VOL. 43. NO. 6947

CHARLOTTE, N. C., THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 9, 1911

PRICE In Charlotte, ? cents a Cepy Daily---5 Cents Sunday
Outside Charlo tte, 5 Cents a cepy Daily and Sunday

Beveridge Fires First Gun In The Reciprocity Fight

mment Insurgent Republian Comes Out in Able Speech And Defends The administration Treaty.

ow is The Time to Establish the ming a column of want ads will Friendly Trade Relations pause to consider the second With Canada in His Opinion appearance of an ad already read in the same column. Many will go back to the original The Fight Is On.

ance

ank

small.

Pres.

he United States and Canahe policy of mutual trade LORD AND LADY and commercial friendli shall we make permanent the rade obstruction and comstility between the two ons which must be answer-

this great national policy

x, the negro who last week flagman of the Southern rail-He was rescued just in time Porter, The negro was unconwhen the moose was taken did not wait until all the prisaround his neck and fixother end to the bars above, was dangling in midair when for ransom. ner, hearing a choking soundfi his arrest the negro has act-

ost recovered from the ef-

TWICE IN THE SAME PLACE! .

 classified page a certain want ◆ ad is found repeated. This is ◆ ◆ done to intensify the reader's ◆ ◆ attention—and it succeeds. Al- ◆ • to compare the two.

The effect your ad gains by ◆ repetition is a valuable one. ◆ It's a natural effect, and some-◆ times more striking in its way ◆ than large type and space. The News patron who runs his want ad twice does more than simply double its pulling • placing your next ad • "double it up." others of the prothe second place. The cost is Savannah, Ga., Feb. 9.-Lord Deceis and his bride, who was Miss Vivien Gould, did not reach Savannah via the Atlantic Coatst Line en route to Je Jekyl Island until 7:40 o'clock this hat it should be because of morning, instead of 2:45, the hour they were expected. The car in which this objection is they traveled, although an object of to those defects, yet it is neg- curiosity to those about the station en compared with the chance while it was here gave no sign of life. the curtains being drawn, indicating that all hands, from the Pullman porfound that the objection (ter. to his lordship, were asleep. From cattered items is not sound; here the train proceeded south, transmatter of agreement, and ferring the distinguished passengers concessions are necessary, and their private car, the Atlanta, to our government has done the Brunswick and Western Railway well in the concessions at Nahunta, Ga. The Coast Line has been advised of the safe arrival of the party at Brunswick,

MYSTERY STILL

Erie, Pa., Feb. 9.-Mystery surrounding the robbing of the cemetery vault belonging to the family of the late as the train was leaving William L. Scott, one time congressman, was uncleared today. It was made certain that the only body cartattemp to hang himself last McCullum, a sister-in-law of Mr. Scott.

So far as is generally known, the only clue which may lead to the solving of the case is the receipt two years ago by Mrs. Charles H. Strong, a daughter of Mr. Scott, of "black had retired before attempting hand" letters demanding $10,000 on e himself to death. He tied a pain that her summer home would be blown up. An Italian settlement near here s being watched. One theory is from the top of the bath that the body was stolen to be held

Practically every casket in the vault his relief. In a second he had been tampered with, it was disdown and shortly afterwards covered at daylight, some of them having been opened.

Just when the vault had been brokstrange manner. He appears en into has not been determined, as the ordeal of a trial and no person paid strict attention to it. Members of the family state it was agman who was shot by Fox intact three or four days ago.

Newspaper men were ordered away the wound and will soon be at the point of guns. The family and art is no more to blame for this than appear in court against the police refuse to further discuss the

Piedmont County Bill Called Forth Heated Debate

ial to The News.

leigh, N. C., Feb. 9 .- In the Mr. Kidkman, of High Point, and equally strong speakers indefinitely postponed.

two cents, also a bill by Ewart to reduce Pullman care fares.

A bill by General Carr to appropriate $10,000 for a monument for the women of the Confederacy came aleigh, N. C., Feb. 9.-The • from the pensions committee with mont county bill was lost in • a favorable report and after General house by a vote of 54 to • Carr addressed the house for the measure went to the committee on appropriations.

Gen. Carr's speech stirred great outbursts of applause.

The Avery county bill that passed second reading last night by 23 to a spirited debate occurred on 3 vote got final passage this morning that this city was to be the permaon of Piedmont county, and was ordered sent to the house. The Piedmont county bill, with an the fight for the county unfavorable report and special ore support of Spainhour and der on Boydens' minority report, was

A bill by Sykes would appropriate Public Service Cororations $150,000 for a fire proof state library Committee reported unfavorably the museum and hall of history.

WHO SAID HE COULD N'T "COME BACK"

Various Views On The Bond Issue

interview obtained this morning with Mr. F. C. Abbott, one of the most the various communications you have as a striking example.

appeal to the public Mr. Plummer umns to the large discrepancy between actual values and assessed vaiues of Charlotte real estate. He is doubtless correct in his quotations. This state of affairs does exist and,

"But, to the spirit of his remarks which tend to antagonize the smaller property owner against the larger, I would take exception.

"There is an old saying that 'People throw stones.

dollars.

"So it is readily seen that all are in the same boat together-including Mr. "The fault is not in the individual, but in the system we have. Mr. Stewthe people he criticises.

"No property owner is asked to place a valuation on his real estate. He lists a description of his proper ty and the assessor places the value on same, and it is a fact that all who that there is great variation and great inequality i nthese values. "What is needed and badly needed, in Charlotte, is a system under which the real value of all properties can be determined and then whatever proporion of assessment is decided upon, whether twenty, forty or sixty per cent of real value, should be equally and justly applied to all properties alike, no matter how large or how refuse to pull mileage on trains to small it is, and if Mr. Stewart will devote his large energies to this just solution of the tax question he will find all public-spirited citizens of Charlotte are with him in the mat-

> OKLAHOMA CITY SCORES POINT.

By Associated Press. Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 9.—Sustaining the contentions of the supporters of Oklahoma City in every point in the capital removal controversy, the state supreme court, in a decision rendered today, declared nent capital of Oklahoma.

Bishop Whitaker Dead. By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 9.—Bishop Whitaker, of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, died at his residence here today, prominent real estate dealers in the had in your paper regarding issuing to take its place with other cities of ity. Replying to an interview pub bonds, etc. I was especially interest lished yesterday from Alderman Stew- ed in the article in your paper yesart, Mr. Abbott coincides with that terday saying, re-adjust your assess- well-known attorney said to a News zation of taxation, but says it is not money to run the city without issuthe fault of the individual quite so ing any bonds. I am heartily in famuch as it is the SYSTEM by which vor of a readjustment of all proper am opposed to it. the property is assessed. And he ty in the city of Charlotte, as I forces this thought home by using the think all citizens should pay equally. assessed value of Mr. Siewart's home but I am not in favor of assessing as easy and simple as gathering up our property too high, unless we can leaves in the woods. Money don't grow Interesting Mr. Abbott talked as get an adjustment with the county on the trees for city purposes any as to the amount of taxes we are more than for individual needs. Every 'Turn on the light.' With this now paying them. I see no reason bond is a debt of the most serious why we should tax ourselves to and lingering kind. When an individual men and a child perished and it is Stewart calls attention in your coldeath when we will be only bene contracts a debt he figures on paying feared another woman and a man fitted by about one-half of the amount it back in a reasonable time; but the are still in a street car which plungof the additional taxes we pay. I modern idea of city indebtedness is to ed into the Sheboygan river at a think the most important thing to see how long it can run. It is said the drawbridge here today. The motorman By Associated Press. the city at present is to work for an adjustment with the county. Why is acshould the citizens of Charlotte be for the debts of fathers, grandfathers, river's bank Charlotte would like to see this matter called upon to pay the county $49,000 etc., ad infinitum. This makes a people ty any more than the county should being put into effect by reckless runbe taxed to build streets in the city ning municipal corporations into debt. of Charlotte? Do you think for one Mas this slavery of debt has kept the Chinese Empire in the very rear of stand for this? Then why will the progress, so it will work upon Ameriwho live in glass houses should not citizens of Charlotte submit to this can cities if persisted in. longer? We are a part of the county, and are paying seven times as good for anyone. The same argument making his striking illustrations of much road tax as the county, yet we would prove slavery salubrious for a valuation to be entirely fair in the spending this, as all we get out of it property valuation as against the tax are not recognized when it comes to comunity. Owe no man is as sound matter, should have stated that his is a refund of $9,000 annually. I do phical poposition today as it was two own home property, nicely located on one of the best residence streets in articles appearing in your paper are the city, and worth at least six or exactly fair, for we must not overseven thousand dollars, is down on look the fact that it has been years the tax list for only nineteen hundred since this property was assessed, considerably in this time. Why does the party not give us a few figures as to the assessment of the property

The merchants of this city av an advalogem tax and in addition, are compelled to pay the city a special license tax to do business. I do not think they should pay this tax, but are posted on the situation realize the city must levy this tax in order to make ends meet. Taking everything into consideration, I think if have better streets, have more water and sewers. If we could save the $49,000 we are annually paying to time. the county, we could issue a million dollars in bonds and use this money believe with proper taxation and finanments, and of course will be larger administration was ushered into existafter the assessment this year. Ail ance was to live within our income; erty is assessed higher in proportion in no sense 'reasonable.'

would be $24. Now, suppose a piece Suppose we add $60,000 to this making (Continued on Page Eleven.)

sary and that the city can, with an "I have read with much interest equal taxation, derive enough revenue the country, Mr. Brevard Nixon, &

"Yes, I am deeply interested in the proposed million dollar bond issue. I

Some people talk about issuing bonds to get money as though it were annually to build roads in the coun- a slave of debt. The same principle is "Some say a 'reasonable debt' is value of taxable property has been fixed in North Carolina for years as the limit of municipal debt. The wisdom of this law has beed demonstrated by its age on the books. A debt beyond this would not be 'reasonable,' A million dollar bond issue would run the indebtedness of the city way beyond this ten per cent imit. Therefore, in the county? From reports, county the proposed bond issue would be unproperty is not assessed as highly in reasonable and wrong. proportion to its value as city prop-"I believe in development and pro gress, but let it be on reasonable and conservative lines, and not by wild cat indebtedness schemes. States, counties and cities are suffering today from the wild cat schemes of foreigners. 'Carpetbaggers', who, for several years after the civil war, reveled in municipal debt. It is time now for the people of the city who have been born the property in Charlotte was assess- and bred here to call a halt. It is time ed equally, this would adjust matters. for people who own property to stop If we expect to be a city, we must and think before bequeathing to unborn generations this tremendous burden to be carried on down through

"Yes, we need more water, but to pay the interest, and have $4,000 ciering we can get it with out bondsleft to do other work. The above certainly without the amount of a milfigures are based on present assess- lion dollars. The slogan by which this will agree that something must be but it seems that the watchword by done for the suburbs which were which it will be ushered out will be taken into the city. They need the attempted million dollar bond isstreets, lights, etc. Their streets are sue. Instead of living within its income in worse condition than the roads in as pledged, it would place a debt upon the county, yet they pay the same the city so great as to stagger the rate to the county as the county mind of the average citizen-a debt people, and in addition, their prop- almost double the legal limit-a debt than lands in the county of the "Let us increase our water supply same value. In addition to this, they temporarily from the means around pay the city the rate of $1.26 on the town, artesian wells, and the water hundred dollars. This makes us pay from other streams in the neighbortwice as much tax as is paid in the hood if necessary, and pay for same county, yet we have no streets and as we go, as near as possible, rather they have good roads. Suppose a than load ourselves down with a debt piece of property in the county is we can hardly hope to be able ever to assessed at $2,500 when its real pay the interest on, Our yearly interest value is $10,000. The county taxes debt is now something like $70,000.

Continued on Page Eleven.)

Votes Pour Into News Balloi Boxes From an Army of The People

sue are in demand today, the very eve of the final count which to a great extent is to determine whether or not Charlotte is to accept or reject the dermen and issue $1,000,000 bondsers; $250,000 for streets, and $150,-000 for schools.

In every section of the city the people are greatly interested in the propo- terest in any one question. Notwithsition, and commendation of The standing the instruction daily given News for inaugurating a scheme to that the people vote YES or NO, some feel the pulse of all the people is from have "tied strings" to their ballots. almost every mouth. In Dilworth the A great many favor bonds "if the people are taking a lively interest in right—, etc." Another will say, "I the matter, copies of The News being am against the proposition, but let 'em in demand in practically every home. do what they want to." This class is Additional coupons are furnished so in the minority, however. The man that those who want to preserve their who owns a home in the suburbs for papers intact will not have to cut which he paid about $1,000, and upon tives in the present general assembly the man who counts his money by are expected here tomorrow and they the thousands. will talk with many citizens with rethe Solons, and, in fact, no plans have been made for their especial entertain-

"They are at home here and they can do as they please. All of them are rather good fellows, too, considering the fact that they are legislators and they will find a welcome any and the legislators want to know how

But the one thing the delegation is Are you or are you not in favor of most interested in is, whether or not the bond issue.

the people want to issue bonds in the or or against the proposed bond is sum of $1,000,000. The act asked for would grant the city power to issue this amount of bonds. In the election if one be held, the ballot to be voted, so it was said today by the mayor, will have upon it what the money recommendations of the board of all is to be expended for. A person might want to vote for water bonds and noth-$350,000 for water; $250,000 for sew- ing else, or street bonds and nothing

It's been a long time since the city of Charlotte exhibited so much inwhich he is paving some tax, thinks Mecklenburg county's representa- of the matter in a different light from

And out in Mecklenburg county, gard to the question most paramount where hundreds of good farmers daily to all. There will be no formal meet- read the columns of The News are ing of the board of aldermen to receive perusing every line that is said about ing," they remark in a way that makes one think they have something "up their sleeve.'

However, the main question that is now to be settled is what will the ballot be tomorrow night. You, Mr. Good Citizen, have the rest of today where," was the way one man express and all of tomorrow in which to make ed himself when asked if any action up your mird and to vote either for or would be taken by the officals with against the issue. Cut the coupon from regard to "feeling the pulse of the The News and express your opinion. It will give the legislators a chance

The people of Charlotte want to to better see how all of the people know what the legislature will do with stand on the question. Now is the regard to adopting or rejecting the time for all good men to come to the resolutions of the board of aldermen, aid of the party, is in all phrase taught in schools where stenographers are the people feel towards adopting or educated, and it is applicable now. rejecting the recommendations of the Remember, if you haven't a coupon, Hence it will be a come to The News office and get one gathering of mutual spirits when all Vote here or in any of the boxes get together. There are few people through the city. Mr. Lynch, the in the city but who are acquainted Blind Man on the Square, has been diliwith every member of the house and gently attending to the box located the senator from this district. When there. Hundreds of coupons were taken the Solons arrive they will talk with from it last night, and this morning whom they please and act as they early, despite the rain, there were

THREE DROWN IN STREET CAR

Sheboygan, Wis., Feb. 9.-Two wo-

Express Strike that he was under the hypnotic in-

By Associated Press.

employes of the Wells Fargo Express mits he engaged Pantchenko to com-Company at Jersey City struck to- mit an act of malpractice and says the strike will spread. Discrimination ject was subsequently used by the against leaders in the general strike doctor to blackmail him. last fall is said by the men to be De Lassy said today that he was the grievance. The two stables of the not present when the injections were company are under guard.

Serious Auto.

By Associated Press.

when an automobile in which they were. were riding crashed into a fire hydrant and then into a trolley pole on King street. Murdoch sustained internal injuries, the steering wheel being jamm- Langlois, senator from Muerthe-Eted against his stomach; he is in a hos- Mosselle, and Henri de Regnaier, the chine was badly damaged.

DE LASSY ON

to poison Count Vasselli Bouturlin was further examined by the prosecution today. In his original confession, since repudiated, Pantchenko said the latter's brother-in-law. In his own defense de Lassy has declared that he was in no way con New York, Feb. 9.—Three hundred corned in Bouturlin's death. He ad-given Bouturlin by Panchenko but visited the patient on the same day. He did not hear Bouturlin describe his sensations after the treatment by Pantchenko and asked no questions Wreck at Chaileston as the matter had no interest for him. He had visited the doctor's office on the day of the autopsy to destroy evidence of his association with Pantchenko. If the latter really in Charleston, S. C., Feb. 9.—City For- jected toxin in treating Bourturlin ester Rollo G. Murdoch, and two the defendant said he did not know friends were badly injured early today what the motives of the poisoner

Members of French Academy. Paris, Feb. 9.-General Hippolyte

pital resting easily. H. T. Siebels, of poet, were today elected members of Columbia, and A. D. Cohen, of this the French Academy in succession to city, were less seriously hurt. The ma- Costa de Beauregard and Viscount de Vegue, deceased.

$1,000,000 Bond Ballot

Aldermen favor the issuance of bonds to the amount of $1,000,000. Upon the proposition as it is submitted, answer YES or NO by signing your name and giving your address upon the lines on the coupon.

			1
NO	 	amatanaman dinarem	