The Stony of a True American ENRY RUSSELL MILLER

h perore the convention, like didate was overwhelmingly beaten.

favorably reported by ing with sardonic humor who had last vs Committee of the lower, used similar tactics in that city; Bob passed the first reading. also bought control of an old-fashion-afroad attorney called upon ed, sedate but moribund newspaper,

The latter refused him an placed it under modern management invitation from a gentle- methods and deeds of the MacPher-

the next train came the Then he approached Stuart, a weak

b-and with hatred rank- mayoralty nomination.

aletly, "I promised your Bob of their action.

ader them wholly ineffec- whether we win or not."

of your sacrifice and we making comment.

nderness, and he put his count.

other's shoulder affection-

cade was subsequently re-made. With masterly skill closely.

curbing will be good for McAdoo. He

"If we have to," MacPherson re-limited funds. Bob managed this campaign himself. MacPherson's can-these disclosures reflected discredit upon Bob's share in the old regime.

The day on which the Bugle an-

can be beaten, I suppose?"

forcing the quarrel on him.

Book Two. increase in pply served eat here to IN THE MOULD.

ary was unment was view of a CHAPTER VI .-- (Continued.) he great boss executed characteristic daring.

of clear sky, came the gov-

ill for a special session of awa regulating freight rates rastriction of rebating, and ones chuckied. Murchell uss the gubernatorial situa-

invitation was cartly de-

interview, which had ta-

in the governor's library,

only thing, of course," he

into his fine face.

Gerson.

heart

islature convened, surround-ature to consider the pas- He is dangerous."

ake profits he opinion order. An the weathremoval of ed 1-8a1-4 started at to 1.01 1.8

in olg spurt of general on suntry ac. There were buy at 50 le off to a rouched 49 1-483-8 it despite unchang

34 7-8 to recovered.

were easy nog prices rially with 1-2 to 10 ay options for pork at, No. ed 96 1-2a .00 1.2; Northern 0a1.06 3-4 82a92 1. 2 white 4: No. 3 -4a3-4.

and 10.10

.00; March larch 15.25 roduce. .700 Close 0.5% 1015

Rye, cash

714 10.60 7号 10.17号 10.721 10.024

95 9.95

-Cash wheat 02 1-2a105;

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS JANUARY 9, 1911

"He will never go over

FOR SALISBURY.

(From Salisbury Post.)

Mad Dog Bites Children.

Pherson in the campaign just closed John, will be infinitely harder than -it is true, Bob had practised the with MacPherson in the saddle down same methods; but it is a characteris- there. But if he should keep up his tic of the American people to scruti- present fight, I don't believe they can nize the factics of the victor more beat us. Your refusal of the bargain closely than those of the defeated— was very generous, but— His voice and they demanded a change. Bob as he thanked us was absolutely colorhad no mind to wait three years until less. It might have meant anything. the next mayorality contest. More-over, he must take advantage of the a little wearily. "But he has the reppopular awakening which, with the utation of never deserting those who cynical unbelief shared by many oth- help him."

"Yes, but he never played for so ers, he deemed to be only ephermeral. So he set about the capture of the big stakes before."

Mrs. Dunmeade broke in eagerly. county offices, among them that of district attorney, the most important in "John is right. He will never deal our scheme of government, the possesyour confidence. And not merely from sion of which is essential to the successful fruition of our corruptionists' gratitude. He has changed-grown plied, inwardly cursing Sackett for schemes. Accordingly MacPherson set up a To strike for this office was to atcandidate for the nomination against tack the chief stronghold of the inter- hope and believe he will be a great ests. Bob could have had at least a and good man." Romington, and supplied him with un-

"I believe you are right," Murchell promise of their support, had he been willing to accept their conditions. Be- said quietly. fore his intention became public, he to them. Because they can have no By Associated Press. Then the word came from Sackett was visited by an avowed agent of to MacPherson. "Get rid of McAdoo. the combined steel contribute largely city, who offered to contribute largely the combined steel concerns of the John." he added smilingly. But Bob's was no Fabian policy, to to his campaign fund, if he would alwait to be attacked; realizing that thenceforth he must fight for his nor for a committee to investi- thenceforth he must fight for his po- had been made with MacPherson and ods of the railroads. The litical life, he boldly carried the war that, once assured that the winning into the enemy's territory. Under candidate in any case would be their cover of the fall elections he quietly revel. servant, they would surely throw their and carefully built up an organization swarm of railroad lobbyists. throughout the city; so quietly indeed weight against him, refused. A helpwas present in person. At that MacPherson received no inkling in his plans. less district attorney played no part Another was set forth in a cartoon aps week the bills had been of his purpose until too late to hinthe senate. Two days more, der its accomplishment. Remember-

Th McAdoo organization was extended out into the boroughs and county districts of the county. In this work Remington, with his native diwas a cruel-looking lash. Before him plomacy and winning manners, was cowered a trembling, shackled figure, an invaluable aid. The choice of a labeled "The People." Beneath fas the caption, "Woe to the conquered!" Now Murchell received a and began a series of exposures of the candidate for the district attorneyship was the most difficult part of the pro-(CONTINUED TOMORROW.) elphia to run over to that son ring; needless to say, nothing in gram. Bob at length found one suit able to his purpose in Martin, a bril-DAMASK MILL liant and ambitious young lawyer When Bob first broached the subject from Adelpia to see Mur- and pliable man who, however, had to him. Martin demurred. He went into the considerable following among the "If I took it. I'd want to make a The first annual meeting of the in a towering rage; he came "conservative" element of the city, record.," he said. "There's a certain twardly as meek as the pro- and offered to support him for the line of prosecutions, for political offenses, that I'd like to push. And I don't care to be used as a club to force MacPherson into a deal and nounced Stuart's candidacy, Bob rethen pulled off from the prosecutions." ceived a curt not from the mayor redurchell sent for Dunmeade, questing his resignation from the di-"That's all right," Bob explained. "I Of in what had been said. As rectorate of public safety. Bob prompt- want you to make a record. listened, lines of suf- ly complied. His successor's first offi- course, I shouldn't want you to hurt portance. cial act was to summon Bob's ap- any of cur people, but so long as you pointees to "the carpet" and in plain stand by us, you may go after Maciscouraged tone. "The terms inform them that they must Pherson and his crowd as hard as you tors and officers. But it is shameful- work for the success of MacPherson's please. There'll be no deal in that to harter away the peo- candidate or lose their positions. A quarter.' "That seems fair enough. But." or a petty office. Why small number timidly agreed to the e better to pass the bills, boss' demands, but the majority hesi- Martin added dubiously, "have you the stigation through and ac- tated. A few boldly declared for endorsement of the railroad and steel mill, as soon as the weather conditions Stuart, accepted their discharges, and people? They have always made it are auspicious

The manufacture of the class of John Dunmeade," Mur- sent one of their number to inform a point to own the office." "No," Bob said strongly, "I haven't goods to be produced by this company has been carried on in the south in you where you can reap He listened to the story without their endorsement, and won't have it. a very limited way. There are but a But you and Remington can tell the few mills of this class, and they have, people why that crowd needs the ofthat point yet. Pa- "Why did you do it?" he demanded under competent management, prov-His voice changed to abruptly, at the conclusion of the ac- fice. We'll win without their help. en in every case signally successful. And when you are elected you can go Every effort should be made by the "Well," said the spokesman awk- after them, too, and I'll stand by you." citizens of Salisbury to further the "I don't know what your game is," sn't like you to lose cour- wardly, "you got us the jobs, you've interest of this enterprise.

ht is just opening. Wait!" always been square with us, and we Martin answered. "But, by George! convention met at the cap- sin't going back on you now. Besides, I like your style of fighting, and if you er house was still debat-nor were the final votes "All right," Bob answered. "You with you!" give me this opportunity, I'll be square

By Associated Press. unmeade was nominated, pay goes on the same until the elec- MacPherson's candidate had no New Orleans, La., Jan. 10 .- While is were quietly amended tion. After that I'll take care of you, chance to win; the popular clamor for playing with a pet dog, four small chila change wos too strong. And it was dren of A. W. Kaye, of Meridian, Miss., When the interview was noised, the a "young man's fight." The trio, Bob were bitten when the animal suddenly doubtful employees at once lined up the young leader, Martin the young went mad. The children were brought session of the lower house, for Stuart. Bob made them the same candidate, and Remington the young to this city yesterday for Pasteur ries were packed with dele-visitors to the convention "Bob McAdoo ain't just my style of thusiastic support of the young men. treatment. stayed for the proceedings man," said one. "But his word's good It was the day of young men. That made the last speech in the with me, you bet!" This saying ex- autumn a man barely forty years old "Did you stack up against any big was the greatest speech pressed the general opinion very made his second unsuccessful run for game when you were out West?" asked the presidency. Another young man the man who is fond of shooting. "No, I never play higher than was elected vice-president, within a

By Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 10-Then senate committee on judiciary yesterday with them, and he will never betray failed to agree upon a report of the resolution providing for direct popular election of United States senators. vonderfully-these last four years. I Another meeting of the committee may felt it the instant I saw him today. I be held later in the day.

> CIVIL COURTS HAVE NO JURISDICTION.

Washington, Jan. 10 .- Civil courts use long for a man of his caliber and he's keen enough to know it. And I have no jurisdiction to review the prohave faith in Katherine's intuitions, ceedings in an army board for the promotion of officers, according to a At the next session of the legisladecision announced today by the suture Bob's bill was passed. Dun- preme court of the United States, in office, and appointed Stuart in his low Hart Reves, of the artillery corps, place. That night Irishtown held high United States army.

How would Bob use his power? Mrs. How are those New Year's resolu-Dunmeade had expressed one opinion. tions holding out?

Building A Shirt A Shirt Building The Emery Shirt is "built" in the finest shirt manufactory in this country. It requires a large, seven-story building equipped with every modern appliance and facility, operated by workmen of the highest skill, to produce the perfection found only in THE Style, fit, comfort and splendid wearing qualities are the features which have caused the immense demand for the Emery, and the great facilities for making it. Sold by WALTER M. OTEPS CHER & BRO., MA Mixture of $1 and $1.50

9

ANADO

"Emery" Shirts Choice $1.00

We were short on some sizes in $1.00 Shirts and long on $1.50 "Em ery" so we have gone through our stock and in our $1.00 Shirt case a big lot of these fine celebrated $1.50 Emery Shirts. Now come take your choice for $1.00.

COLLINGWOOD West 35th St., New York City, On the block between Fifth Avenue and Broadway. Offers select accon modations to and affords every facility for the comfort of guests.

the city, in a very quiet neighborhood, convenient to all surface, Subway, and elevated railway lines, and in the midst of the shopping and theatre district.

months.

Railway to New Orleans, La., Mobile, Ala., and Pensacola, Fla., Account of Mardi Gras Celebration, February 23-28.

ebrations at New Orleans, La., Mobile,

Before Us

stockholders of the Hambley Manufacturing Company, an organization for FOR FLETCHER'S the building and operating a damask mill in' Salisbury, will be held in the office of the C. C. Adams Co., Tuesday CASTORIA afternoon, Jan. 10th. 1911. at 4 o'clock All subscribers are urged to attend as "Half a Block from Herald Sq." the meeting will be of paramount im-HOTEL The principal business will be the election of a permanent board of direc-Sufficient stock has been subscribed inthis company to admit of their commencing the construction of the a discriminating people. ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF Situated in the very heart of Rooms with Bath $2 and Up. Special rates for summer

Restaurant a la Carte. Formerly of New Haven House, New Haven, Conn.

Extremely Low Rates via Southern

On account of the Mardi Gras Celpearing in MacPherson's newspaper the morning after Stuart's appoint-ment. Bob was represented as a hid-eous giant; in his outstretched hand was a cruel-looking lash Before him Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA Children Cry

46a1-2; No. 2, 33; No. 2

ain

.... $1.00 1.4.4 3.8 14.845

n. 10 .- The before tocouncfl will or pro tem-'s nominee ssible tha forces will as they did chiefs and will be also > otte town ernoon for A petition pass near Oliver Oil n of Steel d until the

RIA hildreu ways Bought Flitcher

e 111. -Anthony J. he old time is seriously live, Thirty was one of he National ved his use returned to ice force.

SHOES r. Relieves tet and in-tokes the ft's ery of the kes the swollen day, Sold Sold Don't accept kage FREE a Roy, N. Y meeting of Meckienburg ion, for the such other will be held tion. Basen Tuesday at 8 CRAIG.