Crawford, colored waiter at the Gem Restaurant, was found guilty of retailing and fined $50 and costs. He was seen by Officer J. T. Wilson in the act of delivering a pint of whiskey to a white man, C. L. Swain, last night about 10 o'clock and promptly arrested. Swain testified to having purchased it from Crawford at the time and place above mentioned. Judge F. I. Osborne appeared for the defendant and appealed the decision.

The defendant was admitted to bail in the sum of $100 which was furnished. The case of retailing against the East Avenue Drug Co. was called but was continued on a technical objection raised by the defendants counsel. Mr. J. D. McCall, in regard to the manner in which the summons had been served, the legal methods in being a summons on a corporation, being to give ten day's notice in writing. This had not been done.

This case is the outgrowth of the one in which Abe Audrey, manager, was indicted about 3 weeks since for selling one pint of whiskey to one Sam Cochran. Audrey was acquitted and the corporation was indicted.

The East Avenue Drug Co. is a negro concern. R. W. Wentz, the Poplar street restaurant keeper, charged with retailing, was acquitted, as were also T. A. Hoover and Tom Moore, witnesses in the case, who were indicted for perjury for testimony given in the trial yesterday morning. Summarized, the case is as follows:

Wentz's place was searched by the police and 52 pints, or three cases, of whiskey were found. The law makes the possession of more than 2 1-2 gallons of whiskey ipso facto evidence of guilt. Wentz was indicted. Hoover and Moore testified to owning one case each of the whiskey. This evidence unless disproven cleared Hoover of the charge. The state upon information and belief brought a charge of perjury against them.

Mr. D. Trawick, freight agent for the Southern Railway, was placed upon the stand and swore that the records of his company did not show a delivery on the dates claimed, Dec. 30th, and 31st, either Hoover or Moore, but that they did show a delivery of one case to have been made to a negro drayman for Wentz's account upon a written order from the latter.

Requested by the court for a positive oath as to whether a delivery had been made to either Hoover or Moore on the dates in question, the witnesses did not make it.

Upon this evidence the cases were dismissed.

Contract Let For Dowd Building

The contract was let today for the new two-story brick building, to be erected on West Fourth street by Messrs. W. F. and W. C. Dowd.

The contractors are Oats & North. This will be a permanent structure.

The entire lower floor has been leased by the United Motor Charlotte Company, of which Mr. J. H. Ham is president and Mr. J. H. Ross, secretary.

The brick for the foundation are being hauled today.

BAREFOOTED CHILDREN WALK ICY STREETS.

By Associated Press. Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 5.—At the height of the cold snap here yesterday, when the thermometer registered many degrees below freezing, three barefooted children were taken to the recorder's court here. They had been found the day before on a country road just before the intense cold struck this section. They charged that their father, C. M. Carnes, had sent them out to hunt a new home. The father was bound over to stand trial on a charge of abandonment.

Boys Social Hour Banquet 1o-night

The social hour tomorrow night at the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. gives promise of being the most popular of the series yet given. A banquet will be served to the members of the Bible classes, and their teachers. The banquet will be served at 6 o'clock in Hannah hall, and the committee in charge is planning to make this the biggest event of the year. By no means the least enjoyable part of the festivities will be the post-prandial feast, after everything of the edible class has been disposed of. Mr. D. R. Fonville will act as toastmaster, and several interesting speeches will be made by the boys, and others. The names of the speakers will not be given out before hand, but every boy who wants to be in on the best stunt of the year should procure his banquet ticket today as no tickets will be issued the day of the banquet.

Every boy who is a member of a Bible class now, or who wishes to enroll at this time is entitled to a ticket. Membership in Bible classes is not confined to members of the association and any boy in the city who wishes to join any of the classes is welcome.

Church Notes

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in St. Mark's Lutheran church next Sunday morning. Preparatory service tomorrow night (Friday) at 7:45.

THEY ALL DEMAND IT.

Charlotte, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve but do not cure. Here is evidence to prove that Doan's Kidney Pills cure, and the cure is lasting.

Mrs. S. W. Beattie, 807 E. Ninth St., Charlotte, N. C., says: "Since using Doan's Kidney Pills several years ago, I have had no trouble from my kidneys and am only too pleased to confirm my former statement given for publication in favor of this remedy. I suffered for years from backache and though I used remedy after remedy I could find nothing that would give me relief. Seeing an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills, I thought that they might help me and procure a supply at R. H. Jordan & Co.'s drug store. After I had taken the contents of several boxes, I was so much relieved that I stopped using them and for more than a year I was free from the trouble. At the end of that time, however, I again had an attack of backache, but Doan's Kidney Pills again cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
